OMAHA.

Friday Morning Sept. 3.

Weather Report.

(The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all the stations named.)

WAR DEPARTMENT, U. S. SIGNAL SERVICE, OMAHA, Sept. 3, 1883. (1:45 p.m.)

Table with 4 columns: Station, Barometer, Thermometer, Wind, and Direction. Rows include Denver, Cheyenne, and other locations.

River 6 feet 0 inches above low water mark at Omaha, 4 feet 1 inch at Yankton; Mississippi, 4 feet 0 inches at La Crosse, and 6 feet 8 inches at Dubuque.

LOCAL BREVIETIES.

From present indications the annual parade of the fire department promises to be the grandest affair yet attempted by the fire ladders. The Omaha Men's Club, Omaha Turn Verein, Boyd's Hose company, Her's Hose company, Council Bluffs fire department, and the Durand Engine and Hose company, have signified their intention of taking part in the parade.

A huckster's wagon was overturned near Williams and Thirtieth street Wednesday, and a couple of boys residing near Brown and Tenth streets were thrown out and badly hurt, one having his nose broken and the other receiving a serious cut on the knee. The driver, whose name is Hecker, was picked up insensible and is reported to be in a critical condition.

The new horse house on Tenth street for No. 2, is in an advanced state of completion. The walls are completed and the cornice on, so that it is seen to be a very pretty addition to this part of town. Chief Butler is hastening the work, and will soon have it ready for occupancy.

The police ought to look after the obstruction of sidewalks a little better. It is almost impossible to get by some of the commission houses during the morning hours, and there is a carload of mess all around that is annoying to pedestrians. Let the merchants put their goods in at the back door. On Farmington street some of the houses seem to regard the sidewalk as private property.

Harry Reel leaves today for a visit to his old home in Wisconsin, after which he will join a party of Omaha boys for a grand fishing excursion at Spirit Lake. As all are experts, a contract for the sale of their fishy victims has already been made. Millard & Johnson get 1,000 pounds per day, and other firms have ordered large lots.

The drawing for the lot donated by Mayor Vaughan to the widow of the late Geo. P. Armstrong, who was killed during the troubles of March last, will take place at Hammond's saloon, on Sixteenth street, next Saturday night. All holding tickets are requested to be present.

The members of the Social Art club are desired to send all articles to be shown at the exhibit at the state fair, on Saturday, at 10 o'clock, to Mrs. G. L. Nelson, Nineteenth street. Mrs. Van Nstrand, president.

A man engaged in laying gas pipe on Tenth street, between Farm and Harney, Wednesday, was overcome by gas, and fell down insensible. A physician was soon called and revived him.

Cornelius Crowley, of the Plasterers' Union, has disappeared with quite an amount of borrowed money, and the proceeds of a sale of tickets to the recent Plasterers' Union picnic.

BASE BALL.

The B. & M.'s to be Greatly Strengthened.

The Leadville Game.

Today at 4 o'clock the B. & M.'s play the Leadville Blues and the railroad clerks are making every preparation for a grand massacre. The mountain ball tossers returned last Wednesday from a fairly successful southern tour, having played two games in Kansas City, the first game standing 3 to 6 in favor of the home team, while the next was nearly a similar defeat, the score being 7 to 4. Hutchinson was evidently too much for them.

Their Leavenworth games were both victories for them, the scores standing 12 to 4 and 6 to 5. Mr. Harry P. Kelly, the gentlemanly manager of the "Blues," reports the crowds large and the treatment shown him by the contesting clubs most agreeable.

The game to-day will probably be the last one they will play in this part of the country, and the chances are that the B. & M.'s will get two or three of their best men. Price, their most effective pitcher, has already joined his forces with the B. & M.'s and will play with them for the first time to-day. He being pretty well posted on his old comrades' weak points is expected to do most effective work.

At the B. & M. headquarters yesterday our reporter found the blonde young men and officials greatly elated over the new impetus that has given their base ball association its latest boom and learned the names of two new players that are expected for to-day's game. Smith and Barney, pitcher and catcher from the Tecumseh club, Canada, are expected to work on freight and passenger statements to-day and play ball in the evening. Clippings from Canada papers show them to be most expert in the diamond and field. We predict for them a most pleasant position in the headquarters and grand success at the bat. With their new additions the B. & M.'s will have three pitchers and two catchers, and are again stronger than ever.

The B. & M.'s play the Wahoo's Saturday in Wahoo. The occasion being the dedication of their new grounds. Counting on Price and Barney being on hand to-day, the B. & M.'s batting order will be as follows: Kortm, 1 b. Jones, 1 f. Ellis, a. Smith, c. Barney, 3 b. Casey, 2 b. Price p. Munroe, c. f. Durkee, r. f. NOTES.

Wonder if the Council Bluffs crack me could be hired to play the Blues? Harry Kelly is anxious to play them for $5,000. Why don't the U. P.'s tackle the Blues in the question of the day? Mr. Frank M. Bishop, manager of the Quincy's, left for home Wednesday. He returns with the Quincy's Saturday, the 16th, and plays the B. & M.'s.

No one who can spare the time should fail to witness the second round between the Leadville Blues and the B. & M.'s, to be played on the grounds of the latter to-day afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Mr. Frank M. Bishop left yesterday afternoon for Quincy, and will return to Omaha next week, accompanied by the Quincy base ball nine.

Supreme Court of Nebraska. State ex rel Miller vs. Lancaster Lancaster county. Motion to dismiss sustained. Opinion: 1. A mandamus under our practice is an action at law, and is reviewable only on an error, and not by appeal. 2. When an appeal is dismissed and it is necessary to file an amended transcript in order to show the judgment sought to be reviewed, leave will not be granted to file a petition in error.

Howard vs. Lancaster. Motion to quash bill of exceptions sustained. Opinion: 1. A bill of exceptions must be submitted to the adverse party for examination and amendment before being signed by the judge, and if not thus submitted must be quashed. 2. If there be no receipt or other evidence in the record, an affidavit stating the delivery of the bill to the adverse party when and to whom the bill was delivered.

An alias summons in proceedings in error, issued more than one year from the date of the final order sought to be reviewed, is not a defect, being issued after the bar of the statute is complete. The following causes were submitted: Atkins vs. Atkins. Gallagher vs. State. Kaufman vs. Wessels.

PERSONAL. Mr. Thos. Casey, the U. P. Stigman, is quite ill. Mrs. W. A. Sharp left Wednesday morning for her home in Denver. S. Corly, manager for Frank Mayo, passed through Omaha Wednesday. Miss Kitchen, daughter of C. W. Kitchen, is in the city on a visit. G. H. Haas, special correspondent of The Chicago Drovers' Journal, is in the city. Mrs. Andy Borden and her mother, Mrs. Preston, have returned from St. Louis. J. W. Bar's appointment as purchasing agent of the B. & M., will take effect October 1st. Mrs. Lizzie Hurley, of Denver, is in the city the guest of her niece, Mrs. C. H. Conner. Lieutenant Morris C. Fox, Ninth infantry, arrived Wednesday morning from Fort Niobrara. Mr. Samuel B. Reed, one of the old engineers who built the Union Pacific road, is in the city. Mr. W. C. Gates, business manager of the Edison Comedy company, who plays "Rooms to Rent," was in city Wednesday

A DRY TOAST.

Fifteen Thousand Dollars Worth of Live Stock and Property Destroyed in Grand Island.

The Wyoming House and Stable Adjoining Consumed.

Special Dispatch to The Bee. GRAND ISLAND, Neb., September 7.—At 1:15 this afternoon a fire broke out in a boarding stable in the rear of the Wyoming House, both owned and run by D. Sass. The fire gained headway in a very short time, totally consuming both hotel and stable. There was twenty-eight horses in the stable and only a few were saved, although the harness of over a dozen were cut. The hotel had twenty-seven rooms in the second story, and was doing a thriving business in the present crowded condition of the town. The loss on stable and hotel is estimated at $15,000, insurance $4,500 of which the German American of New York, Home of New York, and the Hartford of Connecticut are the losers. Great credit is due to Charles Howell, who, with a small force of men, kept the fire from the grocery store of James Vestie, adjoining the hotel on the west, for had this once caught, the greater business portion of our town would now be in ruins. C. P. Henderson, chief of our fire department, also did good work on the east and south, keeping the fire from Cushman's furniture store and Jerome's livery stable. It was a very wicked fire, on account of the dry condition of everything and the high wind, and our people are to be congratulated that it went no farther.

Mr. Frank H. Wilson, of Denver, and his wife, formerly Miss Carrie Bennett, came up from Plattsmouth Wednesday. First Lieutenant Joseph A. Sladen, of the Fourteenth infantry, accompanied by Gen. Howard, arrived in this city yesterday. J. H. Mack, one of Haverly's well-known managers, passed through Omaha Wednesday on way to San Francisco to take charge of the Union Square company, which will be on some east. Mr. C. Fred Schram, of the B. & M. headquarters, left on train yesterday for his home in Wahoo. His health has been falling for some time and he hopes to improve it by taking a rest. He will be missed by his friends, not the least number of which are of the fair sex. Mr. Thomas Swift and wife, who accompanied the board of trade excursion to Montana and the Yellowstone park, will return on the Denver train this morning. Miss Ella Kennedy, who has been at the Hotel Kennedy, will return with them. Mr. Homer J. Shaffer, the western agent of the "Ball Dog" fine-cut tobacco, is spending a few days with his friends in Omaha. Should the "Ball Dog" become popular, as it undoubtedly will, he will return to push its claims upon the public. Mr. August Rohrs arrived from Kansas City yesterday morning. He is going to join the Omaha Musical Union orchestra, and will start in with them at once. He is pretty well known in this city, having been a resident here three years ago. Major S. P. Richards, secretary and treasurer of the original Ottoman Cigar company, importers of Turkish coffee, etc., is in the city. B. H. Kent, a well-known travelling man of the Empire State, is in town. C. W. Lyman and B. Roberts and son, of Salt Lake City, are in town. Warren Shiley, of the Kansas City cattle man, is in the city. A. J. Simpson, of Colorado, is in the city. Lieut. Geo. F. Price, U. S. A., is at the Millard. J. E. Woods, U. S. A. surveyor, is at the Millard. S. S. Lowe, of Fremont, is in the city. G. C. Crowell, of Blair is in town.

SLAVEN'S YOSEMITE COLOGNE Made from the wild flowers of the FAR FAMED YOSEMITE VALLEY, is the most fragrant of perfumes. Manufactured by H. B. Slaven, San Francisco. For sale in Omaha by W. J. Whitehouse and Kennard Bros., & Co. Harvest Home. Trinity Guild will repeat its Harvest Home Festival at the grounds of Bishop Clarkson's residence on St. Mary's avenue, on Saturday evening next. The 4th infantry band will be on hand to render their choicest selection from 4 to 10 p. m., and a fine musical programme in addition is assured. Street cars run to the gate. A large attendance ought to be guaranteed by this announcement. The last gathering in spite of most unpromising weather, was a great success, and with the added attractions of Saturday Trinity Guild will doubtless have every reason to congratulate themselves over the repetition of a most pleasing entertainment.

FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR. Hostile Attitude of Two Douglas Street Citizens. A neighborhood war has broken out on lower Douglas street between Dr. Kuhlman and Julius Ross, the proprietor of the American house. Ross has a four years lease of his premises from the Lauer estate, and the Doctor is trying to get him out. The city council has ordered the latter to make sewer connections forthwith, which Kuhlman declined to do. Ross thereupon dug a ditch to let off the water from that vicinity, which the doctor promptly had filled up again. Yesterday Ross' boys set to work to remove the obstructions and they claim that the doctor came out to stop the work with a pistol, while the latter alleges that they raised their spades to assault him, with intent to kill if necessary. He accordingly filed a complaint in police court against the boys and Judge Bunker will try to bring about a truce between the beligerent parties if possible.
