

THE TOILING THOUSANDS.

A Representative Gathering of Farmers at Hastings, Neb.

The Old Officers of the Alliance Receive a Second Term.

The Artillery and Re-arranged Conventions Assemble To-Day.

Republican Central Committee of New York Protest Against Proxies.

Several Strong Points on Prohibition.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

HASTINGS, Neb., September 26.—The annual convention of Nebraska state farmer's alliance was held to-day.

Delegates were present from thirty-six counties. The officers elected for next year are: President, R. R. Reynolds of Hamilton county; vice president, W. A. Towne, of Thayer county, J. Graves, of Otse county, C. D. Layton, of Douglas county, J. Seada, of Platte county, Thos. H. Mills, of Kearney county, John Patti, of Wheeler county, treasurer, G. H. Gale, of Gage county, J. Burrows was re-elected secretary by acclamation.

Executive committee, H. C. Bigelow, of Thayer county, Thos. Bell, of Otse county, J. L. Arnold, of Fillmore county, and A. H. Vance, of Seward county.

Rousing Anti-monopoly resolutions were adopted. The state organizing committee was reorganized, with J. Burrows chairman.

The next annual convention will be held at Grand Island.

The state Anti-Monopoly convention meets here to-morrow.

A large number of delegates are on hand to-night to attend the republican congressional convention of the second district. It looks now as if Laird would have a walk-away.

Proxies and Prohibition.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

NEW YORK, September 26.—The following resolution will be considered at the next meeting of the republican state central committee:

Resolved, That in future meetings of this committee no person, except members duly elected at the state convention, be authorized to vote, and that no persons shall be permitted to appear by proxy.

General Sharpe offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the state committee expunge the constitution of the attempt made at Saratoga to influence the decision of the late committee by the use of a forged telegram and its detestation of all methods and purposes which such a wretched fraud and trickery implied, and this committee tenders its cordial co-operation to any authority or persons investigating the crime, to the end that its authors may be speedily ascertained and held up to the scorn of the people.

The managers of the National Temperance society resolved: "We hear with great satisfaction of the widespread and rapidly increasing popular sympathy with constitutional prohibition of the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages, as already triumphantly adopted by Kansas and Iowa, and call earnestly upon the electors of the State of New York to select and vote for such candidates only, irrespective of party, as will favor and vote for the submission of a prohibitory constitutional amendment to the people of this state."

Skinner's Reward.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

WATERBURY, N. Y., September 26.—Congressman Skinner was re-nominated.

The Rush to Register.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

NEW YORK, September 26.—This was the first day of registration in Brooklyn for the fall election. The number of citizens enrolled was 29,286, against 18,087 last year, and 43,684 in 1880, the presidential year.

Strong Points on Prohibition.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

MILWAUKEE, September 26.—The National German Roman Catholic Central society, in to-day's session, disposed of a large amount of routine business of an important character, which took up the largest part of the time. A resolution referring to prohibition will be reported upon to-morrow as follows:

"Whereas, the agitation for prohibition has reached nearly every section of the union, therefore we, delegates of the German Catholic benevolent societies of America resolve that we believe in being temperate in all things, drinking included, and practice and recommend the same course; that we consider erroneous and unwise the condemnation and prohibition of gifts which Providence has bestowed, such as wine and other beverages secured from fruits and grain; that we consider the present prohibition agitation as a mental epidemic lacking logical, moral and educational principles; that we especially protest against the prohibitory declaration that the poor houses and jails throughout the country are filled through the effects of the license system. Maine is a prohibition state and has no fewer beggars, insane and criminals than any other state. The real cause of a good deal of these troubles is due to the fact that the great portion of the American youth is reared without proper moral influences; that we refer the American people with pride to our German Catholic elementary schools in which not only reading, writing, and arithmetic are taught, but the main principles of honest actions, so that the children become aware of the objects of life, and to be obedient to the reasonable government of their parents; that we are of the opinion that the attacks of prohibitionists upon personal liberty endanger the stability of our American institutions; whoever wishes to support the latter should oppose prohibition.

During the meeting word was received from the Pope thanking the society for the donation sent him, and conferring upon the society the papal blessing upon the laborers of the central society.

Forged Proxies.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

NEW YORK, September 26.—It has been discovered that another forged proxy was used at the Saratoga convention by the stalwarts.

Against a Monopoly.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CHICAGO, September 26.—Speaking of the San Francisco Chronicle's opposition to Paul Newman, the Chicago Times says: "As the Pacific roads and Spenciers have combined in such a manner as to compel the people of the Pacific slope to pay additional two or three cents for every pound of sugar they consume, the Chronicle's opposition to the candidate nominated in the interest of these monopolies will certainly be warmly backed by the voters who are not owned by his combination."

THE ENGLISH IN EGYPT.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE ENGLISH IN EGYPT.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

CAIRO, September 26.—A grand reception was held at the palace to-day by the khedive. Nearly a thousand representatives of different villages were present. The khedive refused to receive many implicated pashas and boys, who came to profess their loyalty, and warned the ulamas and other high personages that they would be severely punished if they relaxed into disloyalty. The principal British officers and their staffs were present. Wolsley, however, was indisposed and unable to attend. The ceremony of the presentation to the khedive of the decoration by the khedive did not take place.

THE KHEDIVES RECEPTION.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

JAY-HAWKING JOURNALISM.

An Explanation of Jay Gould's Dealings with New York Papers.

The "World" Deftly Grinds with Jay at the Grack.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

NEW YORK, September 27.—From to-day's "World": By way of ascertaining what basis, if any, there may be for certain tales which have been set forth of late with tremendous ruck in two or three local newspapers, a reporter of The World yesterday found Mr. Gould in his office, and interviewed him on the subject of his alleged attempts to buy up the Associated Press.

"Mr. Gould," said the reporter, "it is stated in sundry quarters that you have been trying to purchase the New York Journal of Commerce. Have you any objection to say whether this is so or not?"

"It is ridiculous," said Gould; "the only grain of truth in the story is that a gentleman closely connected with The Journal of Commerce, in fact one of the editors, sought an introduction to a private house, where we both happened to be, and stated that he was thinking of making up a syndicate to purchase The Journal of Commerce, and wanted to know if I would go into the operation."

"How did you receive the proposition?"

"I naturally asked the editor to let me have a copy of the trial balance of the concern that I might see what its financial position was. The trial balance was never sent to me. This is the whole story of my attempt to purchase The Journal of Commerce and this is as near as I ever came, or am likely to come, of being owner of that great Journal."

"Is there any more truth, Mr. Gould, in the story which seems to be going about in a lively manner, that you called on Mr. Jones of The Times, and offered him in vain a million and a half dollars for fifty-one shares?"

"There is, if possible, rather less truth in that legend. I have had no financial dealing of any kind with Mr. Jones of The Times."

Railroad Wreck.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

NEW YORK, September 26.—A way train on the Pennsylvania railroad, which left Newark for Jersey City at 11:35 last night, was run into at the curve just below East Newark station by a Lehigh valley train due at the same time. The way train was completely wrecked, and the passengers had great difficulty in getting out of the cars. Some of them are seriously injured. The Lehigh valley train was also wrecked, but none of its passengers injured.

David Davis' Luck.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

RALEIGH, N. C., September 26.—A special announces positively that David Davis is to be married to Miss Annie Barr on November 6th. Miss Barr is a charming and cultivated woman of thirty years and an heiress in her own right.

CHICAGO, September 26.—Hon. David Davis, vice president of the United States, was given a private reception to-night at the residence of F. R. Chandler, in this city. About 300 society people were present.

Flood and Fever.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

BROWNVILLE, Tex., September 26.—Water is disappearing from the streets. Five new cases of yellow fever to-day; one death.

NEW ORLEANS, September 26.—The Pinyuna's Pensacola special reports sixty new cases and two deaths. The increase of sick is so great and the means of affording relief so inadequate that the board of health called a meeting for to-morrow of physicians, with a view of systematizing methods for disbursing means and affording relief to all the needy.

CAIRO, September 26.—The News Galveston special reports a great deal of yellow fever at Mer and Reynolds. One hundred cases and two or three deaths a day at Reynolds; at Mer four to ten daily.

Business Failure.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

ATLANTA, September 26.—The Western Hardware Co.'s establishment closed this morning. The liabilities are estimated at $250,000. The assets consist of the large stock of hardware on hand, but the value cannot be told at present.

A Burned Town.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

PATTONSBURG, Mo., September 26.—Most of the business portion of this town was burned to-night between 9:30 and 12 o'clock. Loss not yet known. An exploding lamp is supposed to be the cause.

Dead in a Dark Room.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

DALLAS, Tex., September 26.—Fifteen years ago George Hollenbeck and William Stratton quarreled in Palmyra, N. Y. Yesterday they met near Carrizo Pass, went into a darkened room and fought a duel. Stratton fired four times. Hollenbeck fired killing Stratton instantly.

A Stage Robber Caged.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

ST. LOUIS, September 26.—Capt. J. W. Lees, chief detective of San Francisco, and Charles Allen, detective of Wells Fargo express, arrived here to procure John C. Patterson, alias Kehoe, now in jail for burglary, who is charged with robbing a stage coach between Morris Flat and Nevada City, September 1st, 1879, and being accessory to the murder of William J. Cummings, a banker of the former place.

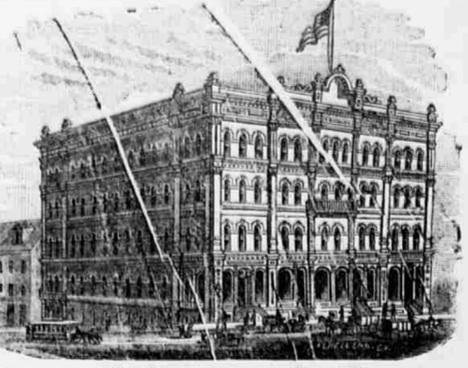

The Garfield Monument Fair.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

WASHINGTON, September 26.—The board of directors of the Garfield

Merchants and Dealers Throughout the Entire West are Invited to Visit the Mammoth Establishment owned and Occupied by

R. L. McDONALD & CO., WHOLESALE DRY - GOODS, Notions and Furnishing Goods, ST. JOSEPH, MO.

McDonald's Overalls, Duck, Denim and Cottonade Pants, CYCLONE ULSTERS, LINED SUITS AND CHEVIOT SHIRTS, In all styles now popular with the Trade, Absolutely the best Goods in the Market and at BOTTOM PRICES.

Western Merchants can more than save their expenses a visit to this Mammoth stock before buying their Fall Bills. Traveling agents, with extensive lines of samples, visit all prominent towns throughout the west, and will call upon any merchant anywhere upon receipt of a request so to do. Send orders by mail, or write for samples. The most careful attention given to orders, and satisfaction guaranteed. Remember monumental fair order applications for space either for loaned or donated exhibits must be made on or before the first of November, and all exhibits must be placed in the hands of the board on or before November 11th. Two dollars will be charged for entry of all exhibits made for advantage or profit of exhibitors. There will be no charge for space for donated exhibits, but in all cases counters, etc., must be put up at the expense of the exhibitors. All packages should be addressed, "Garfield Monument Committee, Washington, D. C." and bills of lading made.

R. L. McDONALD & CO., St. Joseph, Mo.

Transportation and insurance upon all exhibits loaned for the occasion and transportation upon all articles donated will be at the cost of the board of directors. Transportation upon all other exhibits made for the profit of exhibitors will be at their cost and charge. Michigan board of commissioners is displeased with the character of some of the buildings in which the board of directors propose to distribute exhibits, and unanimously decided to decline to proceed further in carrying out the objects of the enterprise until they receive satisfactory assurances as to the character of the buildings to be secured, and the amount of space to be allotted to each exhibitor.

They also invite other state boards to meet with them at an early date and take such action as may be deemed advisable.

SPORTING.

RACE RAIL.

Special Dispatch to This Box.

BOSTON, September 26.—Boston 0, Troy 1.

BUFFALO, September 26.—Buffalo 7, Chicago 8.

LOUISVILLE RACES.

LOUISVILLE, September 26.—First race, one and one-eighth miles, Fellowship won, Monte second, Albion third; time, 1:56 1/2.

Second race, St. Leger stakes, two miles, Apollo won, Boston second, Monarch third; time, 3:25 1/2.

Third race, mile heats, Mediator won, Ruth second, Force third; time 1:44, 1:45.

Fourth race, one and one-half miles, Freeland won, Katie Orel second, Anglia third; time, 2:42.

BRIGHTON BEACH RACES.</