

The Daily Bee. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Monday Morning, Oct. 23.

Subscription Rates: By Carrier... 50 cents per week... By Mail... $10.00 per year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

Minor Mentions: J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall.

Dr. Macrae is making some fine improvements in his residence.

Nick Roberts' Humpty Dumpty company is to appear here on the 25th.

John Fitzgerald is the happy papa of a ten pound boy.

The new meat market of Shull & Mullen, 799 South Main street, guarantees best of meats and prompt attention.

A fine assortment of Boots and Shoes, sufficient to supply the demands of all, at George Blaxin's south Main street.

Cheap Railroad tickets to all points, Bushnell, five doors north of postoffice, sells them.

Nick Bachus now seeks to have Chas. Arad arrested on the charge of having obtained $43 worth of board under false pretenses.

There was a disgraceful row on Broadway last evening, in which Geo. Gerstacher and Carey, the base ball umpire, were the principal stars.

Another social novelty is promised, Baptists having arranged for a pumpkin next at the residence of H. E. Seaman, next Thursday evening.

Permits to wed were Saturday given to Frederick S. Childs and Helen Sar, also to J. W. Rhaton and Elizabeth C. Denton, all of this county.

One of the city papers, in speaking of the burglary cases, says Hall and his partners in crime went "Scott" free. It strikes the ordinary man that they went Frainey free.

Among those who have special invitations to call upon Judge Aylesworth this morning are: Aiken, drunk; J. D. Seemore, for using profane language, and A. Thomson for being drunk.

Joseph Ross, the upper Broadway cooper, desires to purchase 50,000 hoop poles. He also wishes to employ ten extra coopers. Write to or inquire at his cooper shop.

Joseph Reiter makes the Finest Suits in the latest styles, at the lowest possible prices. His merchant tailoring establishment is at 310 Upper Broadway, Council Bluffs.

Coyle, the man who has been locked up here for being drunk, was allowed his freedom yesterday, that he might go to Omaha, word having been received that the fellow who robbed him there had been caught.

One of the most attractive show windows now drawing the attention of passers-by is that at Mueller's palace music hall. Miss Mary Jackson arranged the display, and it certainly is a very creditable one.

Chief of Police H. H. Field announces himself as a candidate for justice of the peace, without waiting for the republican convention, or any other convention to nominate him.

About thirty members of the Y. C. A. intended to go to Omaha to attend the meeting there last evening, but owing to some misunderstanding about railway arrangements were left.

J. Mueller is doing splendidly with his toy and small musical instrument this season. Orders coming in from country dealers thick and fast. Nothing like dealing with a reliable house.

The receipts at the stock yards Saturday were 96 cars, and the shipments 93 cars, there being 99 cars over the C. M. & St. P., 19 over the C. B. & Q., and 40 cars over the C. & N. W. road.

There were a large number who attended Bluffs' military opening Saturday evening. The display was certainly one of the finest ever seen west of Chicago, there being a wonderful showing in variety and quantity, and if the ladies are not now posted by actual vision as to what is the prettiest and latest, it is surely not Bluffs' fault.

John Allison, the young man who has been locked up in jail here to recover from the effects of a big spree at Sioux City, falls to recover, and is evidently so insane as to necessitate treatment at the asylum. He claims to be from Pennsylvania, and communications have been sent to his friends, informing them of his sad condition.

The gentlemen having the management of the K. of P. celebration are uniting in their efforts to make it a good success. On Thursday next will be the grand parade. Members will be in attendance from all over the state. Two hundred have made arrangements to come from Davenport alone. The committee request our citizens, especially business men, to de-acerate on that day.

Two colored boys, Jim Johnson and Ed. Henry were arrested for malicious mischief in breaking some candy jars, and raising a general trouble in Burke's stand. The boys were put in jail, but soon discovered a hole in the floor, and through that crawled into the cellar, and from there skipped out doors, and played in the streets, hurrying back at meal times. Yesterday they were transferred to the county jail to await their examination before Justice Frainey this morning.

The man Ross, who squealed on the three others concerned with him in the burglarizing of Wheeler's store house, was in the superior court. Seeing that the three others had been discharged by Justice Frainey, the prosecution went word to court to dismiss the case against Ross, though Ross had confessed himself guilty. Judge Aylesworth concluded not to do so, however, and on a charge of larceny sent Ross to jail for twenty days, with the promise to attend to the charge of burglary at the expiration of that time.

As another evidence that Justice Frainey's release of Hall on the charge of burglary does not meet with endorsement, a new warrant has been taken out for Hall's arrest, and the officers are after him. It is doubtful whether he will stay about here to face it. If the child of innocence and the guileless young man which some try to make him out, he has nothing to fear from a full investigation of these facts, and in fact should demand them for his own sake. He probably won't be heard from, though.

A young girl named Williams was brought here last evening from Fremont, Neb., where, in a row with another girl of fact life, she received several stabs with a knife. Her injuries are very serious. The girl who did the cutting is from Omaha and was induced by this girl to go to Fremont with her several weeks ago. The row started in a fast house in Fremont, and the bandit told the girls to go in the yard and fight it out. In doing so the Williams girl received the wounds which may result in death.

The officers could learn something about their own trade by the prisoners in the jail. A short time ago a fellow was arrested, was searched at the police station and no money found on him, and was searched again by the jailer, but no money found. After getting inside the other prisoners went through him, and it did not take them five minutes to ascertain that he had $40 hidden in his stocking. Some of them are used to going through men, and they know about where men hide their money.

The prisoners in the jail while reading THE BEE, the other day, came across the revelation of Dorsey's previous record, and, of course, read it aloud for his benefit. He was completely taken aback, not thinking that anyone here knew of his dark deeds. He denied that he was the man, but the prisoners insisted on his showing up the place where he was shot in a saloon row, and he had to do it. The scar confirmed THE BEE's report, and Dorsey was obliged to own up.

The tottering walls of Bishop's opera house, which was recently burned out in Red Oak, gave way on Wednesday evening of last week, under the influence of a strong wind, and fell over on Heller's dry goods store, crushing it in, and burying beneath it six persons, all of whom escaped with their lives, but with severe injuries. Heller has begun suit against Bishop for $10,000 damages. Neglect in removing the walls amounts to criminal carelessness on the part of the latter.—Macedonia Tribune.

PERSONAL

W. F. Sapp, Jr., and his mother arrived home Saturday.

A. P. Cramer was in the city Saturday, and met friends on every hand.

Jay C. Cole has gone to Jacksonville, Ill., to complete his business course.

R. W. Wood, of Kansas City, arrived in the city Saturday, on a brief visit to his brother.

F. Gosse, the happy Plattsmouth hotel man, was shaking hands with friends here Saturday.

Sheriff Guitler has gone to St. Louis after his family, who have been visiting friends and relatives there.

Engineer Frank Falkenburg, of the C. & N. W., rejoices now on the arrival of a nine pound heir, a boy, too.

Mr. Davis, the enthusiastic insurance man at Missouri Valley, was among Saturday's most welcome callers at THE BEE office.

Albert Hensheimer, Otto F. Willner, H. Baxter, and M. F. Shaw, of Glenwood, were taking in Council Bluffs yesterday and were among the guests at the Ogden.

Despised

By the unthinking, Burdock has been considered a weed, and its luxuriant growth, unpleasant smell, etc., has rendered it, to those "not knowing its virtues," a nuisance, and yet the root has long been acknowledged by savants as most invaluable as a diuretic, aperient and blood purifier. BUREDOCK BLOOD BITTERS embody all its good qualities. Price 21.

AGAIN DOWNED.

The Union Pacifices Suffer Another Defeat at the Hands of the Council Bluffs Nine.

There was much interest felt in Saturday afternoon's game between the Union Pacifices and Council Bluffs, it being the closing game of the season for the Bluffs, and there being a feeling prevalent that the contesting clubs were so closely matched that an exciting game would result from their meeting. There were but seven innings played, the lateness of the hour preventing the finish. The game stood 12 to 4 in favor of the home nine, making the seventeenth victory for them this season, with only two defeats to offset the glory. In making such a victorious record for the season, the Council Bluffs nine has met some of the strongest and best clubs in the country and have shown such skill in playing that the citizens are justified in feeling proud of the club and its record.

THE REPUBLICAN RECORD

Senator Allison Reviews It Calmly and Clearly. But Has Little to Say in Anderson's Favor.

In accordance with the announcement made United States Senator Wm. B. Allison, of Dubuque, addressed the people here Saturday evening at Dohany's hall.

The juvenile band by its music gathered a crowd in front of the Pacific house, and by moving along up Broadway, making frequent stops to gather more recruits, succeeded in drawing a company of the youthful and the curious, which added to those who wanted to hear Senator Allison, made a large enough audience to fill the central part of the house, and to scatter a few in the gallery.

He, W. H. Sapp introduced in a happy manner the notable speaker, and for short two hours the speaker addressed the gathering. His speech consisted of a clear, dispassionate review of the record of the republican party, and by comparison pointing out wherein the democratic party had erred.

He closed this review by trying all voters to stand by this party, which had done so well by the nation in the past.

There was little new or startling in the speech, it being able, summarizing and rehashing of the strong points in the record of the republican party. There was no attempt at any funny business, no campaign stories or mere chicken feed. Dignified, cautious and matter-of-fact, with no dash or special local application, it proved to most of the audience rather uninteresting, and there was little of the applause and enthusiasm which is supposed to mark a campaign speech.

Senator Allison very wisely refrained from saying much about Mr. Anderson. He gave him credit for having been a soldier, and the only appeal to voters to support him was that the republican party should be supported.

About the only enthusiastic feature of the evening was caused by the indisposition of the chairman, who had been ill and broken of his rest to be present at all, but he sat there, alone and lonesome enough, until tired nature could not resist its sweet restorer, balmly sleep, any longer and with folded arms, head leaned back and eyes close, he slept the sleep of the innocent. Along toward the latter part of his speech, Senator Allison took occasion to refer to him in reference some facts in the civil service reform, and turning partly about remarked, "as will be vouched for by my worthy friend here—who, by the way, seems to be asleep." The crowd caught it and there was such cheering and laughter as to arouse the tired chairman, whose blinking face and bewildered look only heightened the merriment. The incident served to rouse up the sleepy auditors also, and for the rest of the evening Senator Allison kept their attention somewhat better.

The apathy felt by republicans was well shown Saturday evening. Many feeling ashamed of having such a man as Anderson as the alleged standard bearer, would not even go to hear so well known a man as Senator Allison, and there seemed no heart, no enthusiasm, in making any sort of an attempt to get up a republican meeting.

The Knights To-Night.

It is desired that every Knight of Pythias in the city shall be at Castle hall at 7 o'clock this evening, and that every one having a uniform, or even a part of a uniform, shall bring it. This is in accordance with the action of the committee, which met yesterday, and the meeting is a most important one, as it is necessary to complete arrangements for the grand lodge. It has been decided to have as many of the knights in this city as possible appear in the parade next Thursday, mounted and uniformed, and it is estimated that at least one hundred will do so. These things, from abroad indicate that there will be fully one thousand uniformed knights in the parade. Omaha promises one hundred and fifty, Davenport sent word to prepare for two hundred and fifty from there. Missouri Valley, Glenwood and other places will be represented proportionately. In order that all these visiting knights may be rightly received and cared for, it is necessary that the resident knights and their friends should bestir themselves actively, and in their doings all public spirited citizens will gladly assist in every possible way, that Council Bluffs may maintain its reputation for hospitality and enterprise.

Virtue Acknowledged

Mrs. E. Mulholland, Albany, N. Y., writes: "For several years I have suffered from indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, and complaints peculiar to my sex. Since using your BUREDOCK BLOOD BITTERS I am entirely relieved." Price 21.

Republican Township Convention

The republicans of Kane township will meet in mass convention at the court house in Council Bluffs, on Tuesday evening, October 24, 1892, at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination one candidate for township clerk, one candidate for township trustee, three candidates for justice of the peace, and three candidates for constable, to be voted for at the ensuing election.

By order of the republican township central committee.

CHAS. M. HALL, Chairman.

AT IT AGAIN.

The Prisoner Points Caught Trying to Saw His Way Out of Jail.

As many will remember, a few weeks ago a desperate attempt at jail breaking was made here, but only one escaped, a young man named Ed Points, who was up for burglary. After a few days' hunt he was recaptured. Of late he has acted suspiciously, and jailer Schantz has been on the watch, thinking that he was up to some devilry. Saturday afternoon he caught him at work with a saw, trying to cut a hole by which to crawl out to liberty. A close examination of the cell showed that he had been at work for some time on an old spot, through which, several years ago, seven or eight prisoners escaped. This spot had been patched up by riveting a piece of cast iron in. Points had been at work at these rivets, trying to cut off the heads, but, some of them being steel, had given up the task and turned his attention to one corner of the cell, where he was at work when caught. The saw was such as is commonly used for such purposes, it being a little strip of steel, which had been set in a wooden handle.

Brotherly Condolence

Resolutions adopted by Fidelity Council No. 156, Royal Arcanum:

WHEREAS, Divine Providence has seen fit to call from the home of our beloved brother, J. H. Arthur, his little son Harry; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of this council in regular session assembled, extend to our brother and his family in their affliction, our heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to our brother and also published in the daily papers of the city.

F. H. ORCUTT, HENRY DALE, JAS. PATTERSON, Committee.

POLITICAL POINTS.

A GREY BEAN MACEDONIA.

The Tribune of Macedonia, a republican paper which has thus far kept silent on the congressional contest, not even hoisting a ticket, now comes out in a lengthy editorial sarcastically claiming that Anderson should be elected for the following reasons:

First—Because he served in the war.

Second—Because he gave the notorious postoffice bond.

Third—Because he got a divorce and now amies on other ladies.

Fourth—Because he used to get boozily drunk, but had reformed.

Fifth—Because he induced a woman to sell him her property, leaving her child out in the cold.

Sixth—Because he drew his pay twice in the army.

Seventh—Because he invited Pusey to discuss with him, and the latter refused.

Eighth—Because he has no barrel.

Ninth—Because there are a number of leading republicans who oppose him.

Such is the summary of the doubtful editorial, which opens under the caption of "Reasons why Anderson should not be elected," and closes with urging that "the gallant major" be given not less than 2,000 majority. The editor is apparently tired of sitting on the fence, and is now trying to walk it, without falling off.

WHAT A REPUBLICAN SAYS.

A recent issue of Glenwood, who has been a staunch republican, and who never before voted the democratic ticket, in a private letter to a friend in this city, under the date of the 20th inst., "Pusey's cause" is marching bravely on. There is one township in this county where there is not one Anderson vote. Many republicans who have never voted anything but the straight ticket are wavering, and by November next will probably vote, according to the dictates of their own consciences, and conscience very seldom dictates in favor of Anderson. The fact is the republicans are beginning to tremble for Mills county, and are sending word down south of their big guns to hold the ground."

CHASE'S CHANGE.

It is announced with a hurrah from the Anderson claqueurs that a man named Chase, who has been editing a democratic paper in Cass county, has concluded not to support Pusey any longer. He claims that he has just learned that Pusey is the railroad candidate, and Anderson is an anti-railroad man. In the letter by which he seeks to gain some notoriety, he fails to specify a single detail of the wonderful facts he has just discovered, and he discloses a significant fact that he has "severed his connection with the paper which he has been editing." He does not say that he has never voted anything but the straight ticket, but it may be that his severance was compulsory, and that in revenge he tries to put the paper in the hole. The Nonpareil intimates that Anderson's railway pool barrel is the cause of Chase's flop, for it heads its editorials on the subject "The Bar! Campaign Begun," "Easy Deceit."

THE RAILROADS AND ANDERSON.

"We are prepared to state that the outgoing trains on both the Rock Island and Burlington roads will be held at Carson until the close of the meeting, for the accommodation of all who attend from all points along either line."—Nonpareil.

Ans! The trains will be held for the accommodation of the public will they? Are railroads in the habit of holding their trains to accommodate the people? Never. Will these trains be held to accommodate the people or Anderson, who speaks there? Anderson, by a large majority. Why? Because while he has ostentatiously been the servant of the people as a railroad commissioner, he really has been the tool of the railroads, and they must pay him. Are railroads generally generous? Well, they don't stop over with gratitude, but if this man Anderson was of use to them as railroad commissioner he can be of still greater service to them as congressman.—Walnut News.

A BALD CONSCIENCE.

Men who give thousand dollar bonds that they will abstain from positions in return for a vote in the nominating convention, and who become legatees of weak-minded old ladies whom they have had in their clutches as attorneys for several years, thereby depriving the children of their rightful inheritance, must be possessed of very bald consciences indeed.—Glenwood Journal.
