MINOR MENTIONS.

—J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall.

—The trustees of the public library are to meet this afternoon.

—Everybody reads THE DAILY BEE. It is the paper to advertise in.

—Sherrard makes photographs.

—There was an interesting song service at the Congregational church last night.

—Eugene Schill, the South Main street butcher, sells the Best Meat of any in town.

—Rev. Mr. Henderson, of St. Louis, occupied the Presbyterian pulpit yesterday.

—At Broadway Methodist church last evening there was a platform meeting in the interests of missions.

—Writing made easy, by the use of H. E. Seaman's pencils. This item was written with one of them.

—Robert McWade is expected to appear at Duhaney's on the 24th inst., probably in Rip Van Winkle.

—Leave to wed was on Saturday given to Christen John Eghelm and Mary Soronen, both of this city.

—A stranger who hired a team at the Ogden house livey stable has disappeared mysteriously, team and all.

—Stockholders in the Driving Park who have not received their driving tickets are requested to call upon Dr. McKune.

—The new Council Bluffs line of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway begins to run passenger as well as freight trains to-day.

—Michael Feron, of Omaha, was so drunk and disorderly in a hallway in Everett's block that he had to be cared for by the police.

—There were ninety-one arrivals at the Ogden Saturday. Pretty good for one hotel in a city which hasn't, according to The Nonpareil, a single good hotel.

—The law firm of Arvett & Sims having been dissolved, Mr. Sims is to continue in the profession, occupying the same office on Broadway, near Pearl street.

—Col. Dickey arrived Saturday with five splendid horses belonging to A. H. Swan, of Cheyenne. The horses are now being cared for at the driving park, and will show up in next month's races here.

—A very desirable piece of property for sale, on south side of Sixth street, in the block opposite the new Opera House, on Broadway. Front twenty feet. Price three thousand dollars. Enquire at Bix office.

—There was a pleasant reception at the home of C. E. Stone Friday evening in honor of Mr. C. A. Frekericks and Mrs. Carrie E. Patten, who were recently married in Omaha.

—The Council Bluffs hunting and fishing club has elected as its officers for the coming year: S. Farnsworth, president; A. C. Graham, vice president; A. E. Avery, secretary; Charles Officer, treasurer; H. Green, director.

—Charles Westroppe, the young man who, on account of mental weakness, is at times dangerous, is now locked in jail, not being able to give bonds to keep the peace.

—A four year old boy whose father and mother live in the southern suburbs of this city, was fatally scalded on Saturday, his death ensuing on Sunday morning. The family are strangers in the city, having moved here only three or four days ago and are in destitute circumstances.

—A three-year-old child was found wandering about the vicinity of the Rock Island depot, evidently lost. Officer Edgar had about two hour's sharp hunting before he found its home, which proved to be near Duhaney's hall.

—John Dingman and Ernest Miller were on trial in the superior court Saturday for disturbing the peace. The evidence showed that Miller came to Dingman with a knife, and the latter very properly knocked him down. Dingman was therefor discharged and Miller fined $5 and costs.

—In Justice Abbott's court Saturday the case of Barbara E. Bradshaw vs. the Singer Sewing Machine company, and Constable Rosecrans was long drawn out. The jury brought in a verdict about 10 o'clock at night, finding in favor of the company.

—Deputy Sheriff Clatterbuck has arrested near Dunlap and brought to this city Joseph Strong, who is charged with grand larceny, it being claimed that he stole the house and furniture of Mr. Bigley who lives on the bottom. The examination will be had before Justice Abbott.

—It is now quite certain that the proposed new daily in Council Bluffs will not start, owing to the difficulty in securing telegraphic reports. A new weekly promises to appear soon, however, which Mr. Chaffin, of the firm of S. T. Walker & Co., is to be the presiding genius.

—John Martin, who was fined $10 for his contempt of Justice Frawley, after spending one night in jail concluded Saturday to pay cash. He then took charge of venue in the two other cases against him, one for perjury the other for resisting an officer, and the cases were sent to Justice Bond, before whom they will come up to-day.

—A telegram from Atlantic described a man wanted there for burglary. Officer Sterling's eye eyed a fellow manning umbrellas who answered the description, and arrested him. Saturday night an officer arrived from Atlantic, who says the prisoner is the one wanted. The umbrella man gives his name as John J. Reid, and denies everything, of course.

—At the meeting of the school board Friday night, Miss Webster was elected principal of the high school at a salary of $1,200; Miss C. C. Clark, assistant, at $5 a month; Mrs. Shepard, principal of the school in Hall's addition, $50 a month; Miss Josie Wayne, primary teacher in Streetville school, $40 a month; Miss Romie Lyons, primary teacher in School Hall's addition, $40 a month.

—An ugly hole is caused at the corner of Bryant and Broadway by the tumbling in of the rotten sewer.

—Officer Tyson has arrested G. W. Andrews on the charge of stealing a revolver at Silver Cliff. Andrews has given bail for his appearance Tuesday.

—Officer Cwick on Saturday night arrested Henry Fell and Adam Taltser for disturbing the peace. They will be adjudged this morning.

—The action of the city council in electing Bachelor as oil inspector, instead of Troutman, is said to have pricked May r Bowman to the quick. When this democratic mayor went into office, he retained the old police force, republican and democratic alike, and now in electing oil inspector, his choice, Troutman, is tossed overboard, and a republican put in by just one vote. It is understood that he is now planning revenge by cutting off the heads of some of the republican policemen, and putting democrats in their places.

—A regular soldier from Fort Omaha, and belonging to company G, Fourth U. S. Infantry, was found upon the streets here Saturday evening in a crazy condition. He told Constable Fox that he owned the asylum at Jacksonville, Ill.; that he came over from Omaha on his own special train, and that he had $25,000 invested in Fort Omaha. Fox, under the pretense of showing him around town, steered him to the jail, but the lunatic was quick to see the game, and fought lustily against being shut up. In the struggle the constable had his coat torn into shreds, but he succeeded in housing his man, who now awaits orders from the other side of the river.

OPERATING IN OIL.

The Appointment of an Inspector and the Law Governing the Matter.

The city council has, as an outcome of the kereneze war being waged in the city, elected as inspector and manager Wm. R. Bachelor, and on Saturday he began posting up in regard to his duties, intending to enter upon them at once.

The state law creating the office, provides that the council on the petition of any five inhabitants shall annually appoint one or more inspectors, not interested in the sale or manufacture of coal oil, kerosene, or any product of petroleum, the compensation not to exceed five cents a package, to be paid by the party requiring the services.

Its second section provides that upon the application of any person, purchaser, manufacturer, refiner or producer of, or any dealer in such oils or fluids, said inspector shall test the same, with reasonable dispatch, by applying the proper fire tests thereto, in quantities not less than one pint. If the oils or fluids so tested will not ignite or explode at a temperature less than 150 degrees Fahrenheit, the inspector shall mark plainly and indelibly, over his official signature, with the date thereof, on each cask, barrel, tank or package so tested, "Approved, fire test being 150 degrees," or more, as the same may prove; but if such oils or fluids will ignite or explode at a temperature less than 150 degrees, then the inspector shall mark on each package, "Condemned for illuminating purposes, fire test being — degrees." A record shall be kept, the entries to be made within twenty-four hours, and this kept accessible for examination by any person.

The third section provides that any person who shall falsely brand or mark any package, or be guilty of deceit, misconduct or culpable negligence in the discharge of any of his official duties, or who shall directly or indirectly deal in any such oils or fluids while holding the office of inspector shall be fined not exceeding $100, or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days, and be held liable to the party injured for all damages.

The fourth and concluding section provides that any manufacturer or refiner of, or any dealer in said oils or fluids, who shall sell, or offer for sale, to any person for illuminating purposes, without the same shall have been so inspected, or shall sell, or offer for sale, any such oils or fluids which are below the test of 150 degrees Fahrenheit, or who shall use any cask, barrel, tank or package with the inspector's brand or mark thereon, the oil or fluid therein contained not having been so inspected, or who shall counterfeit any such inspector's mark, shall be subject to the same penalties as stated above, and the same liabilities.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Wheeler, the jovial and popular landlord of the Revere house, expects to start to-day for Denver, intending to be absent two or three weeks.

Prof. A. E. Clarendon has returned from the east, where he has had the pleasure and profit of meeting and mingling with some of the leading educationalists of the country.

Mr. Hanchett, of the Chicago university, is in the city, visiting his brother, Dr. Hanchett. He is the colleague who captured the first honors in the recent interstate collegiate contest.

Joe Danbaum, of Cromwell, who showed so much pluck for a boy by chasing and capturing an overcoat thief, recently won the prize in a foot race at Creston. Joe is a Council Bluffs boy, who has many friends here, who will be glad to learn that he is prospering at Creston, where he is now employed.

Mrs. Henry McKane, whose husband, now dead, was formerly an engineer on the Erie railway, and an old and intimate friend of Constable Rosecrans, is in the city, a guest of Mrs. Rosecrans, as are also Mrs. Charles and son, of Bellevue.

Rev. C. F. Hamlin, pastor of the Congregational church, expects to start this week upon his vacation trip eastward, and will be absent two and probably three Sundays. For the first two Sundays a supply has already been secured for his pulpit.

J. F. Barke, the well known photographer, returned home yesterday from Indianapolis, where he has been attending the meeting and exposition of photographers. He reports that there were 600 of the profession present, representing every section of the country, and the show of art was not only interesting, but very instructive. Mr. Barke is quite enthusiastic over the trip and the meeting, and is sure he got several hundred dollars' worth of pointers.

Our Glorious Independence.

What can be more glorious than to be independent of self? It is caused by dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, headache, or other diseases emanating from the stomach. It can be easily gained by a timely use of BURDICK BLOOD BITTERS. Price $1.00, trial 10 cents. aug-7-1w

Obituary.

James A. Fugate, of Council Bluffs, son of J. H. Fugate, died at his home in the above mentioned place Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. For several days Mr. Fugate has been seriously ill and up to the last moment his friends had hope that his recovery was almost certain, but in spite of the efforts of the best physician and all that loving hearts and tender hands could do, he passed peacefully away to that better land.

The remains were brought to this city yesterday evening and will be buried at the cemetery to-morrow at 10 a. m., in accordance with the solemn rites of the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a valuable member.

James A. Fugate was born in Schuyler county, Missouri, in 1848, we believe, and removed to this city several years ago, where for a long time he was known prominently as a business man. Faithful to every trust, honest as the day was long, he will be remembered and respected as one of the best of citizens. To his widow and the two orphan children will go out the warmest sympathy of

MAJOR MATTERS.

Correspondence of The Bee

MAPLE RIVER IOWA, Aug. 12.—On Thursday night the monotony of our quiet village was broken by considerable shooting. No job for the undertaker or doctor.

Our three saloons are doing business quietly and peaceably. [They all seem to be anxious to close on Sunday as desired by our citizens, but they seem not to be able to withstand the pressure from Carroll. What a burden! The untrained Carroll youths away from home. No doubt their devoted mothers too frequently neglected to bring on the buttock blush in childhood. What a pity!]

Our Mr. D. says: "It was miserably healthy. He is going away on business next Thursday. He will be gone for a few weeks. We shall be glad to see him return."

What is in shock and stack. The quality and quantity of wheat, oats and barley is good. Corn is growing rapidly regardless of low mercury, and the prospect for a good crop is fair.

D. J.

—Necessity is the mother of invention." Diseases of the liver, kidneys and bowels brought forth that sovereign remedy Kidney-Wort, which is nature's normal curative for all those dire complaints. In either liquid or dry form it is a perfect remedy for those terrible diseases that cause so many deaths.
