Special Dispatch to fur Bra, CHICAGO, August 25.—The management of the Chicago and Omaha pool lines held a meeting to-day. The principal question considered was the recent heavy diversion of live stock shipments to the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. After thorough inquiry the discussion was reached that this decision was not due to cutting of rates by the latter, nor to any traffic arrangement with the Union Pacific, but to the concurrent action of the shippers, who oppose the pooling system and the arbitrary system off evening up" which result therefrom, whereby the shipper is not allowed to decide by what line his consignment will be taken. The meeting accordingly decided to do away with the "evening up" and instructed the joint agent at Omaha to allow shippers to select the route over which to ship live
