COMMERCIAL

Omaha Wholesale Market.

OFFICE OF THE OMAHA BEE, Saturday Evening, August 19.

The wholesale trade of the city generally is reported in a fairly active condition, the weather being fine and the continued glowing accounts from all quarters of the state of the prospective corn crop is very encouraging. The movement in boots and shoes, hats and caps and clothing continues good, and dry goods and millinery are improving. The merchants in these lines report sales larger than usual at this season of the year, and buyers commencing to come in quite freely, though the volume of the business up to this time has been on mail order a count and through traveling salesmen. Prices remain firm all around, but are especially so for Standard cotton productions, and ostrich feathers and tips, raw material in ostrich having advanced from 33 to 100 per cent.

The grocery trade was fairly active, and most of the staples were firm and steady. The demand for fish is falling off somewhat and prices weakening. Shot is advancing, selling at $1.85.

Wholesale cigars and drugs are improving, and report sales for the season very satisfactory. The advance in quinine, morphine and opium is well maintained, and prospects of still further advance.

The produce business has been very active throughout the week and somewhat irregular, especially in fruits. The consignments of apples, peaches, melons and tomatoes have been very large, and while the demand was good, the supply being so much in excess, prices have declined, and portions of some lots have gone to waste for want of buyers, especially watermelons and tomatoes, the latter of which express charges could not be realized in some consignments.

Berries of all kinds were scarce and in demand.

Vegetables of all kinds are a drug in the market.

Lemons are only in fair supply and prices advancing, selling to-day at $7.00 for choice. Oranges are in limited supply and selling at $8.00. California fruits are arriving freely and quotations maintained.

The butter market continues to rule firm under a good local demand for choice dairy and fancy creamery.

Cheese continues steady with only a moderate demand.

Eggs are only fair supply and firm at quotations.

The poultry market rules firm, with a fair demand and moderate receipts.

Meats of all kinds and lard are in active movement at unchanged prices.

Flour is in fair demand at quotations. Other millstuffs are meeting with only moderate sales; prices steady.

The receipts of hogs for the past week was 27 cars, packers paying $7.60 for good.

The local grain trade is quiet and prices running remarkably steady.

The only changes reported in the market to-day are as follows:
