FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

FINANCIAL Special Dispatch to The Bee. NEW YORK, October 7. MONEY—Landed at from 3/65 per cent, closing at 3/64 per cent offered. Prime Mercantile Paper—7/8 per cent. Sterling Exchange—Steady; bankers bills, $4.50; demand, $4.50. Governments closed firm. Market irregular and unsettled until late in the afternoon, when prices became strong and advanced sharply, but in final sales a decided drive was made at New Jersey Central, which declined to 1/16, and this weakened the whole market. There was a great deal of buying in "short" sales this afternoon, and some buying for "long" accounts. It is yet a matter of doubt whether the recently successful raiders of the "short" market have finished their work. The market closed weak and in many places 1/2 per cent lower than yesterday's close.

OMAHA MARKETS.

Wholesale Prices. OFFICE OF THE OMAHA BEE, Saturday Evening, October 7. The wholesale trade of the city for the past week is reported as moderate, the weather being very warm for the season, and collections lighter than was expected, the farmers still holding their products in anticipation of higher prices. All lines were more notable for changes and firmness than for any changes that have taken place. Meats and lard however, are an exception, they having been in very active demand at an advanced price per lb. Carbon oils have also advanced, and are firm at quotations. Groceries have been steady and but few changes reported. Sugars declined and advanced during the week, and now are about at last week's quotations. Dry goods, millinery, hats and caps, boots and shoes, clothing, etc., were in only moderate request, the warm weather having an influence on the demand. Prices remain steady. The daily produce market remains in the same condition as last week. Receipts fair and at fair demand at quotations. Green fruits were in moderate movement and prices about the same as for some time past. Potatoes, however, were a trifles lower, Michigan sold at $3.00 to $3.50 per crates of four baskets. Grapes are still in abundant supply and selling at 3c to 4c; they will probably last about a week longer. California fruits are still arriving, and meet with ready sale at quotations. Celery is coming in freely and selling at 40c to 50c per doz. Sweet potatoes are plenty, and sell at 3c to 4c per lb. Irish potatoes are in good supply, local demand light, though inquiries on shipping account more liberal prices range about 20c for choice. Small lots sold at 35c. Louisiana oranges are in the market and sell at $10.00 to $11.00 per bin. Lemons are in good supply and are selling slowly at $1.00 to $1.50 per box. The market was well supplied with honey, and selling at last week's quotations. The movement in flour is slow and prices unchanged. Feed and bran are in good demand, the latter having advanced to $1.00. The local grain market is improving slowly and prices, though fluctuating more or less from day to day, remain about the same. The only changes reported in the market to-day are as follows: Wheat No. 3 advanced 1/2. Barley No. 2 advanced 2c. Oats—No. 2 declined 2c. Oats advanced 2c. Local Grain Dealings. WHEAT—Cash No. 2, 73 1/2; cash No. 3, 43 1/2. BARLEY—Cash No. 2, 73; No. 3, 43. RYE—Cash, 44. OATS—Cash, 30. STREET PRICES—Corn, 60c; oats, 35c. Produce and Provisions. POTATOES—25c to 40c per bushel. ONIONS—30c to 50c per bushel.

will cease to be formidable the moment American supplies are cut-off. THE DISTURBED CONDITION of the New York money market still occupies attention in financial circles here, and prevents that general advance in American securities that would otherwise take place. The high price of first rate securities drives thousands of persons to seek other forms of investment, but bankers and brokers scarcely know what to advise at present about American railroad stocks. JOHN BRIGHT continues to be attacked sharply by leading radical journals for declaring the Egyptian war to be "unjust and unnecessary." The caucuses against him, and it is even said that at the next election he will lose his seat for Birmingham, just as he lost his seat for Manchester at the time of the Crimean war. Some papers indeed threaten to drum the ex-councillor out of the duties of Lancaster out of the party. It is rumored in political circles that Bright will retire from public life at the close of the present year. SHOW UP THE BOOKS. WEXFORD, October 8.—Davitt, in his speech here to-day, expressed regret at the result achieved by the land league, which had been arrested in its course by the coercion act. Every member of the land league, he said, was a member of the Danube commission, and every member of the Danube commission was a member of the land league. CONCERT HALL BURNED. LONDON, October 8.—The West street concert hall, Brighton, burned; loss, $45,000. OFFICER'S CRIMES. PANAMA, October 8.—M. Cundimera, the president of the state and his secretary, have been assassinated. Political disturbances in two or three parts of the union are expected to follow the assassination. Wolsley at Des Moines. Special Dispatch to The Bee. DES MOINES, October 8.—Hon. A. M. Sullivan, ex-member of parliament, who is making a tour of America's principal cities, lectured to-night at the opera house to an immense audience. He gave an additional reason for visiting Des Moines, that one of the last injunctions he received from Parnell, at their last meeting in Dublin, was: "Sullivan, wherever you visit in America do not fail to visit Des Moines. That was the scene of one of my heartiest recollections." Mr. Sullivan's lecture was a review of the Irish coast and work of the land league, and was much the same as delivered elsewhere since he landed. He gave as a reason for the bitter fight of the Irish party in parliament against the coercion act, that it was in order to gain time and to save the funds and organization of the land league. If the coercion act had passed, in a week every land league officer in Ireland would have been thrown into prison and fifty thousand pounds of fund, which was scattered throughout Ireland to aid the evicted, would have been captured and confiscated. Obstruction enabled the money to be sent to Paris and to Egan, and aid for the evicted was afterward sent from there by draft. When the funds, machinery and records of the land league were safely out of Ireland, then the coercion act passed. The subsequent passage of the land act was a great victory for Ireland, being really a reduction of the rent from £15,000,000 annually to £11,000,000. Mr. Sullivan said while a partial victory gained in three years "the coercion had a beneficial effect on Ireland. The fight was not ended. The Irish people had brainy leaders, and he declared himself willing to put Parnell, Dillon, Davitt and Egan against any advisers the English government could bring to their aid. Ex-Vicer General Buller also addressed the meeting. A set of five brand resolutions were withdrawn from Mr. Sullivan's request, as he said they might embarrass Parnell in his parliamentary struggle. THE Irish Land League. Special Dispatch to The Bee. DUBLIN, N. Y., October 8.—At a meeting of the No. 1 Irish National Land League, to-day, James Mooney, national president, attended. The actions of Patrick Ford of the New York Irish World, in closing his subscription list and declaring the land league out of existence were discussed, and a motion of confidence in the national league was proposed. Mr. Mooney deprecated the motion as unnecessary, and said it was best to await advice from Ireland. Hynes stated such had been the determination reached at the meeting of the general council of National Land League Saturday. The resolution was withdrawn. The decision of Ford was not considered of national consequence. The branch resolved to forward $1,000 to the national treasurer, Father Walsh, as a contribution to the $250,000 fund. Special Dispatch to The Bee. NEW YORK, October 8.—The committee investigating the Fenian skirmishing fund report the alleged forged check given by Ross to Breton was not forged nor dishonored; that there were funds in the bank to meet the check when drawn, but had been later attached. The committee was informed that Breton and Davoy carried away from the office of the Fenian brotherhood the skimming fund letters addressed to Ross and were disappointed in not finding the letters containing threats from Davoy to expose Ross if he did not turn the fund over to them. A member of the committee said enough evidence was produced to send the trustees to state's prison and that there had been laid out if they attended to day's meeting. The financial accounts show deposits of $30,000, including the alleged Ford loan of $12,000, declared fraudulent. A resolution was adopted declaring, "The Irish World had done a noble thing in closing its columns to that latest delusion of the Land League." Special Dispatch to The Bee.
