GEN. GEORGE CROOK.

Banquet to the Department Commander of the Platte.

Glowing Tribute to His Worth as a Soldier and a Man.

The Millard and the Brilliant Banquet.

It has been several weeks since the first announcement was made of General Crook's contemplated departure for Arizona, and the feeling of regret at first expressed has only been strengthened as time elapsed.

THE BANQUET.

At the Millard last night was participated in by Omaha's representatives men and a prominent might have felt honored by the character of the attendance and the sincere expressions of regret expressed on all sides at the occasion which called the guests together.

THE TABLES.

which were burdened down with the weight of delicacies. The main table was at the west end of the hall and upon this the most notable piece was a floral tribute from the friends of General Crook, in the shape of a mammoth shoulder strap that of a major general.

A NOTABLE FEATURE.

as was also the monogram in merange of Gen. Crook. At 8:30 the Musical union orchestra struck up the grand march and the guests, led by Mayor Boyd, Gen. Crook and staff, entered the banquet room.
