The Schuyler Meeting. In addition to Senator Van Wyck and Capt. Stickle, the following named gentlemen will address the people.

Hon. John Rosicky, editor of the Bohemian paper of Omaha; Hon. E. Rosewater, editor of THE OMAHA BEE; Hon. M. K. Turner, the farmers' candidate for congress, and Capt. J. H. Stickle, the greatest farmer orator of the west.

Capt J. H. Stickle will also speak at Albion, Boone county, Monday afternoon, October 30th, at 1 o'clock; at Genoa, Nance county, Monday evening, October 30th, at 7:20, and at Grand Island Tuesday, October 30th, at 7:30 p. m.

LEANDER GERRARD, Chairman Congressional Central Committee. INDIVIDUAL work more than speeches are needed to make votes at this stage of the campaign.

EVERY vote cast for an anti-monopoly member of the legislature is a vote cast for an anti-monopoly United States senator.

HERBERT SPENCER complains that he cannot obtain sleep in this country. Mr. Spencer has evidently never read the Lincoln Journal.

HASCALL is playing his old game in the Second ward in refusing to publish the time and place when he will comply with the law by sitting as a registrar of election.

THE long agony in the army is ended, and General John Pope and Colonel MacKenzie have secured the coveted major and brigadier generalships.

OTHER LANES THAN OMAHA. Parliament opened on Tuesday. Mr. Gladstone, as predicted during the recess, began the session with a ministry greatly strengthened in the confidence of the country.

A NIGGER IN THE WOOD PILE. Mr. Barker, of the board of public works, is taking a very suspicious interest in the postponement of the acceptance of bids for paving Tenth street with granite.

bringing the stone to Omaha, and pronounces himself satisfied. But Mr. Barker objects. He thinks that the property owners may yet decide in favor of Colorado sandstone or limestone.

ley which is certainly ripe for discussion. Mr. Gladstone has never shared his predecessor's fondness for mystery in diplomacy.

The appointment of a commission to examine into the tyrannical conviction of Gray, the Irish editor, is an act of justice for which Mr. Gladstone deserves full credit.

The Irish national conference has accomplished good for no other reason than that it indicated that there were no radical differences between the leaders of the Irish party.

The corporation managers have made a raid upon the Germans by buying and subsidizing every German paper in this state.

The results of the German elections are a surprise to the liberals. In Berlin the progressive majorities were heavy, but the other municipalities rallied to the support of the conservatives.

Uneasy his head that wears the crown. King Milan of Serbia on Monday was twice fired at in the cathedral at Belgrade by a woman, the widow of Colonel Markovitch.

England is in gala day array to-day over Sir Garnet Wolseley's arrival from Egypt at the head of his victorious army.

Elections will be held in Italy on the 29th inst., and a three-cornered contest between the monarchists, the radicals and the clericals is in progress.

That President Arthur should be thoroughly alarmed at the apparent certainty of the defeat of his own particular candidate for governor of New York is not at all strange.

Des Moines, October 27.—The World says: According to the report of the Denver & Rio Grande railway company in Moore's Manual for 1882.

It appears, in the light of the above fact, that the bondholders, if they wish to know how they stand, have only one recourse, and that is to ask the United States court to compel the officers of the company to give an accounting and issue an injunction.

ment of a new collector in New York, and in every way a frantic effort is to be put forth all along the line to save the machine from utter annihilation in New York state.

The difference between a Russian and an American is that the former lacks the inventive faculty. But if he cannot always suggest, the Russian is an excellent copyist.

Though Switzerland is often called the model country of Europe—though by certain historians popular government is said to have its highest development—though the hardy Swiss mountaineers are some of the best stock in Europe—yet it is literally true that hundreds and thousands of them do not know the name of the president of the confederation.

The charge that the Parnellites misappropriated half a million dollars of the land league fund is probably a malicious invention of the enemy.

The Mobeammedan revival seems to be more than a sentiment in upper Egypt. The report comes from Cairo that the false prophet of Soudan has defeated the Egyptian generals in seven pitched battles.

There have been some tremendous inundations in Italy this autumn, and subscriptions for the sufferers are being taken up all over Europe.
