LAIRD'S PROMISES

We admit that James Laird is a talented young man. That is the kind of a man the railroad companies always make use of in politics. Mr. Laird is also a very plausible young man. In his campaign he has three strings to his bow.

CLOSE UP THE RANKS.

The voters of Nebraska have entered upon the last two weeks of the most memorable campaign in the history of the state. For the first time since Nebraska became a member of the Union the independent spirit has shown itself in the ranks of her voters.

for active service, Mackenzie. It is believed that the president is inclined to reward the old officers, and if so both Hunt and Getty will be promoted and retired, and Mackenzie be the brigadier within nine months.

THE DOUGLAS COUNTY CAMPAIGN.

Douglas county is entitled to ten members of the legislature, and one float senator between Douglas and Sarpy. We are told that a contract has been entered into by five candidates for the United States senate to divide the delegation among themselves, each taking two members.

THE CAMPAIGN.

We are authorized to announce Senator Van Wyck to address the citizens of the Third district on the issues of the hour at the following named places:

Norfolk, Tuesday, October 24.

Hon. M. K. Turner will speak with Senator Van Wyck at each of his appointments.

MASS MEETING.

There will be a grand mass meeting of the republicans and anti-monopolists of Colfax county at the court house in Schuyler Saturday afternoon and evening, Oct. 28, at 1 and 7:30 p. m.

COME OUT AND HEAR THE TRUTH.

The following distinguished speakers will be in attendance, viz:

Hon. John Rosicky, editor of the Bohemian paper of Omaha; Hon. E. Rosewater, editor of THE OMAHA BEE; Hon. M. K. Turner, the farmers' candidate for congress, and Capt. J. H. Stickle, the greatest farmer orator of the west.

Capt. J. H. Stickle will speak in the afternoon.

Come out, farmers, and hear the truth from one of your own class.

J. P. SPRECHER, Member of Anti-Monopoly Congressional Central Committee.

Capt. J. H. Stickle will also speak at Albion, Boone county, Monday afternoon, October 30th, at 1 o'clock; at Genoa, Nance county, Monday evening, October 30th, at 7:30; and at Grand Island, Tuesday, October 30th, at 7:30 p. m.

LEANDER GREENLAND, Chairman Congressional Central Committee.

"FRAUD in the sale and approval of horses" is Val's most applauded army record.

THE BOSSSES will be snowed under in New York by a majority of anywhere from 50,000 to 100,000 for Cleveland for governor.

THOSE men who are trying to sow seeds of discussion in their ranks are no friends of the workmen. The strength of the masses lies in union.

EVEN Colorado is kicking against the bosses. Boss Chaffee has succeeded in nominating his candidate for governor, but the republican press of the state is almost unanimous in its opposition to him.

VAL is now boasting of his beer drinking capacity to catch Garman votes. He has been converted from temperance since his vote for prohibition in congress.

WITH a democratic congress in the near future, John G. Carlisle, of Kentucky, raises his head above the troubled seas of politics to chip in a word for the speakership.

MAN are known by the company they keep. When Edward Walsh goes to the railroad organs to prove that he is not playing stool pigeon for the monopolies who want to split up the Workmen in the present campaign, he only proves that the shoe fits him.

WE know it was bound to come. And now they are starting a crusade against tobacco. A bill has been introduced into the Vermont legislature making it a crime punishable with a $10 fine to offer a person under fifteen years of age a cigar or a cigarette. "There is no rest for the wicked."

PRESIDENT ARTHUR ought to act on the little side of Messrs. Merrick, Bliss and Kar, counsel for the government in the star route cases, which asks that ex-Senator Spencer be removed from the office of government director of the Union Pacific railroad. His retention of the position is a dis credit to the administration.

THE wild cries that democratic control of congress will bring disaster on the nation is mere clap-trap. It generally brings disaster on the democratic party at the next presidential election, but that is after all the chief harm is done. In the decade from 1875 to 1880 the democrats had control of the house for six years, and the prospect is that they will have it for the next two years, making eight years of the ten. The country can stand a good many democratic congresses, and it will have to if the republican bosses refuse to take a gentle hint and step down and out.

NUMEROUS INQUIRIES REACH THE EDITOR OF THE BEE FOR INFORMATION RESPECTING THE SURVEY AND APPRAISAL OF LANDS IN THE OTTO RESERVATION, UNDER THE APPROPRIATION OF $5,000 MADE AT THE LAST SESSION OF CONGRESS.

The first step towards placing these lands in the market has just been taken by Secretary Teller, who has appointed D. W. Wickens, of Kansas, and Geo. H. Regadale, of Iowa, with a commissioner to be selected by the Indians, to appraise the lands, exclusive of such portion as has heretofore been ceded by the Indians as right of way to railroads. The law provides that no portion of the lands shall be sold at less than the appraised value, and in no case less than $2.50 an acre. After the appraisal the secretary of the interior is authorized to offer the lands for sale through the public land office at Beatrice, Neb., in tracts not exceeding 160 acres, for cash, to actual settlers or persons who shall make oath that they intend to occupy the land, and who shall within three months from the date of application make a permanent settlement upon the same; but with the consent of the Indians the secretary can accept deferred payments as follows: one-quarter in cash payable at the end of three months from date of application; one-quarter in one year, one-quarter in two years and one-quarter in three years from date of sale, with interest at five per cent. It is understood that the appraisal will be made immediately, after which the lands will at once be placed in the market.

THE announcement that Miss Elizabeth Poppleton is to lecture before our citizens at Boyd's Opera House should be sufficient to attract a large audience on Wednesday evening. Miss Poppleton has chosen for her subject the play of Julius Caesar with illustrative readings from the drama. To many who last winter were members of Miss Poppleton's class in English literature the lecture will not be new, but it will be doubly interesting on this account, recalling the pleasure with which it was first heard in the little lecture room on Dodge street. Miss Poppleton, both as a student whose crystallized thoughts are given with exquisite grace of style and delightful finish of diction, and as an accomplished dramatic reader is very far above the

THE STRENGTH OF ANTI-MONOPOLY SENTIMENT IN THIS STATE IS BEST SHOWN BY THE FRANTIC ENDEAVORS OF THE CORPORATION CANDIDATES TO TRIM THEIR SAILS TO CATCH THE BREEZE OF PUBLIC OPINION.

Their efforts will fail if every anti-monopolist who desires to redeem Nebraska from corporation control, works and votes only for the candidates whose nomination was secured by the popular voice, and whose election will be in accordance with the people's will.

A WASHINGTON special announces that the question of filling the vacancies in the army caused by the retirement of the senior major general is practically settled in favor of General John Pope. One reason given for his preference is that he is the oldest in point of years. If he is ever to be promoted it must be done now. This is his last chance to rise in the service. He is sixty-two years old and in two years more will retire under the compulsory act. Terry, on the other hand, is but fifty-six years of age and if given the vacancy would keep all the older men out for life. If he should not receive the nomination now he will still be eligible after Pope has been placed on the retired list. It may therefore be safely predicted that Pope is the coming major general. The question of who shall be the brigadier is not so easily solved. Two courses have been urged upon the president; one is, to promote the old colonels who have been looking forward to the honor for many years, and by long service have won the title to consideration, and will soon be retired any way. The other is to appoint an active man at once who will go to the frontier to take the place of brigadier general de facto. If the former policy should be adopted then Colonel Hunt will be appointed to be retired at once, and then Colonel Getty, who would retire in two months, after which the real active brigadier would be appointed. If the policy of taking an active man for the place as once should be decided upon, Colonel Mackenzie would undoubtedly be the man, as he is regarded the ablest officer of all the colonels, although Colonel Hatch has been urged for the place. The prospect is then that if the plan of promotion for retirement is adopted, the new brigadier will be Hunt, and if

THE NEW YORK COURT OF APPEALS HAS DECIDED THAT PROPERTY OWNERS HAVE CERTAIN RIGHTS WHICH CONSTITUTE BOTH AN EASEMENT AND PRIVATE PROPERTY IN THE BED OF THE STREET OF WHICH THEY CANNOT BE DEPRIVED WITHOUT DUE COMPENSATION.

The case was that of Rufus Story against the New York Elevated Railroad Company, and the decision makes the company liable for damages to the property of adjoining owners. This is the first decision of a court which has established a property right in the street, in abutting owners as against elevated railroads.

OREGON'S NEW SENATOR. KANSAS CITY Journal. J. N. Dulp, the new United States senator elect from Oregon, is a resident of Portland, and is vice president and consulting attorney of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company. He stands high as a lawyer, and is about 60 years of age. He succeeds Lafayette Grover, democrat, whose term expires on the 4th of March next. In Mr. Dulp's election the republican score a gain, which, however, will be offset by a new democratic senator from Louisiana to succeed Hon. Pitt Kellogg.

A NEW RED BOOK.

C. K. Lord, the well-known and popular general passenger agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, has just issued a special edition of his "Red Book" for the state of Pennsylvania. It contains the official returns of the last two state elections, as well as the last two congressional elections and those of the presidential elections of 1876 and 1880. The vote of the three parties is shown with majorities, gains and losses each year, and also the aggregate vote of each county with losses or gains. Under the head of "Remarks," in the congressional tables, are to be observed much interesting detail particularly appropos just at this time. The same may be said of the special column in the state table showing the vote for the independent candidate for state treasurer in 1881. It is an invaluable publication for the citizens of Pennsylvania and is of general interest even to the people of the whole country. Copies of the little book can be had without cost by addressing C. K. Lord, general passenger agent B. & O. railroad, Baltimore.

AN OPEN LETTER.

The Rev. Hobbs to Madame Nyemmann. HUMBOLDT, Neb., Oct. 23--I enclose copy of an open letter to Madame Clara Nyemmann, lecturer on woman suffrage, reviewing her lecture in my church the 20th--the same delivered in Omaha and elsewhere. The soft impeachment is on every tongue that the management sent her out to capture German votes. If so, we have had enough of that kind of machine work already in politics. If of sufficient current interest insert in Bee, for honey--not a sting.

DEAR MADAME--I could scarcely repress the audible reflection that you should know your way in Nebraska--not in New York--as I listened to your lecture last night. "Oh, here we do not think man has 'liberty' of which prohibition deprives 'him.'" "The brute" of whom you spoke began in those "liberties," or rather, those "liberties" made him a brute. One, this very week, tried to kill his wife, who, when using these "liberties" is a good and loving husband. Women in Nebraska are not religious because of "prohibition," nor do they desire to be in Heaven because they cannot vote in Nebraska. Eliminate rationalism and run for your lecture and I endorse it. Most Respectfully, etc. Pastor M. E. Church.
