Special Dispatch to The Bee.

THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE.

DUBLIN, October 17.--The Irish national conference opened today. Parnell presided. A letter was read from Egan, dated Paris, tendering his resignation as treasurer of the Land League, and giving a statement of the funds of the league. His report shows a total of £241,823 passed through his hands. Of this sum there was disbursed in relieving distress in 1879-80, £50,000; in disbursements at state trials over £16,000, and in expenditures through the general land league and ladies' league, £148,000. Parnell and Davitt were received with tremendous cheers by the delegates. Nearly all the extreme Irish members of parliament were present. The attendance of delegates was large.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONFERENCE.

DUBLIN, October 17.--For his own protection as well as for the satisfaction of members of the League, Treasurer Egan asked that two members of the executive committee be appointed to examine his accounts. Davitt proposed and Justin McCarthy seconded a warm vote of thanks to and confidential confidence in Egan, which was adopted. The proceedings of the conference were not altogether harmonious. A delegate named London, who attempted to speak, was shouted down as a "land grabber" and "troungler," and denounced by ex-Suspect Barrington as "a coward who ran away from a career." All the speakers declared the land act a failure. Parnell said he was unable to go with Barrington in his scheme of land reform, but would co-operate with him for the abolition of landlordism. Davitt moved as an amendment to the proposed constitution of the central council of the new league that the council consist of 32 members, one for each county, the parliamentary party to have no nominations. T. B. O'Connor said this amendment amounted to a vote of want of confidence in the parliamentary party. He accused Davitt of trying to injure Parnell's prestige, and reiterated the charge despite Davitt's repeated denials. Davitt became greatly excited and said a gentleman would not have made such an accusation. To prove it groundless he withdrew his amendment. It was finally decided the council should consist of forty-eight members, thirty-two for the counties and sixteen for the parliamentary party. A resolution thanking Parnell for presiding over the conference and expressing unshaken confidence in him passed, and the conference closed.

COMMENT ON THE CONFERENCE.

LONDON, October 17.--The Times Dublin dispatch says: "Not only has the Irish conference created no enthusiasm but the assembly was composed of elements as heterogeneous as the programme was multifarious; it was only the skillful hand of the chairman that sometimes prevented an open rupture. Dissention was shown clearly enough in Parnell's opening statement and in Davitt's prompt rejoinder, and the tone of bitter emphasis wherein the latter spoke betrayed the feeling of a man laboring under disappointment, which he struggles to suppress."

THE FRENCH IN TUNIS.

TUNIS, October 17.--A number of Tunisian chiefs with their followers offered to return to Tunis and submit to the French. Tripoli is strongly opposed to such action. A French man-of-war has been placed at the disposal of the French consul general.

SPANISH POLITICS.

MADRID, October 17.--It is stated the terms of the arrangement between the democrats and the dissenting liberals are general acceptance of the constitution of 1869, with some slight modifications. Some opposition organs state that Prime Minister Sagasta is inclined to accept Serrano's policy in order to avert a rupture in the liberal party. In ministerial circles, however, it is asserted Sagasta has declined to modify the policy which he considers calculated to induce democrats to accept a monarchy. Sagasta absolutely refused to separate himself from the central element represented by the ministers of war and justice. El Carro says: If at the next session of the cortes, Marshal Serrano's party declares in favor of the consolidation of the monarchy and renounces its ideas of constitutional reform, Sagasta will be disposed to relinquish power in order to facilitate the formation of a ministry under Serrano. In that case Sagasta would support the government in the chambers.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Bought Up Again.

CHICAGO, October 17.--In regard to the purchase of the Chicago and North Western railroad, Commissioner Armstrong has returned from his official trip over the Pacific route, and that he sees nothing in the complaint of the people of the Pacific coast that calls for redress. The Chicago Tribune says that his utterances are in remarkable contrast with the unanimous drift of recent legal decisions, and that he certainly jar on the public ear. It alludes to a case in California which has been carried to such an extent that it is to-day the most complete illustration in existence of the modern tendencies to monopoly. The existing agencies call for a remedy, and it is prominently the railroad commissioners' duty to see that it is applied.

The Q. Express Company.

CHICAGO, October 17.--The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad has completed arrangements whereby it is to do its own express business at all points east of the Missouri river from November 1. The contract with the American Express company has expired; that with Wells, Fargo & Co., west of the Missouri river, has one year to run, after which the railroad will do its own express over that portion of its lines also.

BOWEN AND HIS BOARD BILL.

WASHINGTON, October 17.--H. A. Bowen, and a board of directors upon the warrant of his landlord for nonpayment of board, was taken to the residence of Attorney-General Brewster, in that city. He sent in a note to the attorney-general, who at once came out of his private office into the court apartment. The conversation which took place was heard by a student, who has furnished the following report for publication: "I was present at the interview between Mr. Brewster and Mr. Bowen on October 16th, about half past four. Mr. Bowen was in the custody of an officer having been arrested for nonpayment of his board. He asked Mr. Brewster to advise and assist him so as to relieve him from arrest and advise him how to get bail. Mr. Brewster reminded him that he did not know him and had never seen him before in his knowledge, because he was a stranger to him, and also because of the peculiar position of Bowen towards the department of justice in connection with Dickson's charges he was the last man that Brewster could interfere to help under any circumstances. Bowen said he saw the propriety. Brewster said he (Bowen) had involved his department in a scandal, maliciously gotten up by these star route men by attempting to bribe Dickson in connection with Cameron. Bowen said he was very sorry, but he meant no wrong. He came from California to make it plain. Brewster told him if he had not come he would have made him come. Mr. Brewster then suggested that if he could get money from his friends in New York, where he said he had money, he could easily get it by telegraphic remittance. Finally Bowen said, 'yes, that could be done,' and an officer said he would go with him. Mr. Brewster spoke in a loud tone in the presence of the officer and myself, and on Bowen's suggestion that they speak in private, he refused, saying there was nothing to be private about. Before the interview Bowen sent in by me the appended note. Mr. Brewster immediately came out in front of the interview and made this memorandum at the suggestion of Mr. Brewster as soon as Bowen went out.

THE NOTE.

While giving my statement to the district attorney this afternoon on the alleged bribery of Mr. Dickson, I was arrested by the proprietor of the hotel where I am staying for my board bill. The bill has never been presented. I can pay it to-morrow, inasmuch as I am detained here and have been by Mr. Ke (who is out of town). I am constrained to ask you to advise me as to my course of procedure. Respectfully, H. A. Bowen.

To the Attorney General.

Bowen paid the bill this afternoon, and was discharged. Attorney General Brewster says Bowen has made a statement to District Attorney Valentine regarding Dickson's charges in the star route bribery investigation, and it has been forwarded to the department offices at Washington. The attorney general refuses to speak of its contents, and District Attorney Valentine will give no information on the subject.

THE MINDEN MASSACRE.

Frightful Bloody Work of Horse Thieves in Kearney County.

Sheriff Woods and a Deputy Instantly Killed by the Highwaymen.

Mail Carrier Collins Mortally Wounded by the Third Bullet.

Terrible Scene at a Supper Table--A Description of the Murderers.

Special to The Lincoln Journal.

NEWARK, Neb., October 16.--Two men were shot dead and one mortally wounded at Minden, county seat of Kearney county, by horse thieves to-night. A party of four men came to Minden on Sunday, the 15th inst., with twenty-two ponies, offering them for sale. These ponies were stolen in the western part of Hitchcock county. The officers of the law were close upon their track, and came up with the party at Minden to-day. Two of the four thieves left Minden about 4 o'clock this afternoon, two of them remaining at Minden with their ponies. At about 5 o'clock this morning supper was called at the Prairie Home hotel. About twenty guests sat down to supper, among whom were several ladies. At this time the two devils that had the shooting walked in and sat down at the table, facing towards the entrance door. Soon after, Sheriff Jack Woods of Colberton, Neb., who was after these men, stepped into the dining room, saying to the two men: "Throw up your hands." The words had but just left his lips when Woods was shot dead by them, with two bullet holes in his body. At the same time deputy sheriff of Kearney county, B. B. Kelley, who was sitting at a table facing the two murderers, spoke to his wife saying to her, "Run, run!" He had no more than spoken the words when he got a bullet from one of the villains' bull dog pistols, striking him in the head, killing him instantly. The two murderers then shot another man in the body. This man, Collins was mail carrier from Minden to Macy, Neb. He is mortally wounded. The two murderers then rushed into the street, jumped onto their horse, and rode through the streets, shooting at every person in sight, leaving their hats and gloves on the dining table.

Description of the men who did the shooting: One man, same in right leg, black hair, black eyes, smooth and rather full face; had a ball nose under back part of right eye; stanch about 5 feet 8 inches, 26 or 27 years old, weight about 155 pounds, dressed in cheviot shirt, overalls and leather leggings. The other man is heavy set; light curly hair; light complexion; rather smooth face; blue eyes; the eye teeth on the right side sticks out 4 or 5 inches prominently; stands about 5 feet 10 inches; weight about 160 pounds; dressed in light colored sack coat, dark pants, leather leggings; about 22 years old. Both were wearing arascals, having each a 44 calibre shooter and bull dog pistols and Arkansas toothpicks in new scabbards. The two men started west from Minden. A reward for their capture will be offered by Kearney county.

DR. FISHBLATT,

OF THE DES MOINES MEDICAL DISPENSARY,

ON ACCOUNT OF HIS Immense Practice In Omaha, Neb., WILL MAKE HIS NEXT VISIT ON

Tuesday, Nov. 7th, 1882, AND WILL REMAIN THREE DAYS

AT THE PAXTON HOTEL,

WHERE HE CAN BE CONSULTED ON THE Eye & Ear, Throat & Lungs, Catarrh, Kidneys

AND Bladder and Female Diseases as Well as All Chronic and Nervous Diseases

DR. FISHBLATT

Has discovered the greatest cure in the world for weakness of the back and limbs, involuntary diarrhoea, impotency, general debility, nervousness, languor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, trembling, dimness of sight or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach or bowels--these terrible disorders, arising from solita habits of youth--and secret practices more fatal to the victim than the songs of Siren to the marines of Ulysses, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage imp. soluble.

Those that are suffering from the evil practices, which destroy their mental and physical system, causing NERVOUS DEBILITY. The symptoms of debility are a list of ailments from which no man can perform his business and social duties, makes happy marriage impossible, distresses the action of the heart, causing flashes of heat, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, cowardice, fears, dreams, restless nights, dizziness, fog, thinness, unnatural discharges, pain in the back and hips, chest breathing, melancholy, loss of company and have preference to be alone, feeling as tired in the morning as when retiring, sexual weakness, lost manhood, white bone deposit in the urine, nervousness, trembling, confusion of thought, watery and weak eyes, dyspepsia, constipation, painless, pain and weakness in the limbs, etc., should consult Dr. Fishblatt, who will be restored to perfect health.

YOUNG MEN

Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect who might otherwise enter noble listening senators with the thunders of their eloquence or walk to exalted positions, may call with confidence.

MARRIAGE

Married persons or young men contemplating marriage beware of physical weakness. Loss of procreative power, impotency or any other disqualification speedily relieved. He who places himself under the care of Dr. Fishblatt may religiously confide in his honor as a genuine physician.

ORGANAL WEAKNESS

Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life a burden and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victim for improper indulgence. Young people are apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now who that understands this subject will deny that procreation is lost so near by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent. Besides being deprived of the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both mind and body arise. The system becomes deranged, the physical and mental powers weaken. Loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, wasting of the frame, cough, consumption and death.

A CURE WARRANTED.

Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders who keep them trifling months after months, taking poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately.

DR. FISHBLATT

graduate of one of the most eminent colleges in the United States, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at certain sounds, with frequent blushings, attended sometimes with derangement of the mind, were cured immediately.

Take Particular Notice.

Dr. F. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits which ruin both mind and body, unfitting them for business, study, society or marriage. These are some of the sad, melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz. Weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head and dimness of sight, loss of muscular powers, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, derangement of digestive functions, debility, consumption, etc.
