TILDEN'S NEW PALACE. The Old Statesman Proposing to Live in Style.

New York Letter to Philadelphia Times. While the unsubdued passions of the Tammany and Irving hall tribes are drilling their Bedouins for active service at the state democratic convention at Syracuse, "Uncle Sammy" Tilden, New York's political khedive, is in retirement, wrestling with a private architectural problem.

When he began the alterations Mr. Tilden intended to spend about $50,000 on them, but that sum was swelled to $300,000, and it is thought that $200,000 more will be required to finish the decorations.

Traces of the Gothic style of architecture are noticeable in many parts of the building, but no conventional rules have been carried out. The architects have worked under the personal supervision of Mr. Tilden, and the result is one of the most unique and beautiful residences in America.

There are two entrances to the front of the mansion, and the main one, leading into Mr. Tilden's old house, is remarkably beautiful. Four columns of polished red mottled granite support the handsome porch over the main entrance, and above these columns are four colossal feminine busts, representing the seasons.

Between the two immense bay windows is found one of the most striking pieces of decoration on the building. In a large panel of brown sandstone are five niches containing the heads of Shakespeare, Milton, Goethe, Dante and Benjamin Franklin, the latter occupying the center, with the others at the corners.

Notwithstanding the artistic beauty of the exterior of the mansion, it is the interior that will excite the most general admiration from lovers of profuse decoration. The front rooms, a parlor and a library, flank the hallway, and one of the large bay windows allows light for each department. The library, which is twenty feet wide and sixty long, is the largest room in the house.

Second Edition of Job. Mrs. J. G. Johnson, N. Division street, Buffalo, says: "I cannot be too thankful that I was induced to try your SPRING BLOSSOM. I was at one time afraid I should never be able to get out again. I seemed to be a second edition of my former patient; my face and body were one vast collection of boils and pimples; since taking one bottle of your Spring Blossom I am quite cured, all eruptions have disappeared, and I feel better than I have in a long time. Price 50 cents, trial bottles 10 cents.

SILK CULTURE. To the Editor of THE BEE. At the present time much is being said and written in regard to silk culture, and indeed it is high time the subject was agitated in the United States, for if once developed it will furnish lucrative employment at their own homes for thousands of women and children, and add largely to the natural development of the land.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

FROM COL. L. T. FOSTER.

Youngstown, Ohio, May 10, 1880.

Dr. J. J. Kendall & Co.—I had a very valuable remedy in your "Kendall's Spavin Cure," I had a large spavin on one of my hind legs, it had been there for years, and had been treated by several of the best surgeons which failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it and got our druggist to send me a bottle. I used it according to directions and the fourth day the spavin was gone and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle and the cure was as free of impurities and as smooth as any horse in the state. It is a very valuable cure. The cure was so remarkable that I have had two of my neighbors who are now using it. Very respectfully,

L. T. FOSTER.

SCROFULA.

The seat of all diseases of this nature is in the blood, as any one manifestly knows; therefore, if you purify the blood, the disease, in any form or stage, disappears. Read what those say who have tested the merits of the great vegetable blood purifier, S. S. S. It cleanses the blood of all scrofulous taint so thoroughly that the disease never returns.

I had scrofula for seven months, the ulcer covering the entire surface of both legs. After having tried the usual remedies with no relief, I resorted to S. S. S., and am glad to say that six bottles has effectually cured me.

A. S. LEEFSTY,

Atlanta, Ga.

I suffered from scrofula 17 years. My skin bones were rotten with ulcers and one mass of rotten flesh, and the odor was almost unbearable. All remedies and treatments failed until I began taking S. S. S. Previous to taking it I at times could scarcely walk. Now I can walk all day, and I have to thank S. S. S. and it only for my cure.

THOS. McFARLAND,

Atlanta, Ga.

Some thirty years ago there lived in Montgomery, Ala., a young man who was terribly afflicted with Scrofula. After being treated for a long time by the medical profession of this town with no benefit, he commenced taking S. S. S. After persistently taking it two months he was cured. Being acquainted with him for 20 years thereafter, I can testify that the disease never returned.

J. W. BISHOP, Jr.,
