OMAHA.

Wednesday Morning, Aug. 16

Weather Report.

The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all the stations named.

WAR DEPARTMENT, U. S. SIGNAL SERVICE, OMAHA, Aug. 1, 1882. (1:45 p. m.)

Table with columns: STATIONS, Barometer, Thermometer, Wind, etc. Lists various weather data for different locations.

Water 7 feet 7 inches above low water mark at Omaha, 4 feet 6 inches at Yankton; Mississippi, 3 feet 10 inches at La Crosse, and about 9 inches at Dubuque.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Omaha Men's chorus picnic, August 27th. The A. O. H. picnic at Herculaneum on Saturday next will be an enjoyable affair. The game law expired yesterday and prairie chickens will suffer for a while. The Paxton hotel, under the hands of the painters, is assuming a gorgeous appearance. There will be a meeting at Tivoli garden this evening to organize a German branch of the O. P. L. U. All German laboring men are invited to attend.

The Omaha teamsters held their regular meeting at Tivoli hall, Wednesday evening, August 16th. By order of T. J. Quick, secretary.

Charles Conroy, secretary of the board of Education received a dispatch from Mr. James, the newly elected superintendent which states that he "left yesterday for Omaha to look over the field."

Miss Mary Andrew will give art lessons beginning Monday, September 3d, 1882, at her studio, above Max Meyer & Co.'s jewelry store, corner Farnam and Eleventh streets.

One of the largest meetings of the season was held by both land leagues Sunday in the Catholic library rooms, Mr. James Hannigan presiding. The business before the meeting, the coming musical and literary entertainment in Masonic hall Wednesday and Thursday, 18th and 14th of September, was reported favorably upon, and promises to be one of the grandest social events of the season.

A young man named Meek was arrested for obtaining a suit of clothes, board and lodging under false pretenses. The parties who complained of him took legal advice and withdrew the complaint. It seems that Meek started a barber shop on Sixth street and after three days, in which financial success did not look very probable, he closed the place. He expressed a determination to pay as soon as he was able. Angela could do no more, and as the bible promises that the Meek shall inherit the earth the young man's credit ought to be first-class.

J. B. Morton, a traveling man for a wholesale house in Tennessee, was arrested Monday on the strength of a telegram from his firm, charging him with embezzlement. He is held to await the arrival of an officer.

Edward Ainscow will have a hearing on Monday next on the charge of maintaining a nuisance on the premises corner of Jones and Thirteenth streets.

The case of Frank Kotiza against Frank Vell, in which the latter was accused of threatening the life of the former, has been dismissed.

Laron Miller, Sr., Larson Miller, Jr., Hiram Miller and John Bowers, arrested for driving too sharp a trade with a young man working at Henry Livesey's brick-yard, and with spiriting away a valuable horse without his consent, were to have a hearing yesterday.

Mark of Respect. Below is a copy of the circular to heads of departments in Burlington & Missouri general offices.

DEAR SIR:—You will please close the city office to-morrow afternoon, the 16th inst., in respect to the memory of Mr. H. M. Smith, late assistant general freight agent.

DEPARTMENT DETAILS.

More Staff Officers to Leave Omaha for Other Stations.

A Battery of Artillery Ordered to Take Station at the Barracks.

Notes at Fort Omaha—Jottings from Headquarters.

The probability of further changes in the department of the Platte was hinted at in THE BEE some weeks ago. That probability has now been changed into a certainty by the announcement that Col. Ludington is to be transferred after October 1st, at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., with the Department of the Missouri.

The regret which will everywhere be felt over Col. Ludington's removal from Omaha will not be tempered by the fact that Major J. V. Farley will at the same time leave our city and take station at Baltimore. Gen. G. B. Dandy, now quartermaster at St. Louis, will probably be assigned to the position vacated by Major Ludington. Major Farley's successor has not yet been announced.

A Washington paper states that Gen. Howard is making strong efforts to be transferred to the Department of the Columbia instead of the Department of the Platte but that there is no probability of his success in this direction. General Howard will be a great acquisition to the Young Men's Christian Association of any locality to which he may be ordered.

An order of great importance to Omaha has just been issued by Adjutant General Drum, which creates five new light batteries of artillery, and orders battery D of the Fifth artillery with three officers, 65 men and four pieces of ordnance to Fort Omaha. The stationing of this battery at the barracks will, at once, necessitate the renting of a large tract of ground for light battery drill, the present parade ground not being large enough for this purpose.

The battery drill will be a new and interesting feature at the barracks, the evolutions of the guns and the bright uniforms of the officers and men making the sight attractive and impressive, one which will add greatly to the interest of the garrison.

There was a dress parade and a sacred concert at Fort Omaha on Sunday afternoon, which was witnessed by many of our citizens. The same programme will be carried out every Sunday from date. Gen. Carter is a thorough old soldier, who believes in maintaining this old custom of the army. It is a new thing at Fort Omaha, and will be much appreciated.

A number of our people acquainted with the Third cavalry which was ordered from this department to Arizona at the opening of the Apache outbreak, the following complimentary order of Gen. Wilcox will doubtless prove of interest:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF ARIZONA, WHITFORD BARRACKS, PHOENIX, July 31, 1882.

The department commander is happy to announce another success of our gallant troops against the Apaches. On the 17th inst., Captain A. R. Chaffee, Sixth cavalry, came up with Nan-ti-ah and his whole band of desperate renegade scouts and released Cuban prisoners.

The engagement took place on Big Dry Wash, a misnamed "Cherelon's Fork" in the dispatches; it lasted until nightfall, resulting in killing 16 warriors, whose bodies were found, and the capture of the hostile camp, saddles, and reserved ammunition (500 metallic cartridges Cal. 45), over 100 horses and mules (including those killed), and six squaws and children.

Too much praise cannot be accorded to Captain Chaffee and his immediate command, Troop I, Second cavalry, and Company E, Indian scouts, Lieutenant Morgan, Third cavalry, commanding, and scarcely less to Major A. W. Evans, Third cavalry, and his troops who came up from a remote post in good time, and fought with equal bravery. Major Evans himself generously saving the management of the light to his junior in rank, Captain and Brevet Major Chaffee.

Our casualties consisted of two officers, Lieutenants Morgan and Converse, Third cavalry, wounded, one enlisted man and one Indian scout killed, and five enlisted men and one Indian scout wounded.

The lessons taught by this fight, the necessity of greater precaution to prevent Indians from obtaining arms and ammunition. Second, the value of energetic and persistent pursuit however remote and hopeless it may seem at first. Third, the importance of trailing and attacking the hostiles even with inferior numbers, and holding on to them until other troops arrive on the ground.

By order of Brevet Major General Wilcox.

H. L. HASKELL, Aide-de-Camp.

DEPARTMENT NOTES. Col. Ludington has gone to Cheyenne.

Lieutenant Quinton, of the Seventh infantry, stationed at Fort Snelling, passed through the city yesterday on his way to Cheyenne.

Fort Omaha is beginning to wear its old saddle and settled appearance as men and officers are getting settled in their new quarters.

Capt. Neide's company of the Fourth infantry en route from Fort Laramie to Omaha is expected here to-day. First Lieutenant R. P. Brown and Second Lieutenant Hallis, accompany the company. Capt. Neide was a brevet brigadier general for gallant and meritorious services during the war.

All the officers who are to be transferred to Arizona are packing up their effects. A special Pullman car will take the entire party from Omaha to the end of their destination.

Overworked men and women, persons of sedentary habits, and others whose system needs recuperation, nervous toned, and muscles strengthened, should use Brown's Iron Bitters.

THE CITY COURT.

A Batch of Miscellaneous Business of Importance and Otherwise.

The business transactions in Judge Boneke's court yesterday morning were quite numerous.

Peter Swanson, arrested for disturbing the peace paid $3 and costs.

Nellie Brown and Patsy Boliver, arrested on the charge of being notorious prostitutes, went to jail in default of $5 and costs each.

There were two plain drunks. One was fired out of town, and the other will be sent the same way after a three days' rest in the jug.

A young man named Meek was arrested for obtaining a suit of clothes, board and lodging under false pretenses. The parties who complained of him took legal advice and withdrew the complaint.

It seems that Meek started a barber shop on Sixth street and after three days, in which financial success did not look very probable, he closed the place. He expressed a determination to pay as soon as he was able. Angela could do no more, and as the bible promises that the Meek shall inherit the earth the young man's credit ought to be first-class.

J. B. Morton, a traveling man for a wholesale house in Tennessee, was arrested Monday on the strength of a telegram from his firm, charging him with embezzlement. He is held to await the arrival of an officer.

Edward Ainscow will have a hearing on Monday next on the charge of maintaining a nuisance on the premises corner of Jones and Thirteenth streets.

The case of Frank Kotiza against Frank Vell, in which the latter was accused of threatening the life of the former, has been dismissed.

Laron Miller, Sr., Larson Miller, Jr., Hiram Miller and John Bowers, arrested for driving too sharp a trade with a young man working at Henry Livesey's brick-yard, and with spiriting away a valuable horse without his consent, were to have a hearing yesterday.
