

HEIMROD & DORMANN, (Successors to Fred Lang.)

WHOLESALE & RETAIL

Grocers

Our success is due to our good goods and low figures. We always keep consequently our customers can purchase of us only fresh goods.

FRESH STOCK,

WE SELL EXTRA

MINNESOTA FLOUR

$4.50 per 100.

SCHUTLER

CELEBRATED SNOWFLAKE

is the only flour that gives general satisfaction, and we daily receive proofs from our customers that it makes WHIPEST AND LIGHTEST BREAD.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Being the only pure and healthy article in this market, and which is recommended by the most celebrated chemists. KEEP IT.

SUGARS.

We keep CALIFORNIA SUGAR, which is pronounced to be the purest article ever brought to this market. We also keep the best brands of SYRUPS and

FLAVORING EXTRACTS.

Heimrod & Dormann,

WHOLESALE & RETAIL

WINE AND LIQUOR

DEALERS.

We keep but pure and healthy goods, free from any adulteration. Families using such goods for medicinal purposes should give us a call. We make specialties of

CALIFORNIA CLARET, PORT, ANGELICA, SHERRY.

CALIFORNIA PURE BRANDIES.

We also keep fine lots of imported COGNACS—RHINE WINES.

CHEESE.

These goods you can buy of us fresh and cheap. We always keep the best quality of

LIMBURGER AND GENUINE SWISS.

And all other varieties in large quantities.

THE PUBLIC

is cordially invited to give us a call, as we can assure all satisfaction.

HEIMROD & DORMANN,

Corner 13th and Jackson Sts.

ADVANCING CIVILIZATION.

That Which the British is Carrying in Cartridge Boxes Into the Interior of Egypt.

A Great Many Arabs Overdosed and Dying by the Roadside.

The Power of the Khedive Must be Respected and Despotism Overthrown.

Rapid Progress of the Victorious Army in the Rear of the Rebels.

Shelley Still Insists on a Final Settlement by the Powers.

SHELLEY OUT.

ALEXANDRIA, August 28.—The "Mudoutar" has successfully shelled the enemy out of Madara.

TERRIBLE RIOTS.

CALCUTTA, August 28.—Terrible riots have occurred between the Hindus and Mohammedans. All sorts of excesses have been committed. The disembowled body of a Mohammedan infant was found lying on the ground with its arms torn off. The headless corpses of men and women were seen on every side. The houses of Mohammedans and their principal mosque was burned. Dead pigs were thrown into wells with the corpses of Mohammedan children. All is quiet now, as troops are patrolling the streets. A number of arrests have been made.

THE KHEDIVE'S MISSIONARIES.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 28.—Sultan Pasha, attended by Tued Pasha and twelve subordinates, will start for Port Said and Ismailia to-day, to accompany Gen. Wolsey as the Khedive's commissioners to explain to the population of the districts through which the British pass their mission is solely to re-establish the authority of the Khedive and overthrow military despotism.

THE PLAYING ENEMY.

ISMAILIA, August 28.—Troops are continually advancing and it will be long before Tel El Kebir is attacked. Between Etames and Maima the ground is good for marching, but the canal is full of dead horses and bodies of Arabs. Some of the latter were thrown there by their comrades, while others were corpses of men shot while attempting to escape, judging by the quality of clothing, etc., found in the abandoned camp. The rebels must have been in great force. Most appear to have been merely peasantry, armed with old muskets and spears. Almost all prisoners are peasants. All dead are also peasants. Reports prohibit the use of the water of the lake of Maxama for drinking. An artillery general has been captured who speaks English fluently. He furnished valuable information. We now have two infantry regiments with cavalry and artillery at Kassasin.

A COMPLETE ROUT.

LONDON, August 28.—Wokeley telegraphs from Ismailia: "Just returned from the front posts, and find our action on Thursday and Friday had far more important results than I was aware of yesterday. The enemy was completely routed and fled towards Zuezig, throwing away arms and accoutrements. A large amount of camp equipment and ammunition were captured. Mahmud Pasha, Arabi Pasha's chief engineer and military adviser, is now a prisoner in my camp.

THE RUSSIAN PLAN.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 28.—Austria supports Nihilist, Russian ambassador, in his effort to have the military convention, when signed officially, communicated to the conference and to obtain from Great Britain a declaration that she will submit to the final solution of the question to the decision of Europe.

A-CARGO OF SUPPLIES.

PORT SAID, August 28.—The transport Bolivar with commissary stores, and the royal engineers and pontooners, and field telegraph, entered the canal to-day.

ASPIRIN AT CAIRO.

Some Bedouins who arrived here from Cairo report the inhabitants there calm, but the military excited. The latter burned Nuhar Pasha's house.

AN ARAB TRICK.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 28.—The enemy has released the supplies of water behind the dam and flooded the country on both their flanks. The cavalry and Bedouins continue to raid the village of Meks during the night, murdering the inhabitants. The report that Wolsey telegraphed for reinforcements is without foundation.

THE INDIAN RESERVE.

CALCUTTA, August 28.—A further reserve has been formed for immediate service in Egypt and will be dispatched on receipt of orders to that effect from Wolsey. The whole control of the Indian division has been made over to Wolsey.

A DRY LAKE.

ALEXANDRIA, August 28.—It is stated the British intend to cut dykes near Meks so as to flood a portion of the dry bed of Lake Maroutis and prevent any attack from that side.

THE GARRISON AT MEKS.

was reinforced in consequence of the Bedouins having formed a camp on the opposite shore of Lake Maroutis. Nothing was done at Ramleh to-day. It is thought that the last shell from the seven-inch gun yesterday disabled a large gun of Arabi Pasha's battery. Arabi is reported at Salihik. The authorities are unable to understand his persistence in holding Kafir El Dwar.

VETERANS IN CAMP.

A Large Crowd Already Gathered at Grand Island.

Preparations for the Opening To-day.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., August 28.—The soldiers reunion was formally opened to-night and the command thereof will be turned over to Gen. J. M. Thayer, post commander, tomorrow morning. At 4 o'clock this afternoon two long special trains containing twenty-two coaches arrived from Omaha and Lincoln bringing a swarm of people. Many came on some of the regular trains from the east, west and south, and to-night the camp is pretty well filled up. It is estimated that there are now on the grounds some 5,000 people, which number will probably be doubled tomorrow. Arrangements are far more complete than at any preceding reunion for the reception and comfort of those attending. Eating houses are unusually excellent in their line, while the Grand Island people have made liberal contributions of fuel, straw and forage. Generals Frederick and Thayer and Colonel Palmer and James superintended the camp, and have the routine of discipline reduced to a science. Proceedings to-night were somewhat marred by a heavy storm of wind and dust, which broke over the camp at 6 o'clock. A number of correspondents for various metropolitan papers are in attendance. To-night the Grand Army boys are having a ball in a large dancing hall on the grounds. Bands are playing in every direction and history lessons to be the order of the evening. The camp will not be in full running order until tomorrow, which is really the opening day.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

SHELLED OUT.

ALEXANDRIA, August 28.—The "Mudoutar" has successfully shelled the enemy out of Madara.

TERRIBLE RIOTS.

CALCUTTA, August 28.—Terrible riots have occurred between the Hindus and Mohammedans. All sorts of excesses have been committed. The disembowled body of a Mohammedan infant was found lying on the ground with its arms torn off. The headless corpses of men and women were seen on every side. The houses of Mohammedans and their principal mosque was burned. Dead pigs were thrown into wells with the corpses of Mohammedan children. All is quiet now, as troops are patrolling the streets. A number of arrests have been made.

THE KHEDIVE'S MISSIONARIES.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 28.—Sultan Pasha, attended by Tued Pasha and twelve subordinates, will start for Port Said and Ismailia to-day, to accompany Gen. Wolsey as the Khedive's commissioners to explain to the population of the districts through which the British pass their mission is solely to re-establish the authority of the Khedive and overthrow military despotism.

THE PLAYING ENEMY.

ISMAILIA, August 28.—Troops are continually advancing and it will be long before Tel El Kebir is attacked. Between Etames and Maima the ground is good for marching, but the canal is full of dead horses and bodies of Arabs. Some of the latter were thrown there by their comrades, while others were corpses of men shot while attempting to escape, judging by the quality of clothing, etc., found in the abandoned camp. The rebels must have been in great force. Most appear to have been merely peasantry, armed with old muskets and spears. Almost all prisoners are peasants. All dead are also peasants. Reports prohibit the use of the water of the lake of Maxama for drinking. An artillery general has been captured who speaks English fluently. He furnished valuable information. We now have two infantry regiments with cavalry and artillery at Kassasin.

A COMPLETE ROUT.

LONDON, August 28.—Wokeley telegraphs from Ismailia: "Just returned from the front posts, and find our action on Thursday and Friday had far more important results than I was aware of yesterday. The enemy was completely routed and fled towards Zuezig, throwing away arms and accoutrements. A large amount of camp equipment and ammunition were captured. Mahmud Pasha, Arabi Pasha's chief engineer and military adviser, is now a prisoner in my camp.

THE RUSSIAN PLAN.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 28.—Austria supports Nihilist, Russian ambassador, in his effort to have the military convention, when signed officially, communicated to the conference and to obtain from Great Britain a declaration that she will submit to the final solution of the question to the decision of Europe.

A-CARGO OF SUPPLIES.

PORT SAID, August 28.—The transport Bolivar with commissary stores, and the royal engineers and pontooners, and field telegraph, entered the canal to-day.

ASPIRIN AT CAIRO.

Some Bedouins who arrived here from Cairo report the inhabitants there calm, but the military excited. The latter burned Nuhar Pasha's house.

AN ARAB TRICK.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 28.—The enemy has released the supplies of water behind the dam and flooded the country on both their flanks. The cavalry and Bedouins continue to raid the village of Meks during the night, murdering the inhabitants. The report that Wolsey telegraphed for reinforcements is without foundation.

THE INDIAN RESERVE.

CALCUTTA, August 28.—A further reserve has been formed for immediate service in Egypt and will be dispatched on receipt of orders to that effect from Wolsey. The whole control of the Indian division has been made over to Wolsey.

A DRY LAKE.

ALEXANDRIA, August 28.—It is stated the British intend to cut dykes near Meks so as to flood a portion of the dry bed of Lake Maroutis and prevent any attack from that side.

THE GARRISON AT MEKS.

was reinforced in consequence of the Bedouins having formed a camp on the opposite shore of Lake Maroutis. Nothing was done at Ramleh to-day. It is thought that the last shell from the seven-inch gun yesterday disabled a large gun of Arabi Pasha's battery. Arabi is reported at Salihik. The authorities are unable to understand his persistence in holding Kafir El Dwar.

THE CAMPAIGN IN MAINE.

Gov. Plaiside Strikes an Attitude in the Shadow of Garfield.

A Speech by Blaine.

PORTLAND, Me., August 28.—Ex-Senator Blaine delivered a political address to-night in the presence of a large and enthusiastic audience. The speech was devoted chiefly to state politics. In alluding to the contest between the governor of Maine and the state council, he said: "My particular personal excuse for making this issue publicly with you is that he says he is doing precisely with the council of Maine what the late lamented president did with the senate of the U. S., that is, as President Garfield had a great issue with the senate so he has one with the council."

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

POUTING PEELERS.

The Irish Constabulary Kicking Against Their Cruel Work.

Thirty of the Limerick Police Resign and Snub the Inspector.

The Hate of "Old England" Crops Out in the Harbor of Yokohama.

The American Flag Sturdily Snubbed by the Britishers.

The Coming War on Corea, and Other Matters.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

Special Dispatch to This Day.

THE IRISH POLICE.

DUBLIN, August 28.—The discontent of the constabulary has extended to the Metropolitan police. Four hundred of the latter met to complain that they were not compensated for extra work. While the meeting was proceeding, a commissioner appeared and ordered the chairman to quit the chair. The chairman refused. The commissioner threatened to make an example of the chairman. The meeting dispersed shortly after. At a subsequent meeting the men pledged themselves to compensate the chairman for any loss he might sustain. The inspector general of the royal constabulary held a parade Saturday of the entire Limerick force. He said the transfer to the north of Ireland of six sub-constables, which had occasioned excitement in the ranks, was not meant as a punishment, and pointed out that insubordination could not be tolerated. The six men referred to have until Monday morning, he said, to decide whether to go north or resign. The force at Cork sympathized with the Limerick police.

CAPITAL NOTES.

WASHINGTON, August 28.—Col. John E. Tourtelotte, of Gen. Sherman's staff, has been detailed to accompany the Marquis of Lorne on his trip across the country. The governor general will be accompanied by Princess Louise and suite. The party are expected to arrive in Chicago September 6th by way of Detroit and then proceed to British Columbia by way of San Francisco.

GENERAL SHERMAN will ask to be placed on the retired list in November, 1883. He would be retired under the army compulsory act, February 8, 1881. Sherman stated to-day he had made up his mind to retire in the fall of next year instead of waiting for the enforcement of the law, so as to give his successor in command of the army, Lieut. General Sheridan, an opportunity of expressing to the next congress such views as he may have looking to the best interests of the service. Sherman will make his home in St. Louis.