OMAHA.

Wednesday Morning, Aug. 30.

Weather Report. (The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all the stations named.)

Table with columns: Station, Barometer, Thermometer, Wind, Force of Wind, State of Weather. Rows include Omaha, Des Moines, St. Paul, St. Louis, Chicago, etc.

Omaha, 5 feet 10 inches above low water mark; 4 feet 0 inches at La Crosse, and 5 feet 4 inches at Dubuque.

LOCAL BREVIETTES.

The Paxton will open before the state fair begins. Capt Marsh has just received two new... Mr. Geo. Coffey will today forward...

—The state fair foraging department has been let to Poland & Gwyer, and the privilege of the speed cards to W. O. Lee, of Detroit.

—The office of the secretary of the state board of agriculture, in the new Paxton hotel, will be opened on Thursday, in charge of D. H. Wheeler, Jr.

—The sale of the Wheeler for the Hanlon Brothers' engagement in "Le Voyage en Suisse" will begin this morning at Boyd's Opera House.

—There will be a special meeting of Omaha Teamsters at Tivoli hall Wednesday evening, August 30th. By order of T. J. Quick, secretary.

—The fruit of the labor of the chain gang was yesterday on Farnam street a few loads of broken rock having greatly improved that thoroughfare.

—R. T. Glenn, the jolly fat man is preparing to open a first class place on the north-west corner of 12th and Harney. Bob is a square man if ever there was one.

—A night blooming cereus with a single flower is something rare. But at six last evening two blossoms unfolded their petals until they measured from tip to tip eight and one-half inches. This remarkable event took place Monday at Mrs. Capt. Austin's.

—The Etanet Workers of the Christian church will give one of their delightful semi-monthly lawn readings at the residence of Mr. F. Stephens on Forest avenue near St. Mary's to-day evening. Refreshments will be served and a general good time is expected. All are cordially invited.

As possible, and the Union Pacific expect to wear them in their game with the St. Louis Browns on the 1st of September.

—Mr. F. Stuart, of Wahoo, who has confidence in the Wahoo base ball club, and cash to an unlimited extent, is in the city, and proposes to put the latter up on his home nine, if he can find backers. With $2,000 in currency and $3,000 in drafts, Mr. Stuart yesterday bluffed everybody on a game between the Los Angeles and the Wahoos. He means business, and will stake any amount on a victory for Wahoo, if the two clubs should play a match game.

st. Joseph and Return. From September 4th to September 9th I will sell tickets to St. Joseph at $1.65 the round trip, including admission to the exposition grounds.

A. F. BORDEN, Agt. K. C. St. J. & C. B., 23rd & O. No. 1020 Farnam St.

A CONFIDENCE GAME. Arrest of a Supposed Member of the Gang—A Woman Held as a Witness. Officer Burk Monday arrested a man supposed to belong to the confidence gang which has so long infested the city.

SLAVEN'S YOSEMITE COLOGNE Made from the wild flowers of the FAR FAMED YOSEMITE VALLEY, it is the most fragrant of perfumes. Manufactured by H. B. Slaven, San Francisco. For sale in Omaha by W. J. Whitehouse and Kennard Bros., & Co.

AN OLD STORY. Which is Not so "Visionary" as it May Seem. The most visionary of all schemes is reported by a Boston paper, which says that several prominent railroad men, who are interested in both roads, are disposed to look favorably upon a plan for the solution of the Colorado pool difficulties.

THE CITY'S SIRS.

A Protracted and Inharmonious Session of the Council.

The City Marshal Gets Another Twenty-Four Hours Respite.

A Tremendous Lot of Routine Business Transacted.

At the regular meeting of the city council last evening there were present, Messrs. Baker, Behm, Corby, Dellone, Dunham, Heiman, Kaufmann, Leader, McGuckin, O'Keefe and Thrane.

The journal of the preceding meetings, regular and special, was read and approved.

From the mayor: Approving certain ordinances. Filed. From the mayor: Appointing Win. Roush special policeman on South Thirteenth street.

From the mayor: Recommending that the electric power and light company be granted their petition under certain restrictions. Referred.

From the mayor: Asking for instructions as to his right to execute certain deeds to the Omaha & Southwestern railway company. Referred.

From the city treasurer: In regard to the cancellation of taxes against W. H. Stratton for double assessment. Referred.

From the city treasurer: In regard to the taxes against property already taxed by the state board of education. Referred.

From the city treasurer in regard to sidewalk tax against Peter Kutka. Cancelled by the council; city clerk instructed.

held personally responsible for his bent to this matter. Adopted. By McGuckin: To shut up the soap factory on Harney street, No. 1015, as a nuisance. Adopted.

By Kaufmann: That the council sit on a board of equalization from Sept. 5th to Sept. 9th inclusive. Adopted.

Several sidewalk resolutions were introduced, including one to lay sidewalk on south side of court house grounds. The latter was adopted and the rest referred.

By Leader: To put the sidewalk at Tenth and Hickory streets in safe condition. Adopted.

Mr. O'Keefe moved to suspend the rules and take up the report of the committee of the whole.

A lengthy struggle arose as to the legality of taking up the report of the committee at this meeting. Mr. Baker claiming that a special meeting must be held for the purpose.

The point was argued at length, and closed by the rest referred.

shrewd Englishmen have worked at it until it goes like clockwork. They work together with the famous precision of the Raveli family.

Brooklin's ATHLETIC SALVO. The Best Salvo in the world for Cut Throats, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fester Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chills, Corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures yill.

That the Hanlons are clever goes without saying; but they have also a very clever company.

ANGELL'S ANXIOUS SEAT. Continuation of the City Marshal's Investigation.

The investigation into the charges preferred against Marshal Angell and his deputy, McClure, was resumed Monday in the city council chamber.

There were present the following councillors: Baker, Behm, Corby, Dellone, Dunham, Heiman, Kaufmann, Leader, McGuckin and O'Keefe.

It will be remembered that the council postponed on Saturday evening last the further hearing of testimony on account of the illness of Col. Smythe, and Monday when the Colonel put in an appearance he was greeted with numerous kind inquiries as to his restoration to health.

Mr. John G. Nugent was duly sworn and testified that while he had been proprietor of the St. Elmo and Academy of Music he had never had women jerking beer in either place.

On the 20th of May or thereabouts a lot of prostitutes were booked in the payment of their fines, and he had the marshal arrest between eight or nine girls; several paid their fines, several got bail, but Lena Lot could not do so.
