

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

TWELFTH YEAR.

OMAHA NEB. THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 28, 1882.

87

A BOURBON IN THE FIELD.

A Three Cornered Tussle for Congressional Honors in the Third Nebraska.

The Democrats Trot Out Hon. Bill Munger in the Free-for-All.

The Administration Machine Grinding Out All Opponents to M'shane,

And Drawing Sharp Lines Between Arthur and Blaine Men.

The Gentiles of Utah Still Frothing Over Mormon Methods.

A Variety of Political News.

Munger in the Field.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

FREMONT, Neb., September 27.—At the democratic district convention held here to-day Wm. H. Munger, of this (Dodge) county, was nominated by acclamation as candidate for congress from the Third district. Not an adverse vote was cast. The district was fully represented.

The Stalwarts and Mahone.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

WASHINGTON, September 27.—Blaine's views on Mahone as published in The Chronicle and The Chicago Tribune created considerable consternation in the road-judges' camp, and has had the effect of more firmly cementing the bonds between Mahone and the present administration. Certain it is that Mahone is using especial diligence to get only stalwart candidates, and is assiduously weeding all weak-kneed ones. He had evinced a determination to draw the line sharply between Blaine and Arthur sympathizers, and all the former will be forced to retire.

The Fifth New Jersey.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

PATRONS, September 27.—The representatives of the Fifth district nominated William Walter Phelps for congress.

A Mahone Man.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

WASHINGTON, September 27.—Fried Douglass says he is not the "prominent colored man" who is going to Virginia in the interest of straight-out republicans. He is in sympathy with Mahone. He declines the invitation to Ohio for the reason that he is too old to travel.

The Cold Water Club.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

CHICAGO, September 27.—The prohibitionists of this city to-day decided to put candidates in nomination for congress and the state legislature in every district in the county.

The Gentiles Frothing.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

SALT LAKE, September 27.—Governor Murray, in obedience to the act of congress providing for appointments to fill vacancies occasioned by the failure to hold an election in August, has appointed a number of officials throughout Utah. In defiance of this law and the Edmunds bill, which disqualifies polygamists, the appointees of the governor have been refused the records and places to which they have been appointed. This organized nullification is in obedience to the orders of Mormon leaders. Those who think it criminal to hold over are whipped in by the council and threats, and the polygamists are holding on, congress to the contrary. Writs of mandamus were applied for to-day to enforce the title of the officials appointed. The action of Governor Murray is firmly executing the law in the face of the Mormon leaders is approved by all law abiding people.

New York Politics and Lotteries.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

NEW YORK, September 27.—District Attorney McKeon has received a letter stating that the raid on lottery shams has excited the indignation of 30,000 voters, who loved the sport, and it would have a disastrous effect on the democratic candidates, and that whoever takes active part against lottery playing cannot expect re-election. It also states that Governor Cornell's hostile demonstrations against lotteries cost him his re-nomination. The letter stated further that the Bible did not forbid it, lottery playing being general when the New Testament was written.

SPORTING.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

THE GRANBY STAKES.

LONDON, September 27.—The Granby stakes were won by Goldmace, Golden Farnie second, Oward third, Lorillard's Comanche fourth.

AN AMERICAN VICTORY.

The Great Eastern railway handicaps at Newmarket was won by Lorillard's Araiza, Hornpipe second, Warhorse third. The betting against Araiza at the start was 20 to 1. She won by six lengths.

NATIVES ABROAD.

In consequence of the victory of the American horse Araiza, Lorillard's Sachem and Keene's Bookmaker are ahead in betting on the races for the Cambridge stakes at Newmarket on October 14.

STANFORD'S STUD.

ALBANY, September 27.—Ex-Governor Ford's trotting colts arrived from California. There is a string, including Wild Cat, a two year old record holder, Herda Rose with a yearling of 2:36. They will be at the track all week, it being the intention of Stanford to speed them here and get them acclimated somewhat before being taken to Fleetwood Park, New York. All the horses are in excellent condition.

BRIGHTON BEACH RACES.

BRIGHTON BEACH, September 27.—First race, mile and one-eighth, Hartford won; time 2:02.

Second race, seven-eighths of a mile, Bouncher won; time 1:32.

Third race, seven-eighths of a mile, Perplex won; time 1:32.

Fourth race, mile and one quarter, George McCullough won; time 2:14.

Fifth race, hurdle, mile and a half, Busted won; time 2:51.

LOUISVILLE RACES.

LOUISVILLE, September 27.—First race, three quarters of a mile, Queen Ban won; time, 1:16.

Second race, one and a half mile, Tax Gatherer won; time, 2:38.

Third race, one mile, Hassan won; time, 1:44.

Fourth race, one and one quarter mile, Annie G. won; time, 2:12.

ARMY RIFLEMEN.

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., September 27.

To-day closed the contest at Fort Leavenworth for the division rifle team for the division contest, which takes place at Fort Leavenworth at an early day, at which contest members will be selected for the army contest, which takes place October 25, 26 and 27. The contest has been very spirited, and the race for first place very close between Lieutenant Pontillo of the Fifth infantry, and Sergeants Osborne and James, of the department of Texas. At the close of yesterday's shoot, James was first, Pontillo second and Osborne last. At the close of the contest to-day Pontillo was first, Osborne second, James third. Generals Sheridan, Pope and other military officers were present throughout the contest, General Sheridan in person presenting prizes at the close of the contest.

The following is the summary of the three days' shoot, teams being placed in the order of their standing:

Department of Texas..... 2706

Department of Dakota..... 2669

The firing was at ranges of 200, 300 and 600 yards. The names of the two highest marksmen, who will constitute the division team, in their order, with the department to which they belong, are as follows: Lieutenant Pontillo, Dakota; Sergeant Osborne, Texas; Sergeant James, Texas; Captain Ellis, Missouri; Private Wagener, Missouri; Lieutenant Merriam, Missouri; Captain Gordon, Platte, Sergeant Boully, Dakota; Private Preston, Missouri; Captain Fosdick, Dakota; Private Nagill, Platte; Sergeant Eberl, Texas.

CROOK Among the Indians.

TUCSON, Ariz., September 27.—The Star's San Carlos advises say, Mr. Crook and staff are here investigating the Indian situation. Crook has expressed a determination to get at the bottom of disturbances.

He had a grand meeting of the majority of the chiefs, and will visit the tribes separately to investigate fully the cause of the troubles. The United States marshal will leave to-morrow with Indian prisoners who have been in custody since the Cibecue outbreak. They will be taken to Tucson to be tried by the United States grand jury by orders from the department of justice at Washington.

KENTUCKY Desperadoes.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

RAXWICK, Ky., September 27.—Yesterday a gang of six men, under command of T. J. Wardens and T. T. Miller killed Richard Schraags and arrested his brother William, two young desperadoes. They made a desperate resistance. Their last crime was to murder, in Indiana, the man by whom they were employed.

CATHOLIC Colonization.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

CHICAGO, September 27.—Fried Douglass says he is not the "prominent colored man" who is going to Virginia in the interest of straight-out republicans. He is in sympathy with Mahone. He declines the invitation to Ohio for the reason that he is too old to travel.

THE CANAL CLAIM.

LONDON, September 27.—De Los s, regarding the proposed canal, writes that his company possesses for 99 years the exclusive privilege of maritime communication between the Gulf of Pelsium and the Bay of Suez. The Times says it entertains grave doubt of the validity of this claim.

ENGLAND'S POLICE.

LONDON, September 27.—Mr. Fawcett, postmaster general, in speaking at Hockley, said England has no selfish object. Her chief concern is to secure to the Egyptians the best government and the greatest amount of liberty possible. Abuses connected with the late control will be avoided in the future. The Egyptians will not have to submit to the injustice of an unduly large proportion of the revenue being appropriated by foreign officials.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

PARIS, September 26.—While the Jeronimist section of the Bonapartists were holding a meeting to denounce the newspaper Pays and Petit Corporal, the opposition party forced an entrance into the hall. Revolvers and sword canes were displayed, and a number of assaults committed. The Jeronimists declare that the recent duel between Dichard, editor of the Petit Corporal, and Damascene, editor of the Combat, in which the latter was killed, was virtually an assassination. The foul deed between the two sections of the party is becoming very intense. The republicans are becoming bold at these discussions among their enemies.

LECLANCHE DEAD.

PARIS, September 27.—Leclanche, inventor of the Leclanche electric pile, and other improvements in dead.

THE TROUBLE SETTLED.

ATHENS, September 27.—The report of the settlement of the Turko-Greek frontier question by the surrender to Greece of the whole of the frontier fixed by the international commission, is officially announced.

ADIDING SURFERS.

ATHENS, September 27.—The report of the settlement of the Turko-Greek frontier question by the surrender to Greece of the whole of the frontier fixed by the international commission, is officially announced.

A Fugitive Balloon.

MILFORD, Mass., September 27.—Prof. Allen's balloon escaped this morning with the professor in the basket. He had no anchor, nor had any preparations for a journey been completed, and the valves were not in working order. When last seen the balloon was passing east of Douglass, going southwest.

THE BALLOON CAPTURED.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

WORCESTER, Mass., September 27.—Prof. Allen's balloon landed about two miles from Putnam. It was very low down, and the occupants were all safe.

JEANNETTE SURVIVORS.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

WASHINGTON, September 27.—The Jeannette has arrived here, accompanied by Henry Wilson, of the Jeannette. Both are well.

* * * Help yourself and others will help you. But don't fail to use Kidney Wort for all liver, kidney and bowel complaints, piles, constipation, etc. The demand of the people for an easier method of preparing Kidney Wort has induced the proprietors, the well known wholesale druggists, Wells, Richardson & Co., of Burlington, Vt., to prepare it for sale in liquid form as well as in dry form.

IRISH VENGEANCE.

DUBLIN, September 27.—The son of a land agent named Keane was found dead on the roadside at Kildare. The father recently ejected some tenants.

RELEASE OF GREEKS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 27.—General Wallace, United States min-

THE DOOMED REBELS.

A General Court of the Khedive's Retainers to Set on Arabi.

And Properly Punish All Leaders in the Home Rule Revolt.

England About to Ask the Opinions of the Powers on the Settlement.

THE VALIDITY of the Canal Company's Claims Disputed by a Scribe.

A Variety of Items from All Parts of the World.

THE ENGLISH IN EGYPT.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

THE KHEDIVE'S COMMANDS.

CAIRO, September 27.—The ministers to day agreed upon three decrees which the khedive will sign tomorrow. The first decree institutes a special commission for the prosecution of all acts of rebellion committed by the military or civilians. The commission will consist of nine members and will be under the presidency of Ismail Bey. The second orders a court martial with eight members, Reuf Pasha presiding, to be held in Cairo, and that it shall give judgment according to the military code, without appeal, in all cases submitted by the above named commission. The third directs the assembling in Alexandria of another court martial to try all the cases submitted by the tribunals recently appointed in Alexandria and Cairo.

BRITAIN'S BILLET.

BERLIN, September 27.—It is semi-officially announced here that the powers expect a communication from Great Britain within a few days summoning an expression of their views upon the state of affairs in Egypt.

OFF FOR EGYPT.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 27.—Baker Pasha has gone to Egypt to re-organize the army.

AFFAIRS AT CAIRO.

CAIRO, September 27.—General Wooley is not better. The British troops began to return home after the review on Saturday. Arabi Pasha has left him in mere wreck.

MONTAUBAN and destroying the houses and crops of Peruvians who offered aid to Cubans.

THE CANAL CLAIM.

LONDON, September 27.—De Los, regarding the proposed canal, writes that his company possesses for 99 years the exclusive privilege of maritime communication between the Gulf of Pelsium and the Bay of Suez. The Times says it entertains grave doubt of the validity of this claim.

ENGLAND'S POLICE.

LONDON, September 27.—Mr. Fawcett, postmaster general, in speaking at Hockley, said England has no selfish object. Her chief concern is to secure to the Egyptians the best government and the greatest amount of liberty possible. Abuses connected with the late control will be avoided in the future. The Egyptians will not have to submit to the injustice of an unduly large proportion of the revenue being appropriated by foreign officials.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.

PARIS, September 26.—While the Jeronimist section of the Bonapartists were holding a meeting to denounce the newspaper Pays and Petit Corporal, the opposition party forced an entrance into the hall. Revolvers and sword canes were displayed, and a number of assaults committed. The Jeronimists declare that the recent duel between Dichard, editor of the Petit Corporal, and Damascene, editor of the Combat, in which the latter was killed, was virtually an assassination. The foul deed between the two sections of the party is becoming very intense. The republicans are becoming bold at these discussions among their enemies.

LECLANCHE DEAD.

PARIS, September 27.—Leclanche, inventor of the Leclanche electric pile, and other improvements in dead.

THE TROUBLE SETTLED.

ATHENS, September 27.—The report of the settlement of the Turko-Greek frontier question by the surrender to Greece of the whole of the frontier fixed by the international commission, is officially announced.

ADIDING SURFERS.

ATHENS, September 27.—The report of the settlement of the Turko-Greek frontier question by the surrender to Greece of the whole of the frontier fixed by the international commission, is officially announced.

A Fugitive Balloon.

MILFORD, Mass., September 27.—Prof. Allen's balloon escaped this morning with the professor in the basket. He had no anchor, nor had any preparations for a journey been completed, and the valves were not in working order. When last seen the balloon was passing east of Douglass, going southwest.

THE BALLOON CAPTURED.

Special Dispatch to The Bee.