A furious runaway took place Wednesday night at the corner of Farnam and Fifteenth, the wagon being dragged clear across the street. It was lucky for the owner that no one was in or near the outfit when it was started.

Eight ladies in attendance at the woman's suffrage convention were belated on Wednesday night, having lost their bearings after leaving the Baptist church. They were providentially met at midnight by an employe of the R. M. S., who guided them to their stopping place.

Prof. Walther delighted the visitors at the state fair yesterday afternoon by an exhibition of his skill as a pianist, on the fine instrument in Floral hall.

THE GREAT UNWASHED. The Democratic State Convention in Session in This City.

A Full Ticket Put in the Field For State Officers.

A Platform Covering Some Good Points.

The opening session of the democratic state convention was held at Boyd's opera house at 10:30 yesterday, and called to order by the Hon. J. Sterling Morton, chairman of the state central committee.

On motion Gen. Montgomery was made temporary chairman and N. W. Seais temporary secretary. A committee on credentials, consisting of Victor Vignatus, Messrs. Mason, Beck and others was appointed, and during their absence from the room the convention was addressed by the Hon. J. Sterling Morton after the usual course of political speeches.

The report of the committee on a resolution was taken up and adopted, and the temporary organization was made permanent, with the addition of Messrs. Munford, of Saline, and Ruffner, of Cass, as secretaries.

On motion of Hon. J. E. Boyd, of Douglas county, five vice-presidents were elected, as follows: Hon. J. Sterling Morton, of DeWitt; Hon. E. North, of Columbus; Hon. John I. Beck, of Douglas; C. O. Conner, of Dakota, and Colonel Victor Vignatus, of Saline.

The committee reported a resolution in substance as follows: J. Sterling Morton, Wm. Neville John I. Beck, Judge Malone, and J. C. Crawford. A recess was taken to 1:30 p. m.

AT THE BEGINNING of the afternoon session the committee on resolutions reported the following PLATFORM.

Democrats of NEBRASKA in state convention assembled at Omaha this 14th day of September, 1882, hereby declare that the government of the United States has no constitutional or other right to impose taxes and levies, except with the consent and result of getting majority into the public treasury with which to pay the debts and provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States.

The tariff tax, called protective, laid with far different intent and result, should be utterly abolished. The democrats of Nebraska challenge the political appointments in this state to a general disqualification of the above propositions and to an unequivocal statement of the position of the republicans of Nebraska upon the question of protective tariff.

The reckless squandering in the recent river and harbor bills, some call them, in the fraudulent rate contracts, some call them; in the payment of alleged secret service detectives, some call them; in Hubbell, two per cent. as account, some call them; in the multiplication of salaries and perquisites for the unnumbered and also unnumbered swarm of office holders, and in other violations of the public faith, the national treasury, which does reach the national treasury, deserves the immediate and emphatic condemnation of the people.

The state of Nebraska, in common with other states of the union, has and exercises the right of regulating the sale of intoxicating drinks, in the interest of good order, and for the benefit of the manufacturer and sale of such drinks within this state, is contrary to the fundamental rights of the individual and the fundamental rights of social and political conduct, and if enacted will be neutralized by the constitution of the United States, which permits the introduction to every part of the territory, imported from abroad, and out of also every form of intoxicating liquor.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE. The Annual Address by Hon. E. M. Correll.

He Predicts the Good Time Coming Near at Hand.

The woman suffrage convention adjourned last night, after a three days session. The following is the full text of the annual address delivered by President Correll:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: In echoing the sentiments of welcome, so cordially and beautifully expressed by the president of the Nebraska Woman Suffrage Association, I take much pleasure in adding that you attend this important occasion in such numbers, and in such a spirit of earnestness and devotion, as to give me the assurance that you are ready to try and try again.

From the conservation and tyranny of the old world, liberty sought an asylum in the new world, and here, in the midst of our republic, it found a refuge. Liberty is the soul of our nation, and it is the duty of every citizen to cherish and defend it.

It is the duty of every citizen to cherish and defend it. Liberty is the soul of our nation, and it is the duty of every citizen to cherish and defend it. Liberty is the soul of our nation, and it is the duty of every citizen to cherish and defend it.

It is the duty of every citizen to cherish and defend it. Liberty is the soul of our nation, and it is the duty of every citizen to cherish and defend it. Liberty is the soul of our nation, and it is the duty of every citizen to cherish and defend it.

It is the duty of every citizen to cherish and defend it. Liberty is the soul of our nation, and it is the duty of every citizen to cherish and defend it. Liberty is the soul of our nation, and it is the duty of every citizen to cherish and defend it.

THE STATE SHOW. A Big Day at the Omaha Driving Park Grounds.

The Largest Attendance on Any Local Event For Years.

Yesterday was the great day in the annals of Nebraska's state fair. There never was seen such a gigantic crowd of people on the Nebraska fair ground. It was estimated by the managers that at the lowest computation twenty-five thousand persons had entered the fair grounds.

The exhibit made by Paull, Ornduff and Martin is one of the very best on the grounds. They are about to build a structure that will contain a vast stock of agricultural implements which will be of great value to the farmer.
