The New Union Pacific Loan Pending in London.

Track Topics of Interest from All Quarters of the Iron World.

Negotiations are pending through Blake Brothers & Co., in London, for the sale of a proposed new issue of bonds by the Union Pacific railroad company.

The Union Pacific company proposes to create a mortgage for $8,000,000, secured by collateral securities now in the treasury of the company to the amount of about $8,800,000. These securities consist of the following in round numbers: $2,360,000 Colorado Central 7s, $2,360,000 Utah Northern 7s, $1,500,000 Denver & South Park 7s, $1,000,000 Kansas Central 7s, $970,000 Southern Kansas Extension 7s, and $410,000 Omaha & Republican Valley 7s; total, $8,800,000.

Mr. Range says this is a lie, and declares that Nicholas is a madman, and a dangerous individual to be at large. He talked of filing a charge of insanity against Nicholas, but finally made it plain assault and battery, and the case will come up for hearing in the police court.

TOIL AND TRIUMPH.

The Dedication of the New Baptist Church on Sunday Evening.

A Brief Review of the Trials and Hardships of Its Founders.

The Beautiful Edifice Now Finished and Furnished.

In the year 1855 Rev. David Leach was sent by the Baptist Home Mission society to this city, numbering at that time about 600 inhabitants. He held services in the territorial Capitol on Ninth, between Farnam and Douglas streets. He remained here but two years. The Home Mission society then sent Rev. A. S. Barnes, by whom the first Baptist church was organized. Among the members then were Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Smith, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Higby, Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Grant.

The early history of the church was the same as with the majority of religious and social organizations on the frontier, subject to changes, sacrifices and hardships, and the members were unable to sustain their organization and therefore had to disband.

In the spring of 1886 the present church was organized with eighteen members, and Rev. Kernott was called as pastor. The site on which the present church stands was bought and a frame building erected. As the city was rapidly growing it was thought best to build a larger and more commodious edifice. The trustees endeavored to act wisely in regard to the cost of the building, and hoped to erect the same for $15,000, but the officers of the Home Mission society were so enthusiastic as to the growth of the city, believing that it would rival in a few years Chicago, that they advised a much larger building.

The church has struggled for thirteen long years, but by sacrifice on the part of the members, the help of kind friends in the city and in the east, the Auditorium has finally been finished. It is seated with pews made of oak and black walnut manufactured by Wm. Louke & Co., Chicago, Ill. The carpenterwork has been done by Wm. Phelps, the pulpit furniture supplied by Messrs. Dewey & Stone. The officers of the church desired not to solicit money from the business men for the furnishing, because there are so many churches in the city building and paying debts and hence would have sufficient calls. To complete the church $1,000 is needed for cushions and furniture for heating. The members of the church are asked to bring their offerings on Sunday, the 17th instant, for this purpose and whatever is given will be gladly received.

The dedication services were on the evening. The following was the day's programme: MORNING SESSION. Organ Voluntary. Anthem—"Arie, O Lord," Perkins. Old Hundred. Invocation. Hymn. Scripture Lesson. Prayer. Offertory. Quartette—"God is a Spirit," Bennett. Sermon. Quartette and Chorus—"O Zion, City of Our Lord," Oratorio. Quartette and Chorus—"In God is Our Trust," Daniel. Benediction.

Organ Voluntary. Anthem—"Lift up Your Heads," Von Glesek. Invocation. Hymn. Scripture Lesson. Prayer. Offertory. Solo—"Oh! had I Jubal's Lyre," Oratorio, Joshua. Solo—"The Palm Trees," Faure. Dedication Prayers. Chorus—"Blessed be the God of Israel," Oratorio, Daniel. Chorus—"Sing, O sing, and magnify the Lord."

The church is under the direction of J. Wesley Wilkins; organist, Mrs. C. E. Funk; soprano, Miss Fannie Arnold and Mrs. Samuel Hauser; alto, Mrs. J. R. Love; and Miss Decia Johnson; tenor, Mrs. A. M. Morris; and J. R. Shreve; basses, Messrs. Will Nach, Allen Jackson and J. Wesley Wilkins.

The "Hawthorn Centennial Excelsior Roof Paint," was patented May 24th, 1881, and others patent number 241, 833. Any person found or known to tamper with the manufacture of said paint will be punished to the full extent of law. No person has any authority whatever to sell receipts. A MIDNIGHT MARRIAGE

Wouldn't be Married by a Man in Robes.

The Vicissitudes of a Youthful Couple Who Wanted to Mate.

There have been many interesting and amusing episodes during the state fair week but none more so than that which occurred on Thursday night.

Among the visitors to the great exposition was a family from a thriving little city in the South Platte country, which will not be designated further than by saying that its name is a synonym for good chronometers. The family consisted of father, mother and daughter, the latter a good looking young lady of marriageable age.

On Thursday evening a young business man from the same place, and having left his store in the hands of a novice, he was in haste to return. Before going he wanted to marry the young lady, and a traveling man for a popular wholesale drug store was deputed to hunt up a minister. It was late at night before the wedding was fully decided upon, and as the bride wanted to be married by a preacher in a church, the traveling man called on Dean Millspaugh, who consented to have the magnificent new Cathedral lighted up for the occasion.

When the prospective mother-in-law was informed of the facts she objected to an Episcopal minister performing the ceremony. She wanted a hard shell Baptist or some less ritualistic divine and it took a good deal of persuasion to overcome her objection.

At length the party proceeded to the church, the brilliant illumination of which at a late hour attracted the attention of many, and as they filed up the young lady broke away and ran out of the church, saying, "I can't stand this. If you don't get another preacher I won't get married. The lights upon the high altar were extinguished and all bets declared off.

The traveling man next called upon a young preacher, who was holding a protracted meeting, and on getting his name and telling him his business, was informed that the youthful divine was not yet fully ordained and therefore was not entitled to perform the ceremony.

By this time it was midnight and the traveling man was inclined to give up the job, but the groom insisted that he must be married that night and get back to his business. Rev. J. W. Ingram was therefore called upon, and appearing in civilian dress was allowed to perform the nuptial rite. All went off the ends well, but the involuntary preacher hunter says he would rather travel from Dan to Beersheba than go through the experience again.

Gently Does It. Eugene Cross, Swan Street, Buffalo, writes: "I have used SPANCO, BLOSSOM for rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, etc., and find it to act admirably as a gentle aperient and blood purifier. I consider it unequalled; you are at liberty to use my name as a recommendation." Price 50 cents, trial bottles 10c.

GREEDMOOR CONTEST. The Americans Defeated by the Visitors.

Good-Natured Rivalry Ending in Speech Making.

NEW YORK, September 15.—The international military rifle match resulted as follows: British, 1,975, Americans, 1,805. General Hancock was on the ground during the shooting. The people present, when they saw the defeat of the Americans was inevitable, turned gallantly to the British and cheered every good shot.

Soon after the shooting the respective teams and special guests assembled in the tent of General Molinoux. When all were seated General Molinoux addressed Sir Henry Halford and said "that the contest had been conducted in a manly spirit. Although we were beaten now, he hoped next year we would send out a team that would retrieve our former fortunes." Sir Henry Halford in reply said: "General Molinoux and I may say to all the Americans present, that we, as a team, are proud to-day, proud because we are the victorious ones, over those heretofore considered invincible. The battle was fought in a soldierly manner and we have won."

very enjoyable affair, and the committee in charge of the arrangements is composed of the best men in the city for such duty. The members are James Meyer, vice-president of the Concordia; H. Schwabe, Henry Pundt, A. Dorman, L. Raapke, J. P. Lund and F. Sihlo.

POLICE COURT. Judge Beneke Has a Busy Saturday Morning Session.

Friday the police were kept quite busy and ran in a great many offenders. The telephons in the marshal's office kept ringing every few minutes and the police were sent here and there everywhere.

One individual was quite noisy and obstreperous and Deputy Marshal Doty had to fire him into the gauntlet.

Anna Lewis, of this city, who was arrested for obtaining money by false pretenses, was sentenced to thirty days and judgment suspended on condition that she should get out of town.

J. M. Towne, of Golden Springs, Bart county, was at the morning session of the police, where the two pickpockets arrested for obtaining money by false pretenses, were on trial. He was one of the men "touched" last night. He had been in Omaha attending the fair, and starting home, had purchased a ticket to Valley. As he got on the platform some fellow crowded up and the first thing he knew he felt a hand in his pocket, and the next thing he knew his pocketbook was gone. He was a trifle and chase a pal of the robber was captured and taken to jail.

The last pocketbook contained a certificate of deposit on the Deatur bank for $1,022, between $60 and $100 in cash and several notes, etc., amounting in all to about $1,600. A telegram was sent Friday stopping payment on the certificate of deposit.

TRUE Temperance. Is not signing a pledge or taking a solemn oath that cannot be kept, because of the non-removal of the cause—liquor. The way to make a man temperate is to kill the desire for those dreadful artificial stimulants that carry so many bright intellects to premature graves, and desolation, strife and unhappiness into so many families.

It is a fact! BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, a true non-alcoholic tonic, made in Baltimore, Md., by the Brown Chemical Company, who are old druggists and in every particular reliable, will, by removing the craving appetite of the drunkard, and by curing the nervousness, weakness, and general ill health resulting from intemperance, do more to promote temperance, in the strictest sense than any other means now known.

It is a well authenticated fact that many medicines, especially "bitters," are nothing but cheap whiskey vilely concocted for use in local option countries. Such is not the case with BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It is a medicine, a cure for weakness and decay in the nervous, muscular, and digestive organs of the body, producing good, rich blood, health and strength. Try one bottle. Price $1.00.
