MINOR MENTIONS

J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall. Visitors always welcome at Maurier & Craig.

Cow now find good pasturage in Baylis park. There were no services in the Presbyterian church yesterday.

Col. Van, of Avoca, has bet $200 on 1,600 majority for P. U. New lot nicely decorated 56 pieces, of tea set, only $5 at Maurier & Craig.

A fine new team arrived Saturday for the United States Express company. Only about two weeks before the Catholic fair commences at Dohany's Opera house.

Attend the Jumbo meeting at the Presbyterian church to-morrow evening, October 31.

Hand-painted china, art pottery, solid silverware, bronzes, etc., at Maurier & Craig.

The new meat market of Shull & Mullen, 799 South Main street, guarantee best of meats and prompt attention.

A fine assortment of Boots and Shoes, sufficient to supply the demands of all, at George Bixler's, 106 Main street.

Cheap Railroad tickets to all points, Bushnell, five dollars north of postoffice, sells them. Entrance, Main or Pearl streets.

"Hap-y Jack" was arrested by Officer Quirk Saturday night for being drunk and kicking up a row at Belle Glover's house.

"I will now close, as there are now several of the distinguished gentlemen present who wish to talk." Major Anderson's speech at Missouri Valley.

Quite a gang of men are at work widening and improving the road on the eastern approach to the Union Pacific bridge.

There will be a terrible strain on button holes and consciences this week, as the political contests are waxing warmer.

Joseph Reiter makes the Finest Suits in the latest styles, at the lowest possible prices. His merchant tailoring establishment is at 310 Upper Broadway, Council Bluffs.

Now is the time to get good fresh roasted and green coffee cheap for cash, as I am closing out and will for the next ten days sell at cost. SETH F. HASKINS, 305 Broadway.

The sheriff of Henry county was here Saturday and took back with him the young man arrested here on telegraphic order, and wanted there on a charge of horse stealing.

The Maennerchor society are making extensive preparations for their concert and flag presentation at Dohany's next Thursday evening.

Joseph Ross, the upper Broadway cooper, desires to purchase 50,000 hwp poles. He also wishes to employ ten extra coopers. Write to or inquire at his cooper shop.

The delivery team of Martin Casey, the meat market man, took a lively dash on Fourth avenue Saturday afternoon, smashing the wagon bodily. One of the horses was hurt somewhat.

To-morrow evening is the time set, and Bennett's new block is the place fixed upon, for the great Jumbo social to be given by the Presbyterians. A novel and pleasing entertainment is promised.

Conductor Swivel, of the Rock Island road, is credited with having bounced three confidence men from his train as it was coming into Council Bluffs. If they had been captured, and put through a course of sprouts, it would have been still better.

Glenn's orchestra came down from Council Bluffs last evening and registered at the Commercial hotel. This fine musical organization has become deservedly popular in Glenwood, as it deserves to be on the score of merit. The orchestra furnished the music at the hop last night. Glenwood Journal.

There is at Bell & Hall's show window a curiosity, which ought to have appeared at the pumpkin social. It is a Siamese twin pumpkin, there being two distinct pumpkin grows from one stem, and snugly grown together. A. S. Bonham raised the curiosity on his farm.

M. F. Rohrer and Samuel Rohrer, of this city, have lately been saddened by the death of their uncle, Daniel F. Rohrer, at Carlisle, Pa. He was 50 years of age, and several years had held the position of principal of the high school in that place.

The wire used for fencing off the parks in Baylis park, having fallen into disuse, lay tangled along the walks, tearing dresses, and tripping the unwary. This would be bad enough, but some mischievous boys stretch the wires across the walk purposely tripping those who have occasion to go through at night. Officer Tyson and family got thrown thus Saturday night.

C. S. Clark, the republican candidate for town clerk, is making a good run, and is well built for it, and ought to run well. Clark has plenty of friends here in both parties, and they will doubtless stand by him nobly, and gratify the ambition of the energetic news gatherer by raising him to this position of honor. By all means the "Right Reverend" should be given the place.

An insane man named Lafayette Hammel, from Carson township, was Saturday night taken to the asylum. He is a farm hand, and created quite a sensation in the neighborhood by keeping his employer's cows on the run all night, for the purpose, as he declared, of giving them an appetite for breakfast in the morning. At times he is not so funny a mood, however, and is then deemed dangerous.

This evening at Dohany's Hou. John A. Kasson will address the people, to be followed by Major Anderson. Congressman Kasson is one of Iowa's best known men, and he will doubtless deliver an address which will be full of interest and worthy of a large hearing. Major Anderson, too, will be listened to with much interest. He needs to be heard from, and many who have no confidence in the man will be interested in hearing what sort of an ingenious excuse he can make for claiming the suffrages of honest people. The meeting will draw a crowd from curiosity, if for no other reason.

If Anderson is so sure of receiving an overwhelming majority, why is it so necessary to secure the assistance of both the senators and governor to help him get elected in a district which has several thousand republican majority? Why are the republican orators living in the district silent?

Mrs. Bassett, who has resided here for the past fifteen years, died at her home Friday night last, of dropsy. Several weeks ago, while at Mr. J. H. Delany's residence, she broke one of her lower limbs by slipping and falling, and has since then been confined to the home. It is supposed that the dropical trouble had affected the lower limb, so as to be largely the cause of the accident, and the disease setting in after that with more violence than ever, death ensued. She leaves a husband, three daughters and two sons.

Land Seekers Excursion. Thursday morning, November 9th, the Sioux City & Pacific R. R. will run a cheap land seekers excursion from Council Bluffs, and from Missouri Valley to all their principal land points in the Elkhorh Valley and beyond. The excursion train will leave Council Bluffs at 7:45 a. m., and Missouri Valley at 8:35 a. m., making a day-light run through the beautiful Elkhorh Valley, and reaching Long Pine, 250 miles west of the Missouri river, the same day. Excursion tickets will be on sale at Council Bluffs and Missouri Valley November 8th and on the morning of November 9th. They are good to return on any train within 40 days, and entitle the purchaser to stop off at pleasure west of Norfolk. We have only space to quote the excursion rates from Council Bluffs to a few of the most important land points, which are: Norfolk and return, $6.00; Croighton and return, $7.80; Neligh and return, $7.50; Stuart and return, $10.00; and Long Pine and return, $11.00. The round trip rates from Missouri Valley will be about $1.00 less than from Council Bluffs. The recent opening of the Sioux City & Pacific R. R. to Fort Niobrara, Neb., has placed within reach of the home seeker millions of acres of free government land, now open for settlement on the "Homestead" plan, and "Timber Culture" plans, while along their line in the Elkhorh Valley, which is without exception the "Garden Spot" of Nebraska and the west, are millions of acres of the best and cheapest farming lands that can be bought in any country. This cheap excursion will enable residents of western Iowa, who are interested in cheap farm lands, to see for themselves what is claimed to be the best country in the world to settle in.

BETTING HIS BOOTS. One Unfortunate Gambler Aways His Hat, Boots and Gumboes Dinner.

A well known frequenter of police headquarters, Ira Merriam, was picked up by Officer Barhyte Saturday night for being drunk. He had no hat, no boots, and his explanation of the absence of these useful articles is to the effect that while drinking Saturday night he fell in with Jim Snodderly and One-Legged Sullivan, and played them for the drinks. He lost, and put up his boots, and lost them. Then his hat went, and then the most which he had bought for his Sunday dinner. He says they slipped out of the Leadville saloon, where they were playing, and while he was hunting up and down the streets to find them, he was gathered in by the officer.

FOOTLIGHT FLASHES. Little Corinne Finds Herself in Bad Company—Coming Events.

There was a goodly sized audience drawn to Dohany's hall Saturday afternoon by the announcement of the appearance of Little Corinne and her "Merrie Makers." The reputation which Corinne has won in the past was an assurance that the entertainment would be one highly pleasing to those who attended, but there was a great disappointment. Little Corinne appeared worn-out, and the company supporting her proved a gathering of poor sicks? The entertainment was chiefly characterized by coarse buffoonery and cheap features of a variety show order. Many were completely disgusted, and some of the ladies present were so indignant that hissing sounded the only mode of duly expressing their feelings. Corinne has won a good name for herself, but by such entertainments as 'has given here, she will soon throw it away. She certainly should rally about her a better company. To-morrow evening Benj. Maginley in "A Square Man" is to appear at Dohany's.

Wednesday evening Frederick Wardo is to appear in "Damon and Pythias, which is to be presented by request of many Knights of Pythias of this city and vicinity.

Getting Revenge. A few days ago a man giving his name as Thomas Price made complaint against M. C. McSherry and William Cleland, charging them with stealing $35 from him at Gibson's boarding house. The two accused appeared in Justice Abbott's court, Saturday, and there being a lack of evidence to convict, they were discharged. Saturday evening McSherry met Price and proceeded to get revenge. It is said he used a rock to pound Price with, but whether he did or not he succeeded in using up the latter badly. Officers Tyson and Field arrested McSherry for assault and battery, and also for personating an officer, Price claiming that McSherry represented himself as such. The affair will be aired in detail in court to-day.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

A Lame Defense in the Miller Will Case—Other comments on the Campaign.

The Nonpareil yesterday devoted about two columns to an attempt to defend M. J. Anderson's connection with the Miller will case. The defense summed up is to the effect that the will was not forged, nor was it tampered with, but was honestly made by old Mrs. Miller out of gratitude to Major Anderson because he secured a divorce for her. Knowing that this did not meet the charge made at the trial, the defenders of Anderson spun out the explanation and mixed it up so that it might blind and mislead the readers into the belief that possibly the charge was refuted. The assertion has been made, and the court papers produced in full, and not yet contradicted, that old Mrs. Miller, is apparently so unsound in mind that her property had to be placed in the hands of a trustee, was given to him, and made four wills, under one of which Major Anderson claims her property and asks to prevent it going to her children. The receipt has already been produced, showing that Anderson was paid in full for his legal services $269. The records show that he did not procure even a divorce for her, but that the decision was in her favor in the lower court was reversed by the upper court, and she got no divorce at all. Yet Anderson received his $260, and having lost the case, claims that the old lady's gratitude entitles him to the property, which would otherwise go to the children. Admitting all that he and his friends claim in defense it is difficult to see how any one with the least sense of manhood could fight in the courts for property on which he has no claim beyond the alleged gratitude of an old woman of doubtful soundness of mind, for whom he had served unsuccessfully as attorney, and had yet been paid liberally. Why shall this be an excuse for Anderson to try to get the property away from the orphaned children?

ANOTHER SPEECH. We heard Anderson speak at Red Oak Monday night. He was not as abusive as usual, but his effort was very tame. He charged that Fussey is the railroad candidate and is nominated because he had a bar, which he said was being used. He proved nothing, however, which was probably an oversight on his part. In regard to himself, he said that the railroads opposed his nomination and are opposing his election. He did not mention the fact that the Rock Island and C. & Q. both held their trains for his speech at Carson, and the Q. at least, sent a special. He said nothing of the passes he has given (and we have proof) during the campaign. He said nothing of the Randolph postoffice bond or the Miller will case. He did not mention the Aldrich Pass bill or anything about the delegate he bought in the Stockton-Harvey contest. He also failed to state that he borrowed $300 alimony of a woman whose divorce he had caused, and is paying it in installments of $20 every six years. (He paid the second installment during the present campaign to avoid legal process.) In fact, the major wasn't feeling well, and he omitted many interesting points which he will have leisure to consider after Pussey's election.—Union-Arrow. (Rep.)

THE OFFICIAL DOCUMENT. The Walnut News, as do other papers, keeps standing the copy of the notorious postoffice bond given by Anderson, and in addition the papers in the case of wife beating, the record in regard to Anderson drawing the pay twice while in the army, the suit brought against him on that account by the government, and the judgment obtained, and winds up by an offer of $100 to any one who will prove that the records as given are not true. Here is a chance for Anderson.

WHY GO TO NEBRASKA? The henchmen of A. R. Anderson have gone to the trouble of sending all the way to Lincoln county, Neb., to get a certificate from one Donaldson to the effect that he did witness the execution of the will made by Martha Miller to A. R. Anderson, and that Dr. C. B. Bobyshell also witnessed the signing of the instrument. Why did they not save themselves much trouble by getting such a certificate from Dr. Bobyshell? He is right here in town. The men who sent away to Nebraska to obtain Donaldson's affidavit see and talk to Dr. Bobyshell every day of their lives. Why did they not take his affidavit? For the simple reason that Dr. Bobyshell denies ever having signed such a document. He testified in court that he did not sign it and knew nothing about it. He declares so to all who speak with him on the subject. That will be fraudulent and Donaldson knows it to be such, notwithstanding his affidavit.—Glenwood Journal.

TRUE REPUBLICANISM. Eli Clayton was down in Montgomery county this week working for Mr. Pussey's election. Whatever Clayton does he does boldly. When he made up his mind that no true republican could support the man who bought his nomination he plainly told the managers that they had departed from republican principles and he would not follow them.—Walnut News.

NEW YORK AND IOWA. In New York there are many true republicans who refuse to support Folger. They say he is a pure, good man, but they will not endorse the methods by which his friends nominated him.

IF THIS IS A SUFFICIENT REASON FOR NEW YORK REPUBLICANS, SHOULD IT BE SILENT THAT in a district where corrupt means were used to nominate a corrupt man, true republicans should protest.

PALPITATION OF THE HEART. J. M. Night, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "When I first commenced using your BEST BLOOD PURIFIER I was troubled with fluttering and palpitation of the heart. I felt weak and languid, with a numbness of the limbs, and, in fact, my heart has not troubled me since the running medicine is all gone." Price, $1.00.
