THE CAMPAIGN.

The following appointment of speakers for the Third district are announced:

- Senator Van Wyck. Schuyler, October 28, 7:30 p. m. Columbus, October 30, 7:30 p. m. Albion, October 31, 2:00 p. m. Capt. J. H. Stickle. Schuyler, October 28, 2:00 p. m. Madison, October 30, 2:00 p. m. Albion, October 31, 2:00 p. m.

The Schuyler Meeting. In addition to Senator Van Wyck and Capt. Stickle, the following named gentlemen will address the people.

Hon. John Rosicky, editor of the Bohemian paper of Omaha; Hon. E. Rosewater, editor of THE OMAHA BEE; Hon. M. K. Turner, the farmers' candidate for congress, and Capt. J. H. Stickle, the greatest farmer orator of the west.

Capt. J. H. Stickle will also speak at Albion, Boone county, Monday afternoon, October 30th, at 1 o'clock; at Genoa, Nance county, Monday evening, October 30th, at 7:20; and at Grand Island Tuesday, October 30th, at 7:30 p. m. LEANDER GERHARD, Chairman Congressional Central Committee.

EVERY voter in Omaha should make it his special business to register before election.

VAL is playing to empty benches in his district. The only thing that is full about his houses appears to be several of the speakers.

We have heard Mason's beltings against Van Wyck. General Van Wyck's forthright remarks on Judge Mason will be full of pith and interest.

Less than two weeks remain before the election. Hard work--not wind--will carry the day. Every voter has some influence over another voter. Let it be exercised on behalf of the peoples' candidates and success is certain.

CADET WHITTAKER has finally written a letter advising colored voters to abandon the radicals to whom he says they owe nothing and to join their true friends the democrats. It is about time that Whittaker's ears were cropped again.

REV. DR. HENRY MARTINE SCUDDER, the Brooklyn pastor who has tendered his resignation with a view of accepting a call to the Plymouth Congregational church of Chicago, in a letter to his congregation says: "I feel unable to endure the pressure of my work here. The strain is too great; the burden is too heavy. I have longed and prayed for relief, and now that it has come I ought not to decline it." Mr. Scudder neglected to state that the relief came in the shape of a $2,000 increase in salary.

A WASHINGTON dispatch announces that Sam Randall is very busy engaged in laying his wires for election as speaker of the next house. His scheme is to raise money from the rich democrats of his acquaintance in Pennsylvania and New York and under the alleged direction of the democratic national committee expend it in close districts. It is asserted that he has raised $100,000 this year to be expended in close congressional districts and hopes to secure a strong nucleus of votes from grateful congressmen around which to gather such western and southern men as can be induced to abandon their preferred candidates.

GENERAL CROOK is the best Indian general in the army. Arizona is once more quiet. The San Carlos agency has been inspected and ventilated the agent dismissed and the discontent among the tribes quelled without the expenditure of a dram of powder or an ounce of lead. The general has traveled into every section of the territory, visited every agency, held conferences with the different Indian tribes and listened to a recital of their grievances. He was the first to discover the frauds at San Carlos and to insist upon the dismissal of the agent, thereby checking what promised to be an outbreak. At the same time the outlawry among the cow boys has ceased, and the territory is reported as being in a more orderly condition than it has been since General Crook's departure from it five years ago.

REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT.

The people are demanding representative government. That government is not representative where political barnacles voice the wishes of faction, or vote only in accordance with the dictation of corporate monopoly. Representative government is what the outraged republicans of Pennsylvania are fighting to secure, and which they will accomplish even if the heroic treatment of the defeat of republican bosses is necessary to secure that end. The revolting republicans of New York are contending for the same principle, and will bury Judge Folger under 75,000 majority, to show that republicans cannot be tricked out of a voice in party management and then whipped into line to register the decrees of the tricksters at the polls. And Nebraskans are making a sturdy fight for the same principle against the combined forces of arrogant party leaders and the political managers of still more arrogant corporations. It looks as if the time had come when the question of the future existence of the republican party as a vitalizing influence in American politics is to be put to the test by its own members. The moment the usefulness of the party is destroyed, the sooner it dies the better for all concerned. The grip of the bosses, the barnacles and the corporations must be shaken from off its throat, even if the party gets a little black in the face during the operation. If the treatment is not successful the patient will die an unnatural death. And "Throttled by the bosses" will be the motto inscribed on its tombstone.

GRANITE FOR PAVING.

The eastern trunk lines have advanced their rates on paving stone from the seaboard to Chicago, and this leads the Tribune to remark that the west is now furnishing as good a quality of granite for paving purposes as can be secured from the Massachusetts quarries.

Granite is preferred for paving over all other stone blocks because it is the hardest. It is composed of quartz, mica and feldspar, but other minerals such as hornblende and talc frequently enter into its composition. The smaller the proportion of feldspar and mica, as a general thing, the denser and more durable the material. Granite is the hardest of all known stones used for building purposes, and resists the crushing test is from 2,300 to 13,400 pounds a square inch, and its weight about 166 pounds to the square foot, or two tons to the square yard. For paving purposes it possesses this advantage over trap rock, that it does not wear into a smooth and slippery surface and unlike sandstone does not easily chip or flake when exposed to the action of water.

The specimens of Sioux Falls granite shown to the board of public works are of a reddish color, which is due to presence of iron. The stone is dense and contains a smaller proportion of mica and feldspar than that from the Quincy quarries. It has every characteristic of an excellent paving stone. If Omaha can be paved with granite as cheaply as now seems probable, no other material ought to be accepted for the business portion of the city. It makes little difference where the granite comes from if up to the standard, or whether it is furnished by Stout or Mack. The cheaper the better. But no other stone can bear a moment's comparison with granite for paving purposes.

The attorney general has issued an iron clad list of instructions to United States marshals in the south for use at the coming congressional elections. They are informed that in some of the districts, laws passed to protect the elective franchise have been grossly violated by fraud and force, and that practices so dangerous to the existence of popular government cannot be tolerated. This is good as far it goes. The right to a free ballot ought to be maintained. The ballot box should be protected in South Carolina. It should receive equal protection in Nebraska. The United States marshals need not confine their attention to the South. As disgraceful election frauds have been committed in our own state by the political managers of corporate monopoly as were ever recorded in Alabama or Mississippi under the bulldozers whip or the ex-slaveholder's shot gun. It makes no difference what form the fraud takes. So long as it seeks to defeat the will of the people it is of little consequence whether it is perpetrated by voting strikers or dead men's names, packing the precincts with voters from other parts of the country and gentle hints of a "lay off" in case the wrong ticket is voted, or whether it takes the form of tissue ballots and bolder intimidation at the mouth of a navy revolver or a shot gun.

Let the United States marshals look nearer home, where newspapers who parade their republicanism and denounce in thunder tones the frauds in the south are supporting the policy of organizations which have for years made our elections in various parts of the state a mockery and a free ballot an unknown quantity in the hands of their employees. We caution the railroad attorneys to stack their cards with care in the coming congressional contests. If detected in their schemes upon the ballot, which have often been successful in state contests, the arm of the national government is long enough to reach them as well as the unregenerate southern bulldozers.

OUR laws require that registrars shall at least a month before election give notice to the public of the time and place at which they will sit for the purpose of registering voters. They also require that the lists of voters thus registered shall be published in order that they may be inspected and corrected to prevent fraudulent voting. As usual, the law is being disregarded in Omaha, and the same rascality is being perpetrated which occurs before every election in this city. Registrars wait until the last possible moment before publishing their notices and the lists are given to the papers a few hours before the election. This is in plain violation of the statute, and defeats the intention which is to afford a scrutiny of the lists in order that attempted frauds may be detected in order to prevent their perpetration.

But what can be expected from a governor, who has disregarded every protest that has been made from year to year. The present registrars are worse as a class than ever. Some are notoriously incompetent and others notoriously dishonest. There is a radical change needed in the appointment of these officials, who brazenly defy the protests of our citizens and perform their duties to suit themselves and not the public.

The Republican reproves the Lincoln Journal for condensing to notice the charge that E. K. Valentine was dishonorably discharged from the army and commends a "policy of silence." This reminds us of the story of the Arkansas gentleman who approached a well known politician and said, "General, I suppose you saw that article in the Blue Wing this morning, in which the editor calls you a liar and a thief?"

"Yes, I saw the outrage." "What are you going to do about it? Answer it, I suppose?" "No, I shall treat the fellow with the contempt he deserves. A man who would willingly assail character is below the notice of a dog." "But your constituents will, of course, expect to see you defend yourself. They do not believe the charges, but they do not wish to see you rest quietly under such abuse." "I think the best plan is to keep clear of such contemptible men and not notice their vile utterances." "Why do you think so?" "Because that scoundrel has got the proof against me." "Well, if that's the case I wouldn't notice him." The trouble with Valentine is that THE BEE has the proof against him.

The next house of representatives will be composed of 325 members. A majority will be 163. In the last house the democrats had 136. They will therefore have to gain 26 congressmen to secure a majority. The party leaders are already claiming 182 votes counting a gain of 9 in Ohio, 5 in Pennsylvania, 5 in New York, 2 in Indiana, 3 in Illinois and 2 in California. These added to the democrats in the present house make 163, to which are added 16, one-half of the increase of the membership of the next house over the present, making in all 179. Small gains are counted on in other states to make the number 182. This is counting the chickens before they are hatched, but that there will be a democratic majority in the next house few are foolhardy enough to deny. Such a majority and the lesson which republicans are teaching to the bosses who are riding the party to death may possibly result in the election of a republican president two years hence.

EX SENATOR PADDOCK is not confident that the Edmunds commission will result in accomplishing any immediate results in changing the political complexion in Utah. "The worst feature about Mormonism," said the senator, "is woman suffrage. Abolish that and the Gentiles would soon vote them, as you see the vote would then be much nearer equal than now."

REVIVALIST PENN prayed fervently for the death of two Texas ruffians who disturbed his camp-meeting, and as one died next day, the followers of Penn believe that the prayer was answered. If the story is true, this is an instance where the Penn was mightier than the sword.

MONEY end men are being poured into the Third district by the railroads. But money can't buy honest voters, and it will take something more than special pleaders and $100 speeches to convince the producers that Valentine is fit to represent any constituency in the next congress.

INDIANA grew nearly 47,000,000 bushels of wheat this year. Next to manufacturing and importing democratic voters, wheat growing appears to be the great bonanza of Indiana.

SPECIAL ORDER NO. 220.

Keep It Before the People of the Third District.

Valentine's Discharge from the Army for Swindling.

The Evidence of His Guilt Taken from Government Records.

In the last issue of the Columbus Journal, a paper published by Hon. M. K. Turner, there appeared a charge that a gentleman residing in Columbus had in his possession a scrap book containing the following extract:

DISHONORABLY DISCHARGED. The war department has ordered that the following named officers be dishonorably mustered out of the service for fraudulent practices against the United States. Among the names appearing, twenty-two in number, is that of First Lieutenant and Adjutant E. K. Valentine.

Now, Mr. Valentine in his speech at Fremont on Thursday, denounced this extract as an infamous slander, and most emphatically denied that there was any foundation whatever for the charge. The Omaha Republican, the organ of the Union Pacific and the mouthpiece of Mr. Valentine, has issued a defiant challenge to any man or journal to produce the proof that Valentine's army record had the slightest spot upon it. They also published a letter from Captain Cramer who, as Captain of company C, Seventh Iowa cavalry, vouches for Valentine's fidelity and integrity while in the service.

Now, we have in our possession an official transcript from the records of the War Department, which effectively nails Mr. Valentine as an impostor who is trying to cover a matter of record that should forever retire him to private life.

SPECIAL ORDER NO. 220. WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, May 11, 1866.

By direction of the president the following named officers are hereby dishonorably mustered out of the service of the United States for fraudulent practices in connection with the appraisal and sale of horses, the property of the United States:

- Brevet Brigadier General H. H. Heath, Colonel Seventh Iowa Cavalry. Major J. B. David, Seventh Iowa Cavalry. Captain E. B. Murphy, Seventh Iowa Cavalry. First Lieutenant E. K. VALENTINE, Adjutant Seventh Iowa Cavalry. Second Lieutenant Thos. J. Potter, Seventh Iowa Cavalry. Lieutenant G. P. Balden, Seventh Iowa Cavalry. Lieutenant I. S. Brewer, Seventh Iowa Cavalry. Lieutenant W. H. Northrup, Seventh Iowa Cavalry. Lieutenants Ormsby and Loweroy, Seventh Iowa Cavalry. By order of the Secretary of War. E. D. TOWNSEND, Assistant Adjutant General.

The facts in the case are that E. K. Valentine, with others, was implicated in frauds upon the government in the appraisal and sale of horses. The Seventh Iowa cavalry were doing service on the plains against the Indians, and also guarding the surveyors and construction corps of the Union Pacific. The adjutant of the regiment was in collusion with the speculators who were buying and selling army horses. The conspiracy was discovered by the secret service department of the government, and the result was special order 220, issued by order of E. M. Stanton, secretary of war.

When the regiment was about to be mustered out three months later, five of the officers implicated in the fraud including Valentine, were whitewashed and the chief mustering officer was authorized by Special Order No. 322 to furnish them with an "honorable" discharge. The officer chiefly instrumental in saving Valentine from perpetual disgrace was Major Geo. M. O'Brien, of this city, who was later brevetted brigadier general. Yet accredited to Captain H. W. Cramer, dealer in railway supplies, Valentine had as fine a military record as any man in the regiment, and the captain, with his wonderful memory, tells us that Valentine was mustered out with his regiment at Fort Leavenworth, Kas., in 1866. The war department records show that Valentine was mustered out at Davenport, Iowa, August 10th, 1866, several months before the regiment was disbanded.

This is the truth of history, which, within itself, stamps Valentine as utterly unfit to be the representative of any respectable class of citizens, least of all of the gallant soldiers whose name he disgraced.

The moralist says, "Every man is occasionally what he ought to be perpetually." Some men are perpetually what they ought to be occasionally. That's what has been the matter with Valentine.

Anti-Monopoly is Anti-Slavery. Anti-Monopoly is Anti-Slavery--the protection, education and elevation of the weak, scattered and defenseless many against the aggressions of the powerful, organized and unscrupulous few. The slavery is not the less real, the aggression not the less dangerous because it is upon the civil liberties of the people, and perpetrated under the form of popular government. If an aristocracy of wealth can make the masses tributary through a system of crimped legislatures and courts, it practically enslaves them.--Justice.

A GREAT SOCIALISTIC SCHEME. PARIS, October 26.--An interview has occurred between the British ambassador and M. Duclerc. It is reported in official circles that there is a growing understanding regarding the settlement of the Egyptian question. The minister of justice has applied to the court of cassation for a transfer of trial of the Egyptian rioters at Moncaux to a tribunal at Paris on the ground that the government has discovered the existence of a vast Socialistic Revolutionary association, dividing France into a local federation, of which Moncaux is one, under direction of the Geneva committee. This being the case it would necessarily impede justice and prevent the facts being elicited if the trials were conducted in the section where the treasonable agitation has so strong a foothold.

SYMPATHY FOR ARABI. A mixed legion composed of Albanian and Egyptian troops will oppose the Sudan rebellion. The prefecture of the police has obtained 400 depositions, the greater part of which are from European residents, sustaining the accusation of Arabi Pasha that Touba was alone responsible for the burning, pillage and massacring last summer. This fact increases the English and European sympathy for the chief rebel which has been steadily on the increase since his capture was effected.

A fire broke out in the foreign office yesterday afternoon, but the damage was small, causing only temporary inconvenience and alarm.

Owing to the increase in revenue from import duties the hope is entertained that the government will suspend the levy of the fourth degree of the income tax. This is particularly desirable as that tax if removed would relieve a host of classes and greatly increase their comfort. General Von Moltke on the occasion of his 82d birthday, which occurs tomorrow, Friday, will receive the congratulations of the Emperor and of the principal officers of the government.

GERMAN POLITICS. BERLIN, October 26.--The foundation stone of the new Reichstag building will be laid with imposing ceremonies on the Emperor's birthday the 22nd of next March. Herr Scholz, minister of finance, has arrived from Varzin. It is reported he bears instructions which will conclusively prove that Prince Bismarck adheres to his former scheme of economic reform. A conference of farmers and peasant proprietors of Hanover have united in an expression of full concurrence in Bismarck's fiscal schemes.

SPLENDID FELLOWS. CAIRO, October 26.--The whole of Egypt south of Khartoum is in possession of false prophets. ANARCHIST CONSPIRACY. PARIS, October 26.--Le Paris has published details of the Anarchist's conspiracy. At the same convention a proposition was

At 5:23 Rowell retired to his tent and all sorts of rumors concerning his condition were in circulation. At seven it was generally known he had given up the race, and at eight Hamilton Busby, according to instructions, had his name stricken from the dial, and the ex-champion quitted the race with a score of 384 miles, 23 laps. NEW YORK, October 27.--1 a. m.--Score: Fitzgerald, 431; Noramac, 422; Hughes, 420; Hart, 408; Herty, 402; Vint, 384. Rowell's stop is due to irregular action of the heart. He was found after withdrawal lying on his cot with his feet propped up. He was anxious to continue the race, expressing confidence in his ability to win, but his trainers and backers recognizing the seriousness of the case refused to allow him to do so. When Hazel retired his score was 414 miles and 1 lap. His knees had given out. Hazel and Rowell slept in a tent all night and will be taken away in the morning. Tiffany, formerly Indian agent in Arizona, was arrested this afternoon charged with conspiracy to defraud the government of upwards of $6,000, and embezzlement and perjury. There are five indictments. Tiffany gave bail in $5,000 for examination. Tiffany says he resigned his position last July and has been engaged in the steel business in this city since April last. He said he had heard of the indictments but did not think they would ever be pressed, as it would not do for him to "tell some things he knows."
