The coroner's inquest yesterday. The inquest on the remains of the man who was killed by a B. & M. road engine Tuesday night took place at 9 o'clock yesterday, the following jury being impaneled by the coroner: General C. H. Frederick, foreman; Daniel Sullivan, Logan Stewart, Daniel P. Angell, E. A. McClure and Henry Sierst. It was ascertained by translation of the letters found on the person of deceased that he was Gustav Frederick Rapp, and the address on a slip of paper found in his memorandum book, "Christ Rapp, Wright's Grove, Chicago."

The two boys who saw the affair testified that they were not over thirty feet away from him. He was walking toward the Tenth street depot and the engine was pushing the cars in the same direction. They halted at him twice, but he paid no attention to the warning, and was run down and instantly killed.

The jury found a verdict of accidental death and exonerated the railway employes from all blame. The baggage-master of the U. P. is trying to trace up the baggage called for by the check No. 1,201, which is not now at any baggage room in this city and which will probably throw some light on the unfortunate man's identity. Coroner Jacobs has telegraphed to the Chicago address, and in the absence of any instructions will hold the funeral to-day.

A prairie fire on Wood river last week destroyed for a distance of thirty miles of hay; Perry Woods, thirty tons, and Tibbits, forty tons. Six miles of the valley was burned over. We are informed that the fire got away from parties at James' sheep ranch on Elm creek, who were attempting to burn a fire guard while the wind was blowing very strong--Piam Creek Pioneer.

Quite a sensation was created at Table Rock on the 19th, by the arrival of G. S. Merritt, an attorney from Fairbury, and Deputy Sheriff Gould, of Jefferson county, who were accompanied by two Denver boys, charged with running off mortgaged property. To save trouble the boys set fire to the matter. Their mother, however, was not satisfied with the proceedings of the attorney and deputy for illegally arresting her sons, claiming they had no warrant. The two pleaded guilty and paid fines in order to get away on the evening train. The Denver boys thereupon reimbursed them, and the affair ended happily.
