THE MILLARD SUICIDE.

A Young Man Takes His Own Life for Some Inexplicable Cause.

Coroner Jacobs was notified by telegraph Sunday evening that a man had committed suicide by throwing himself down a well at Millard station...

Godfried Thoms, a farm laborer about 26 years of age, was the subject of the inquest. He had been working for Hans Hoeyer, a farmer residing about three miles north of Millard...

On Sunday forenoon he was at Millard station enjoying himself with the boys, and went home at dinner time, as usual without any action that would indicate his desperate resolution...

It is supposed that he has a brother-in-law, Mr. John Schmidt, at Davenport, Iowa, residing at No. 624 Front street, and steps have been taken to inform him of the lamentable occurrence...

The jury empaneled by Coroner Jacobs found a verdict in accordance with the facts.

Noting the Effects. R. Gibbs, of Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "After suffering from Spina Blossom for several years, I was induced to watch their effects, and find that in chronic diseases of the blood, liver and kidneys, your bitters have been signally marked with success..."

Mrs. Geo. Canfield left yesterday for two weeks' visit to her mother in Northern Nebraska. Geo. Canfield goes to Camp Canfield today to pay off his men.

Magraw's Family. Speaking of the man Magraw, crushed in a sewer excavation at Omaha, THE BEE says: "The deceased was an unmarried man, about thirty years of age, and boarded at the Elkhorn Valley house, of which Mr. Fred Herkize is proprietor. The latter says Magraw worked here about a year ago, but went to Denver, and only returned a couple of weeks ago, going to work on the same day of his arrival. It is not known whether he has any relatives in this part of the country at all."

We are informed by Mr. Van Horn, of the Clifton house, that Magraw is a married man, and his wife and child live near Orleans, Neb. He boarded at the Clifton for some time, and worked at various places in and about the city, leaving three weeks ago for Omaha. His name is Charles Magraw, and not William as given in the dispatches.

In this connection we cannot refrain from calling attention to the manner in which the sewer contractors, Messrs. Murphy, Canfield and Shannon acted in the matter of Magraw's burial. They spared no pains or expense to give the poor fellow a respectable funeral, and hired and paid for, out of their own pockets, the hearse, carriage, an elegant casket and a new suit of clothes for the unfortunate man, whose remains were interred in the Holy Sepulchre. In fact they did everything they could to give him a good send off, at a time notwithstanding the fact that all the witnesses testified that the contractors were in no wise responsible for the act, and had even taken unusual precautions for the protection of their laborers. The company is now trying to get a clue to any relatives or friends of the deceased who may have had, to notify them of his death.

RULES OF THE RAIL.

Omaha Visited by Wm. H. Vanderbilt and Sidney Dillon.

A special train consisting of three cars and bearing Wm. H. Vanderbilt and party, arrived at the U. P. transfer last evening and proceeded west early this morning. The party goes to Denver and thence on a trip over the Denver & Rio Grande. It is now believed, as has been asserted so long, that the D. & R. G. is but an extension of the great transcontinental line, of which the C. B. & Q. and B. & M. is a part, all of which are controlled by the same capitalists, and which will at an early day be consolidated and the line pushed from Salt Lake westward.

SIDNEY DILLON will arrive in Omaha one day this week, probably on Thursday, and remain a short time on business connected with the Union Pacific.

Decline of Man.

Nervous Weakness, Dizziness, Impotence, Sexual Debility, cured by "Wells' Health Renewer." $1.

BLAIR BREVITIES.

The Progress of Business and Politics. Correspondence of THE BEE.

BLAIR, October 9.—Blair has made such rapid strides this season in growth and improvement that it can no longer be classed as a "little brick" for with her fine three story brick block and telephone exchange and four policemen she assumes the attitude of a metropolis of no mean dimensions. The excellent crops raised in the surrounding country and fair prices are bringing the farmers in. The grading and rip-rapping going on on the bottom and at the river just east of the city employ large numbers of men, and lastly but not least, the woman's rights question is stirring up a good deal of activity. So that all together they give to Blair an air of bustle and activity hardly seen in a city of three times the population of Blair.

The suffrage question is being agitated here constantly by Helen M. Gouger, Lucy Stone, Blackwell, and Mrs. Colby, of Beatrice. They have organized their forces, and a mighty effort is being made to carry the county for the amendment. Your correspondent fears that some of the homes in Blair are being neglected already by the wives and mothers, by spending their time in circulating petitions for names in aid of the cause. These silver-tongued orators that have done nothing but go about the country for the last twenty years, in search of motorist, are influencing our women to pursue a course which they would not if they would use their better judgment.

This question has swamped the other political issues in this county. As usual, the republican party here are unharmonious and divided, and, as usual, the democrats have made demagogues of themselves by nominating a lot of radical old fossils for the different offices.

There is some doubt as to whether this district, comprising Burt and Washington counties will send a democrat or republican senator. The Hon. Brad has not the united support of his party in either county.

Senator Saunders paid our citizens a visit a few days ago, but your correspondent could not see anything special was the cause of it.

A special train, comprising all of the officials of St. P. & O. R. R. company passed through here last Saturday morning.

It is rumored that Superintendent McCoy, of the Nebraska division of the S. C. & P. company has resigned.
