THE ANTI-MONOPOLY LEAGUE, CENTRAL CITY, August 14.

The State Anti-Monopoly League will meet at Hastings, September 27, 1892.

The League is organized for the purpose of putting before the voters of the state anti-monopoly tickets.

All anti-monopoly leagues are requested to call special meetings to elect delegates to attend the convention.

By order of the executive committee, H. C. OSTROM, Sec. State Anti-Monopoly League.

A HUNG jury ought to hang.

PATRONAGE and purchase will not always win votes.

THURSTON will not attempt to earn his salary from the U. P. by setting up the pins for the state ticket in the interest of the monopolies.

CHURCH HOWE and Thurston are waiting for the revival of political trade.

HUBBELL failed to get a renomination from his district in Michigan.

HON GEO. D. LOBINO, commissioner of agriculture is in the city and will address our farmers at the state fair.

SOME of the eastern papers are commenting on the fact that Attorney General Brewster were frills on his sleeves while making his great argument in reply to Bob Ingersoll.

A NUMBER of Nebraska counties report corn averaging sixty-five bushels to the acre.

OMAHA merchants who know how to place their business before the eyes of the public.

THERE is a growing demand for intelligent farm help throughout the country.

THE legislature chosen yesterday will elect a United States senator.

A BOUGHT VERDICT

The jury in the star route cases have agreed to disagree. They have convicted two of the small fry defendants, and acquitted two others of Brady's tools while the chief conspirators escape unpunished under cover of a disagreement.

From the beginning of the conduct of the accused has been that of guilty men. When they were first arrested they made the country re-echo with their cries for a speedy trial and a "vindication."

Business is daily improving. Our merchants look more cheerful; the streets are better filled; railroad reports of receipts and shipments are on the increase.

There are reasons to fear that the Edmunds anti-polygamy law is not going to prove all that Mr. Edmunds' fancy pictured it.

The election of governor was rendered especially important by the fact that he will have the appointment of four judges of the supreme court of the state.

During his flying trip to Omaha the Marquis de Lorne paid a visit to our High School. He inspected the different rooms in the building, chatted pleasantly with a number of the scholars and looked over some of their work.

Citizens of Omaha can join with the marquis in commending our schools under the new management. One hundred and twenty scholars are now enrolled in the high school against an average of sixty in former years.

Both California and Nevada have spoken loudly on the anti-monopoly question. Republicans of Nevada adopted a platform demanding congressional aid against the monopolies.

About one-fourth of the civil salary list of the country is in the postoffice department, and postoffice assessments by Mr. Hubbell's committee amounted to over $200,000.

The Best He Can Do. A Democracy letter that would be popular - one resigning his secretaryship of the national republican committee.

Washington Post. There are reasons to fear that the Edmunds anti-polygamy law is not going to prove all that Mr. Edmunds' fancy pictured it.

What the Democracy Wants. There is too much personal politics - too much talk about leaders and too little about measures.
