THE "NIC NAC."

The Attraction of the Week at the Academy of Music.

Parisian Dancers and Artists. Notwithstanding the attractions elsewhere, it is a recognized fact that for the past two weeks Manager Nugent of the Academy of Music, has carried off the palm in the attractions he has offered the public for an evening's enjoyment.

Since the reopening of the Academy new faces have supplanted the old ones, and his new stars shine in the theatrical firmament with brilliancy. This week has been beyond all doubt the greatest of the season and the programme is superb. It has kept the boys in a state of agitation which compelled a reorganization of the whole company for a week beyond their limited time. The company is larger than ever before and the new novelties and new hits are simply immense. Among the stars are Malville and Francis, the peerless gymnasts, Connors and Clayton, Daley and Sheehan, Hattie Westcott, Alice Evans, Eva Allen, Annie Raymond, and others. The great French sensation, the "Nic Nac," or Paria by Electric Light, introducing Madame Blandow's Parisian dancers and a titanic kicker, takes the cake over anything ever introduced on an Omaha stage, and Manager Nugent holds them at a great expense simply to please his patrons, who are tired of humdrum programmes and want something new. These inclinations in the latter programme cannot be explained after seeing the "Nic Nac," and its popularity is unprecedented.

For variety, spice, fun and all the qualities which go to make up a first-class variety entertainment, this week's programme can never be excelled. The proprietor has spared no pains to let the public know of this fact, and in this, as in other matters, has shown his enterprise and tact. Omaha never knew what a first-class variety theatre was until he opened one, and it will be admitted that since that time he has gone on adding to and increasing the attractions until none can claim a more sparkling, witty and thoroughly interesting evening's enjoyment than that to be obtained by a visit to the Academy of Music.

Convention of Insurance Men.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., October 5.—The convention of state insurance superintendents met today in the committee on life insurance reserve decided to let the matter stand as heretofore. The convention recommended the stoppage of distributing all cities of thirty thousand or over. The committee appointed to change fire blanks to a form similar to the balance sheet used by life insurance companies recommended that all co-operative or assessment insurance companies be required to make an annual report to state insurance departments, and also strongly recommended the enactment of laws compelling foreign insurance companies to do the same. The committee also recommended that a uniform form of policy be adopted. The new officers are: Oliver Pillsbury of New Hampshire, president; C. P. Swigart of Illinois, vice president; J. W. Brooks of Connecticut, secretary. Adjourned to meet at Columbus, Ohio, September, 1885.

The Southern Plague.

Brownsville, Texas, October 5.—Nine new cases of diphtheria, at Fort Brown, is down with fever; six new cases in Matamoros, no deaths. The daily death rate in Mexico from diphtheria is twelve. Weather hot. Pensacola, October 5.—This the 30th day of the scourge, closes with a record of fifty-five new cases, four deaths. No improvement, no encouragement to the physicians and attendants now in the connection with what they are approaching nearer day by day the present progress for several weeks to come. Quite a number of cases reported are of individuals who had the fever in former years. Four vessels now at quarantine are in fact dead. The United States special health inspector telegraphs from Lerdo that there is no yellow fever in or near Monterey City. The sanitary condition is good. By authority of the president and order of the government quarantine was proclaimed yesterday throughout the state against all infested districts.
