SILVER WEDDING

A Pleasant Surprise Party to Mr. and Mrs. J. Mathiesen.

1881 8,36

A very pleasant surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. J. Mathiesen at their residence on South 11th atreet, Saturday night, the occasion being the silver wedding day of the host and

The party consisted of about thirty ouples, who assembled at Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Jenson's home, from which about 8:30 p. m., the procession, headed by the U. P. band, proceeded to the residence of the Mathiesen's, which they took by storm on the first assault. Meantime a train of provisions had arrived and the tables were spread with an excellent lunch and plenty of wine, both of which received just attention. At the conclusion of the supper Mr. Pelle male short speech on behalf of the party ented Mr. and Mrs. Mathie sen with an elegant, solid silver tea and dinner set, beautifully engraven as follows:

"Compliments

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mathiesen, on their Silver Wedding Day. From friends in Omaha, September 30th, 1882." Mr. Mathiesen was so taken by surprize that he could only respond by briefly thanking all his friends. Soon ifter Mr. Schoubo made a little adiress on the ups and downs of married life, and closed with a toast to the bride and groom of twenty-five years

The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent. The Danish quartette gave several beautiful songs and the enjoyment was protracted until midnight when the invading party re-tired without the loss of a single one.

Hermesians.

This society, which was organized about a year ago, held its fall reunion and first regular meeting for the season of 1882-83 Mondayat the residence of G. M. Hitchcock, Esq., and was honored by the presence of a large number of the friends of the members and representatives of other literary societies of the city.

The program for the evening was varied and interesting. Miss Maul months, bearing interest, or on derendered a selection from one of the poets in a very pleasing manner. Miss Grace Wilbur read an article on Moses, and Misses Maul and Crownse and Mr. Buckenridge contributed music, vocal and instrumental. The leading feature of evening's exercise, however was a debate upon the woman suffrage question discussed on the affirmative (advocating the right) by Messrs. R. W. Breckenridge and W. F. Garley. Negative—Miss Fannie Wilson and G. M. Httchcock. A vote of the society and audience upon the mevits of the arguments presented was in favor of the affirmative dispu-tants. Miss Rachel G. Foster, Mrs. Nicholas and Mr. G. W. Tillson also spoke briefly upon the question after the vote was taken. This society has done some effective work since its organization and the plan adopted for the winter's atndy is one which cannot fail to instruct and benefit the members.

DR. B. J. Kendall, & Co.—I had agvery valuable Hambletonian colt that I prized very highly, he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons which failed to cure him. I was one day reading the 'dvertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it and got our cruzgists here to send for it, and they ordered three bottles; I took all and I thought I would give it a thorough trial, I used it according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colt's limbs are as free of lumps and as anyoth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I have let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles who are now using it.

Very respectfully,
