

The Daily Bee. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Thursday Morning, Oct. 12. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 30 cents per week. By Mail, $1.00 per Year.

MINOR MENTIONS. —J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall. —Sherridan makes photographs. —Stove mats for sale at H. E. Seaman's.

—A plain drunk named Lawson, was yesterday forenoon gathered in from the highway. —The Round Table meets this evening at Mr. Ott's residence to continue the study of Coriolanus.

—The net profits of the wheelbarrow festival at the Congregational church were $77.14. —Orders for toys and small musical instruments are coming in thick and fast at Mueller's.

—Yesterday afternoon J. E. Irving, of Florence, Neb., was married to Louise Helike, of Omaha, Justice Abbott officiating. —George W. Moore and Fannie I. Stonehouse, both of Atlanta, were yesterday married by Justice Abbott.

—The Episcopal church social is to be held this evening, Mrs. Bloomer entertaining the friends, assisted by Mrs. Reckless. —Cheap Railroad tickets to all points, Bushnell, five doors north of postoffice, sells them. Entrance on Main or Pearl streets.

—Our friend Mueller is nowadays very busy filling orders for toys and small musical instruments. —The Fay Templeton company yesterday arrived at the Ogden, and last evening gave a fine entertainment at Do-hany's.

—The ball to be given by the Knights of Labor to-morrow evening, at Bloom & Nixon's hall, promises to be a most enjoyable event, and largely attended. —The case of the State vs. Kline, for larceny was yesterday dismissed by Justice Frayne, the prosecution failing to get in an appearance.

—Mattresses, spring beds and lounges, as well as the best and latest upholstered goods can be found at E. F. Stockert & Co.'s, 309 Broadway. —This afternoon the Kansas City Real Stockings and Council Bluffs nine meet on the diamond field. There will be a sharp and exciting contest. Game is to be called at 3 p. m.

—Joseph Reiter makes the Finest Suits in the latest styles, at the lowest possible prices. His merchant tailoring establishment is at 310 Upper Broadway, Council Bluffs. —Morgan, Keller & Co.'s undertaking establishment now has telephonic connections with all parts of the city, so that those desiring their services can readily send them word over the wires.

—The new meat shop of Shull & Mullen, south Main street, guarantee prompt attention, the best meats, and at the lowest prices of any shop in the city. —Yesterday Mrs. Christina Kahre, of Weston, was brought to this city in a wildly insane condition, and last evening was taken to the asylum. Her son was recently sent to the same place for treatment, he being also violently insane.

—Joseph Ross, the upper Broadway cooper, desires to purchase 50,000 hoop poles. He also wishes to employ ten extra coopers. Write to or inquire at his cooper shop. —For the latest styles of parlor furniture, for upholstery work of all kinds, for the most complete assortment of lampshades, poles, shades and curtains, go to E. F. Stockert & Co., 309 Broadway.

—Nothing has been heard lately about that new street car line, which Col. Chapman was so eager to build last spring, and for which the city council granted a charter. Work was to commence within sixty days, and the line to be in operation within a year, but there seems nothing done yet. —Everyone who is at all interested in base-ball should take in the promised game this afternoon between the Kansas City Red Stockings and the Council Bluffs.

The contest will be an exciting one. The Kansas City's lately defeated our boys in two games, and the home nine is therefore bent on getting even with them if possible, and will play their very best. —A party of German emigrants, bound for Lincoln, were suddenly added Thursday night, at the Emigrant house, where one of their number, an old lady, died quite unexpectedly. Old age and its attending feebleness seemed the only cause of death. The remains were placed in a neat coffin, and taken on to Lincoln for burial, for which place the party left yesterday.

—When a person covered all over with the signs of political infamy is presented by a party anxious as a candidate for an important trust, we are not surprised that the good men of that party rise up in their wrath, bid defiance to the party managers, and refuse to support such a candidate. The defeat of that candidate is the surest way to prevent a reputation of the devices that secured his nomination. —Gleason Journal on Anderson.

—Officer Edgar yesterday found Wm. Keeline, Jr., wandering along Broadway, drunk and bleeding from a wound in the head. Some said he fell down and hit his head on the curbing, others that he had been struck. Later in the day the same officer became satisfied that he had been thumped, and arrested Thos. R. Hare as the assaulter and batterer, but on the trial it was disclosed that Keeline had drawn a revolver on Hare, and made such threats that Hare knocked him down. Hare was therefore set free, while Keeline was held until sober enough for trial.

—Dr. Deetken was called on to answer a charge of assault laid against him by Mrs. Burke, a colored woman, in the police court yesterday. The colored family live next door neighbors to the doctor, and the trouble seems to have originated from the children. The doctor's six-year-old called a Burke boy "a nigger," and the latter threw a clod of dirt which gave the white boy the nose-bleed. The doctor on going over to see Mrs. Burke about the trouble is said to have struck her. He denied the striking, and the court discharged him.

Escaped from the Tolls. John Bacon, Laporte, Ind., writes: "Hurrah for STRONG BLOSSOM; it's all you recommend to be. My dyspepsia has all vanished. Why don't you advertise it? What allowance will you make if I take a dozen bottles, so that I could give my friends occasionally? Price 50 cents, trial bottles 10 cents."

Domains. In Satin, Plush and Diagonal Beaver, at HARKNESS, ORCUTT & Co's.

PERSONAL. Charles T. Luce, of Woodbine, Iowa, is in the city. C. A. Hoffman, of Rockford, is a Pacific house guest.

John Eckman, of Louisville, was at the Ogden yesterday. H. M. Justice, of Philadelphia, yesterday did justice to an Ogden house dinner. George W. Cherrington, of the Almy coal mines, Wyoming, is at the Pacific.

W. F. Sapp Jr., and mother left last evening for Chicago, intending to be absent a week or so. There were three Scotts at the Ogden yesterday—Charles Scott, of Pittsburg; R. I. Scott, of Des Moines, and Wm. Scott, of St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanthorn of Atchison, Kas., are in the city visiting John Hanthorn and family and other relatives. Mr. Hanthorn is one of the largest and best known grocers of Atchison.

Peter Herdic, of Philadelphia, is in the city. He falls to observe many of his Herdic coaches upon the streets, the enterprise having evidently gone to meet John Chapman's street car line. Mr. Herdic is lately returned from England, and even a voyage across the water, has not made him lose faith in the Herdic coach.

A Short Road to Health. To all who are suffering from boils, ulcers, scrofula, carbuncles, or other obstinate diseases of the blood and skin, a course of BUCKROCK BLOOD BITTERS will be found to be a short road to health. Price $1.00.

Flannels. Dress Flannels in all the new shades, for fall and winter wear, at HARKNESS, ORCUTT & Co's.

Notice to the ladies of Council Bluffs: That the tailor system of cutting will be taught this week at No. 28, North 6th street, by J. CARTER AND WIFE, General Agents.

Announcement. I hereby announce myself as an independent candidate for constable, subject to the voice of the voters on ensuing election. C. W. WESLEY.

The Wheelbarrow Festival. Under this name one of the most largely attended and most merry church festivals ever held in the city, was given at the parlors of the Congregational church. There was much curiosity as to what sort of a festival could be had in which wheelbarrows could be given a place, and this feeling of curiosity, added to the assurance given of a good time anyway, caused the rooms to be packed. There was a swarm of boys and girls, as well as older people, and the crowd was so great and the merry-making so lively that the programme proposed for the stage could not be carried out to the satisfaction of all; it being almost impossible to get sufficient silence, and cessation from talk and laughter, to enable all to be heard while the jam was such that all could not see what was going on on the stage. There was some excellent music provided, and a charming recitation by Miss Mattie Thibor, the little miss securing better attention than some of the older participants, and winning hearty applause, for the clear and expressive manner in which she recited "The Little Mouse in Church."

There was another feature which interested the young folks, it being a tableaux representing the old bachelor who went to London to get him a wife, and who in bringing her home in a wheelbarrow had the misfortune to have the barrow broken and his little wife spilled. Master Willie Squire, in a little swallow-tailed coat, tall hat etc., made a perfect little man, and Master Lutie Pryor, was costumed as a cute little wife, whose tumble caused much merriment.

At one booth there were for sale at a nominal price, little glass wheelbarrows filled with candy, and in adjoining rooms refreshments were served, the cream being dished up in glass wheelbarrows, which were sold with the cream. Then there was the floral stage, where barrows could be loaded with flowers, if desired. There was rush after these wheelbarrows, that before the evening was half over, every one had been sold, and still the demand kept up lively. The festival was a novel one, and it proved to be a happy hit, besides being financially profitable to the Sunday school.

Noting the Effects. R. Gibbs, of Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "Hearing your BUCKROCK BLOOD BITTERS favorably spoken of, I was induced to watch their effects, and find that in chronic diseases of the blood, liver and kidneys, your bitters have been signally marked with success. I have used them myself with best results, for torpidity of the liver; and in the case of a friend of mine suffering from dropsy, the effect was marvelous." Price $1.00.

A Souvenir. With each pair of boots, shoes or slippers we sell, we give one of our transparent oleographs. Z. T. LINDSEY & Co.

Bargains. Substantial bargains in Dress Goods, Silks, Handsome Dolmans, Elegant Carpets, Etc., etc., all the year round at HARKNESS, ORCUTT & Co's.

ANOTHER ROBBERY. An Old Man Knocked Down and His Grippeck Gobbled.

The Officers Think They Have the Highwaymen. Another robbery occurred Tuesday night, near the Chicago & Rock Island depot, and although not much plunder was secured, yet it was not the fault of the ruffians who committed the outrage. An old man named Max Schmidt, who is a mason by trade, was coming along the street accompanied by a boy named George Miller. The old man was lugging his grippeck, and the boy had an accordion. Two men jumped on them, knocked the old man down, grabbed the grippeck, and then ran away. Not long after Officer Sterling found a man named Thos. Dorsey seated on the edge of a sidewalk going through the ruffians, and arrested him and secured the plunder. Dorsey was locked up, and yesterday was brought into court, and the examination set for this afternoon, bail being fixed at $1,000, and not being able to give bonds, was kept locked up. He admits that he had been drinking some, but denies that he was in any way connected with the robbery.

It is said that the other man was named James McCarthy, and the police are after him. McCarthy is also wanted to answer another charge. Last Tuesday he kicked up a row with a young man named Gibson, because the latter refused to sell him a pint of whisky "on tick." Not satisfied with striking Gibson he hit off a piece of his ear, committing an offense which if proved on him will send him across the state.

FOR SALE. My residence, No. 715 Fourth street Bancroft. L. F. MURPHY.

NOTICE. Arrangements have been made to have all the engines and carts hitched up for practice three times per day. The bell at Rescue engine house will give one tap at 9 a. m., 12 m and 8 p. m., which will be the signal for hitching up. JOHN TEMPLETON, Chief Fire Dep't.

Jacob Egermeyer of Cedar Rapids, failed on Saturday for $18,000. His assets are about $10,000. Egermeyer was a manufacturer and dealer in harness. He has done business in Cedar Rapids for ten years.

ROOM FOR REFORM. The Authorities Need to Wake Up and Clear the City of Crooks. There is a most excellent opportunity in this city for a showing of some activity on the part of the authorities in clearing out the thieves and crooks who hover about town, and who frequently break out enough to attract public attention by a robbery, burglary or confidence game. Council Bluffs is not in a state of anarchy nor is it a sodom of wickedness, but still there is too much devilry going on here, with too little restraint or punishment.

Without going further back into the records than the first of January last, a period the events of which can readily be recalled by residents, many acts have been committed which ought to have sent the doers to the penitentiary; and yet, how many have been caught or committed? Since the first of January last, there has been only one criminal sent to the penitentiary for crime committed in this city. That one was "Cranky" B. who was sentenced to six months for stealing George Ferguson's valise. There have been numerous cases of picking pockets, highway robbery, arson, confidence tricks, burglary, etc., and yet of the whole batch but a few have ever been arrested, and only one convicted and sentenced to go across the state.

There are a certain number of known crooks, who are now hanging about the city and plying their trade between here and Omaha. Those who have been lately freed in this city and vicinity by confidence men, agree so nearly in their descriptions of the rogues that it is apparent that the same fellows work most of the tricks turned here. It seems as if those whose business it is to watch for crooks would be able to tell these men by sight, after a time, and they are able. Why do not they arrest them? An officer in talking with a Bee man the other day, pointed out two men standing on Broadway, and said he was sure they were crooked, and that they would soon be heard from as turning some trick. On being asked why he did not run them in, the officer answered, "What shall I arrest them for?" "Vagrancy, if for nothing else." "Why, what's the use of that? The court would let them loose again."

The fact seems to be that the officers lay the blame on the courts, and the courts lay the blame on the officers, and between them the crooks escape, like a pig running between the limbs of a bow-legged man.

The authorities by working together and on general principles, can lessen the number of crooks hanging about here, and especially so if they work together with the Omaha authorities. Men who are known crooks should not be allowed to hang about until they can be caught in some specific act. The vagrancy law if applied to them will bring them to time on general principles, and it can be made too warm for them to stay here.

The citizens are getting tired of the excuses offered by courts that the officers do not arrest these fellows, or that there is some technical way of escape for them. They are equally tired of having the police offer the excuse that there is no way of getting the fellows convicted if caught. Thieves and thugs are here. They are known to the officers. The taxpayers pay for protection, and pay men salaries for looking after criminals, and punishing them. Will they do the duty for which they are paid?

It is said, and with much truth, that such a cry for reform comes at stated intervals, but still there is a cause for it. When citizens are knocked down and robbed, when crimes of all kinds are committed, and only one poor, half-cracked sneakthief is the only one sent to the penitentiary, out of scores of criminals, it is time that citizens began to inquire whether the courts and officers are for the purpose of protecting the public, or protecting those who make war on the public, and it will not be long before generalities are thrown aside and the public will fasten upon individuals, who are the ones to blame, and will make complaints in detail, specifying names, rather than classes.

Millions Given Away. Millions of bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have been given away as Trial Bottles of the large size. This enormous quantity was distributed to the proprietors, were it not for the rare merits possessed by this wonderful medicine. Call at C. F. Goodman's Drug Store, and get a Trial Bottle free, and try for yourself, never fails to cure.

IOWA ITEMS. The losses by the fire at Maquoketa last week foot up to $90,000; insurance $63,000. The Dunlap Reporter is in a fair way to become the agricultural paper of Iowa. A Board of Trade has been organized in Stuart. John B. Gough is booked to speak in Grinnell, December 1st. The Harman house, a three-story hotel at Tama City, burned last Thursday night. Loss $15,000. A Muscatine tombstone dealer has received an order from Mrs. Jesse James for a marble shaft twelve feet high to mark the resting place of her husband. Seth Knowles, of McGregor, was thrown out of a runaway horse on Wednesday, the 4th inst., and dragged for a distance over rocks and stones. He died soon after from the injuries received. An Anamosa penitentiary bird named Werin was taken to Dubuque to identify two burglars with whom he had been interested in a job, but after he was there he failed to recognize the prisoners, and they were cleared. The general belief is that he lied. Fireman Frank Nugent, on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, was caught between an engine and tender on Wednesday night near Brighton, and seriously injured. The locomotive left the track and turned over, catching Nugent, who attempted to jump. A sad accident to a two-year-old child of Bead, of Caseyville. The father was up for practice three times per day. The bell at Rescue engine house will give one tap at 9 a. m., 12 m and 8 p. m., which will be the signal for hitching up.

Faded articles of all kinds restored to their original beauty by Diamond Dyes. Perfect and simple. 10 cents, at all druggists.

THE CAMPAIGN. THEN AND NOW. How about Mr. Anderson? Has there ever been anything said against him prior to his being nominated for congress? Why, the editor of the leading paper in this district, now supporting his candidacy, said six years ago that he was guilty of adultery; that he had abused his wife; that he had collected double pay for his services as an officer of the army, and refused to restore the money thus wrongfully taken; and made other charges of a most flagrant character. He solemnly swore that he believed all the charges to be true, and Mr. Anderson took no legal measures to show that he had been libeled.—Exchange.

ANOTHER APOLOGY NEEDED. The proprietor of this paper is in receipt of a letter from Dan Farrell, the valiant sheriff of Mills county, who captured Pork Wells. In regard to Mr. Miller, whom Anderson introduced to transfer her property to himself, thereby defrauding two destitute children out of their heritage, Mr. Farrell says: "A history of these dishonest transactions are now prepared and will be published. It is now being withheld by the order of the mayor to bring his case up, which is now pending in this court. Of course he dare not, but his failure to do so will make another very damaging page of his history." Ho, satraps! to the front. Frame an apology. Say it was indecent, but innocent of wrong intentions, "and crook the pregnant hinges of the knee, that thrift may follow fawning." —[Walnut News.

"Skill and patience succeeded where force fails." The quiet skill and patient research which brought forth Kidney-Wort illustrates the truth of the fable. Its grand success everywhere is admitted. Disease never comes to us without a cause. Ask any good physician the reason and he will tell you something in connection with the working of the great organs. Kidney-Wort enables them to overcome all obstructions and preserve perfect health. Try a box or bottle at once.

KIDNEY-WORT THE GREAT CURE FOR RHEUMATISM. As it is for the most painful disease of the human system, and is the only remedy that cures the system of the world, position that causes the most suffering can be relieved. THOUSANDS OF CASES have been quickly relieved, and in some cases perfectly cured. GIBBS ST. LOUIS, MO., SOLD BY DRUGGISTS, WITH A FULL LIST OF NAMES, BURLINGTON, IOWA.
