BOSTON, November 5.—A. M. Sullivan, M. P., referring to the latest news from Ireland, said: "I read that the Irish party voted with the government on the great trial of strength Thursday night on the cloture question. The reason for that was not cabled, but I happen to know it quite well. They voted against Stafford Northcote's amendment, which amendment proposed a two-thirds majority instead of a bare majority. This was an ingenious but very shabby artifice to establish cloture, which should never hit the tory party, and should crush the Irish party. Gladstone's cloture will hit the tories and home rulers alike. The tories are always one of having more than a third of the house, but the Irish party is not. Seeing all members from Ireland of all parties only number 102 out of 652, one therefore perceives that Northcote's cloture would crush the Irish and let the tories escape."

Speaking of the new programme announced at the recent conference in Dublin, Sullivan said he considered, as a matter of tactics, it would have been better to concentrate upon some one subject, but the conference must be accepted as speaking for the Irish people with authority, as no previous body can pretend to. He believed the coming land revolution in England would far outstrip in magnitude and tremendous consequences the Irish land movement of the present day.

THE RECIPROCITY TREATY WITH THE UNITED STATES IS AGAIN BEING DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS. It meets little favor. Reciprocity with any nation is unpopular as Mexico's revenue is derived principally from importation duties.

THE POPE'S LETTER. LONDON, November 5.—An encyclical letter of the pope was read in all Catholic churches of the city to-day, the occasion being the seventh centenary of St. Francis Assisi. The pope laments the dearth of Christian virtues in the nineteenth century, and says the greater part of men to-day are seeking to revel in luxury; being extravagant in their own goods, they are greedy after those of their neighbors. They extol the name of mankind by talk more frequently than they act. The votaries of rationalism encourage violence and sedition among the people, provoke agrarian disturbances, flatter the appetites of the lower classes and by those means and other serve to weaken the foundation of domestic life and public order instead of strengthening them by lives of probity and manhood. The letter recommends Franciscan institutions be more widely spread among the laity as a partial remedy against the rapidly spreading evil of socialism.

SPAIN MUST RELEASE THE REFUGEES. LONDON, November 4.—The Daily News says the Cuban refugee question raises the question of national honor. Gov. Hoyt, of Pennsylvania, Throws off the Shackles of Cameron.

And Joins the Mighty Throng Now Battling for Honor and Honesty.

Hoyt's Rejoinder. Special Dispatch to The Bee.

HARRISBURG, November 5.—Gov. Hoyt has made the following statement in reference to the charges against him made at the republican meeting last evening, that he had used the state's funds in connection with others for private speculative purposes; that to avoid disgrace he had appealed to Senator Cameron to come to his assistance, which the latter did. He says:

"I was never a member of any pool to engage in stock speculation. I desire to state emphatically, without qualification, I have never requested, in person or by agent, of Cameron any financial assistance, either for myself or anybody else; that he has never advanced one dollar to me in any transaction; that I never had any relation or connection in business with any party or combination or pool to whom he may have advanced money, directly or indirectly. So far in life I have not been compelled to draw on either the intellectual, moral, political or financial resources of the Commonwealth. This attack is part of their discipline and extermination to which I am to be subjected in common with a large number of citizens of the Commonwealth. We accept the situation."

In reply to the question as to whether he had received Colonel Quay's resignation as secretary of the Commonwealth, he said: "Mr. Quay's resignation had been received and accepted. I part with him with sincere regret. I have appointed as his successor Colonel Francis Jordan, of this city, who has accepted and will go on duty as secretary to-morrow. Quay's telegram was simply a tender of his resignation, and stated he would be here next week to settle."

TELEGRAPH NOTES. Special Dispatches to The Bee.

GENERAL. Gov. Alex. H. Stephens, of Georgia, was inaugurated Saturday. United States Superior Allen has warrants for the arrest of nearly 1,000 persons in Brooklyn believed to have fraudulently registered.

Sam Yaw, a Chinese, was murdered in Denver Saturday in front of a Chinese laundry on Fifteenth street by J. W. Walker, a ranchman. The killing was unprovoked.

Ex-Gov. Willard P. Hall, died at St. Joseph Friday of paralysis. He was governor of Missouri during the latter part of the rebellion, and served three terms in congress.

Another person has been killed by the Chicago cable cars, which has already a long list of victims. A boy named Robinson was knocked down by the car Saturday, and his head completely severed from his body.

Samuel Noyes and Mrs. Kate Lisle, of Eldora, Iowa, were arrested by Sheriff Wilcox, of Harlin county, in Keokuk, Saturday. They escaped from Eldora last Monday. Noyes is 51 years old. He left a wife confined to her bed and eight children.

Mrs. Lisle's husband is in Idaho. Noyes had $1,000 on his person and the woman nearly $400. They were taken back to Eldora.

A feud that is feared will lead to serious results has broken out at Setauket, Long Island, between the colored and Irish people. A few nights ago a white man was badly beaten by the negroes. In retaliation the white beat every colored man found on the streets. Several persons were badly injured. Negro dwellings were attacked and windows and doors broken. The negroes appeared armed with shotguns, and the assailants fled.

Henry L. Clapp, of the firm of Fairbanks & Co., New York, whose disappearance greatly alarmed friends, has called his safe arrival in Europe. He went to see a friend off by steamer, and concluded to accompany him down the bay and return by the pilot boat. He took the steamer while he was talking with his friend in the saloon and he was obliged to continue his voyage. He will return next week.

Six years ago an eccentric Spaniard was in Keokuk. He died in Spain last August. He had an only child, a girl twelve years old. It seems he wanted her raised a Protestant, and in his eccentricity named George Bland, a colored blacksmith of this city as her guardian. He made a contract with a priest in Spain for the carrying out of his will. The will provides that the priest is to receive $68,000 in case conditions of the will are fulfilled; otherwise not a cent. George Bland, the colored man of this city, is to have the same amount and guardianship of the child, who gets $30,000 and a large amount of diamonds and jewelry. The man is now on his way to Spain to look after the matter.

General Butler came near being drowned a few miles from Lawrence, Miss., Friday evening. He came up the river on the C. L. Nather. When four miles below that place the steamer struck a reef. It was indispensable that the general be at once rescued. General Butler, Major Green, Caleb Saunders and Captain Hogan entered a small boat. The swift current began to sink the boat under the counter of the steamer. The general tried to push clear the boat was partially swamped. The deck hands, after many efforts, succeeded in hauling the general aboard. The general received a thorough wetting and a lanced hat.

The Chicago Tribune announces that on January 1st, 1895, the management of the Illinois Central railway and Chicago, St. Louis & New Orleans road, the latter now a leased line of the Illinois Central, will be consolidated, and it is further reported W. K. Ackerman will retire from the presidency of the latter road, and take charge of the financial affairs of the consolidated roads, with headquarters in New York. Vice President James C. Clarke, now general superintendent, will be retained as president. Mr. Ackerman, president of the Illinois Central, stated to a reporter in reference to the report that he would resign the presidency, that the rumor is entirely without foundation. Mr. Ackerman then further said he had no intention doing this, nor had he been asked to do so by the board of directors. It is true the Chicago, St. Louis & New Orleans road is consolidated with the Illinois Central on January 1st, but the board of directors has as yet had no meeting to arrange a plan of reorganization.
