COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Monday Morning, Nov. 6.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 25 cents per week. By Mail, $1.00 per year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

M. G. GRIFFIN, Manager. H. W. TILTON, City Editor.

MINOR MENTIONS.

J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall.

Visitors always welcome at Maurer & Craig.

The city council is to meet in regular session this evening.

Now let nicely decorated, 50 pieces of tea sets, only $5 at Maurer & Craig.

Alderman J. P. Goulden had an extensive stock sale at his farm near Minden last week.

H. E. Seaman is arranging for a big opening of his establishment on November 6th and 7th.

Hand-painted china, art pottery, solid silverware, bronzes, &c., at Maurer & Craig.

Anderson distributes a great many passes for a man who is not a railway candidate.

Rev. Hugh Lamont, of Rockford, Ill., preached at the Presbyterian church yesterday.

It is better to own a government bond honestly than to give a postoffice bond dishonestly.

The new meat market of Shull & Mullen, 729 South Main street, guarantee best of meats and prompt attention.

A fine assortment of Boots and Shoes, sufficient to supply the demands of all, at George Blaxius's south Main street.

Cheap Railroad tickets to all points, Bushnell, five doors north of postoffice, sells them. Entrance, Main or Pearl streets.

Joseph Reiter makes the Finest Suits in the latest styles, at the lowest possible prices. His merchant tailoring establishment is at 310 Upper Broadway, Council Bluffs.

That wonderful Anderson boom has collapsed into a pitiful whine for republicans to vote for him, not on account of any merit on his part, but for the sake of the republican party.

C. S. Clark, the republican nominee for town clerk, promises all sorts of reforms if elected. It is pretty well settled that he will be, so he had better not pile up too many promises. He don't need to.

It is to be hoped that republicans, in their eagerness to defeat Anderson, will not slaughter the rest of the ticket. The republicans have nominated some good men for the county and township offices, and they should not be forgotten.

The railroads are fighting Anderson. Oh yes! It looks so. They hold trains for his meetings; they run specials for him, and even back up a train twelve miles to get him when he was late. Oh, how they hate him! but they forget to do any such acts for Pusey.

Judge Paige, of Council Bluffs, New York and Chicago, has quit the dissemination of science in disgust, because "the people are yet too religiously superstitious, particularly in the east, to receive the teachings of science. Too bad, ain't it?"

Little Mac.

Greeneweg & Schoentgen, wholesale grocers, of this city, last week levelled upon the stock of Thomas Meierstein, a merchant at Neola, claiming that he was disposing of his stock with intent to defraud his creditors. Meierstein denies this charge, and purposes to sue the firm for damages.

In a district largely republican, it must be mortifying to Anderson to have to his help the governor, both senators, and other republican orators, and then not have one of them say one word in his favor, or even mention his name, but confine their speeches to eloquent reviews of the past record of—not Anderson, but the republican party.

There are republicans who say that though Anderson is corrupt yet they will vote for him, simply because he is a republican. Such men ought to know that the surest way to send republicanism to a dishonored grave is for the members of the party to support corrupt men and corrupt methods. Let to-morrow's expression of honest republicans tell the world that no unclean hands can hold its standard.

Frank A. Ambury, a young man of excellent business qualifications, and for several years a resident of this city, has accepted a position in the office of the Chicago & Northwestern railway at Council Bluffs, Iowa. (Pearla Transcript. Mr. Ambury is a cousin of T. E. Cavins, and has already taken up his residence here, and will meet with a hearty welcome in business and social circles.

It has been suggested that the telephone folk would show a little commendable enterprise, and would find it profitable, to run lines out into the surrounding country, making connections with the smaller towns all about Council Bluffs. Such an arrangement would prove convenient to many, and it is believed that the telephone company would find it to their advantage financially, while it would also help Council Bluffs in all lines of business.

Frank Levine, the well known tobaccoist whose store on Broadway is a popular resort for the lovers of the weed, has lately been getting in a large and unusual fine stock of new goods, presenting a great variety of smokers' articles, pipes, cigar cases and holders, in fact everything useful in that line. He is fast getting the new goods in place, and will soon have one of the finest displays ever seen in this city.

There seems to be a misapprehension in the minds of many as to the election of justice of the peace. Many fancy that justice is running against some special other one, as though the township was divided into districts, each justice having a special territory assigned. The fact is that each justice elected will be elected for the entire township, and the three receiving the highest number of votes will be declared elected. The republicans have nominated H. H. Field, K. P. Sealey, E. J. Abbott. The democrats have nominated W. R. Vaughan, J. J. Franey and N. S. Schurz, and W. S. Biggs is an independent.

DASTARDLY DEVILTRY.

Details of the Attempts of Anderson's Men to Break Up an Opposition Paper.

The Bee on Saturday morning contained the startling announcement that the office of The Union-Arrow at Taber, which, though a republican paper, is opposing Anderson, had been sacked.

Those who have watched the methods used by some of the Anderson supporters in this campaign were ready believers, but some of Anderson's supporters tried to throw the charge off by saying it was a canard for political purposes. It proves to be a fact, as stated by THE BEE, that the office was thus attacked. As the paper is supporting the republican ticket excepting Anderson, and bitterly opposing him, the purpose of such an outrage was evidently to prevent its doing any more work against him until after the election. This scheme was in part frustrated, however, and The Union-Arrow has been able to give its own statement of the affair, from which we take some of the following details:

Friday, November 3, 1882. Between the hours of 9 p. m. last night and 6 a. m. this morning some person or persons entered the Union-Arrow office, and stole 500 copies of the Union-Arrow, dated November 2, 1882, of which were addressed and wrapped in a package for our Hancock subscribers, and the balance intended for our Taber list. We usually get these lists off first, but this week, having orders for large numbers in various parts of the district, we forwarded them first in order that they might reach their destination the last of this week. It has been quite generally known that we were sending a considerable number of our papers over the district for campaign purposes, and we have been equally well known that we were not supporting Major Anderson.

Our office was locked and is situated on the second floor. The south window was found raised in the morning, and the entrance is supposed to have been made through it. The culprits also "piled" several columns of types which were on our galley rack, and which in their ignorance they supposed was "copy" matter. The galley filled with type were thrown upon the floor and wrecked in such a manner as to make anybody but a religious editor-swear. The rascals, if discovered, will be put through to the extent of the law.

We ask our readers if they propose to vote for a man who conducts his campaign on the bulldozing principle. We have stood the slang, impudence and dirt of Anderson men for the honest and sincere course which we have pursued in this campaign, and now they show their true inwardness by breaking open our office, robbing us of our labor and our subscribers of their religious weekly. We have repeatedly offered them the free use of our columns to disprove our statements, but they know they are true and dare not deny them.

An Anderson Trick. The chief Anderson organ has been urging republicans to send an unit republican to congress, because his vote may be needed by the party in settling the next presidential contest, and throughout the district Anderson men have been trying to frighten honest, but uninformed republicans, by the idea that if a democrat is sent to congress it may be the means of electing a democratic president by one majority. They intimate, and some even assert openly that in case of the election being thrown into the house, each democratic vote will count as one. They know very well that this is not true. In such case the vote is by states, not by representatives, and instead of each representative having a vote, each state casts one vote.

Hence, like other Anderson tricks and manufactured bugs, there is nothing to this argument. There will be a large majority of Iowa's representatives who will be republicans, and if Pusey is elected he will have to yield to this republican majority, and in case of an election by the house Iowa cannot but cast its vote for a republican president. This attempt to scare republicans into supporting a corrupt man for the sake of party will avail nothing among those who will read the following from the constitution itself:

"The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted, the person having the greatest number of votes for president, if such number shall be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers, not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as president, the house of representatives shall choose immediately by ballot, the president. But in choosing the president, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice."

Freezing-Out Policy. The Council Bluffs Advance has reached No. 9 and is a very handsome paper, elevated and pure of tone, strongly republican, and yet not partisan—never descending to anything like low personal scurrility in politics or anything else. It is a credit to the Bluff City and it strikes us as a little strange that The Nonpareil has never mentioned it. The field of journalism is open and free, and the freezing-out policy of The Nonpareil is generally considered silly as well as mean. (Clarinda Star.)

The above furnishes the text upon which the editor of The Advance preaches to John Chapman a sermon which must make his ears tingle. The Advance takes the sensible position that the journalistic field is open to all and the law of survival of the fittest will ultimately determine the right of possession. The Advance is not the only enterprise which John

Chapman has tried to freeze out, but he generally succeeds about like the fellow who tried to freeze a cat to death at night by standing out doors, and in a thin night-dress, and holding the cat in a snow bank, waiting for it to freeze. John Chapman, in the journalistic field, is not very well clad himself to attempt any freezing out.

The Elkhorn Valley, Neb. Nearly every day parties return from the Elkhorn Valley county, either bringing with them astonishing specimens of vegetables and other productions of the soil, or still more wonderful stories of the remarkable productions of that region. Emigration is rapidly settling the Elkhorn Valley and extending into the western government lands located in the western portion of this valley and beyond, and it will only be a question of very short time when the rare chances for investing in cheap lands, or of obtaining "good" free lands from the government will have passed.

The cheap land section excursion over the Sioux City and Pacific railroad Nov. 7th, will enable all interested to see what this county is and select lands. Excursion rates are low.

Not Booming for Anderson. The Neola Reporter, with all its republicanism, in its parting words before election, has not a word to say in Anderson's favor, but after publishing both democratic and republican tickets, it says: "It is a duty that every man owes to himself and his country that he cast his vote for the candidate who he thinks will best serve the people." The Reporter thus climbs on the fence and waits for the result, evidently not disgusted with Anderson to say a word in his favor, and yet too much afraid of the party whip to express its honest opinion.

Another Independent. I hereby announce myself an independent candidate for constable. Oct. 31-31 Wm. M. McFadden.

PERSONAL. Hon. Alex Gill, of Madison, Wis., was at the Ogden yesterday. McGrew, of The Herald, across the river, was here yesterday, greeting his old friends.

The Neola Reporter has a kindly word for Miss Sadie Caffal, of this city, who is teaching what is known as the Barsley school near there. Major Anderson, Hon. Smith McPherson and others joined with John Chapman yesterday in the usual Sunday consultation over the prospects of Anderson's defeat.

B. S. Hodges and Ben M. Quorum, representing Dowling's "Nobody's Claim" company, were in the city Saturday arranging for the appearance of the troupe here on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. H. H. Glover, and Maggie Field, of Grand Island, Neb., has arrived here on a visit to her father, Chief of Police H. H. Field, and her brother-in-law, T. E. Cavins, and the other relatives. She will remain here about a month.

Dr. O. W. Archibald, the superintendent of the Iowa institution for the feeble minded, has been appointed to a position in the medical service of the army, and will be assigned as post surgeon at a point in Montana, where he can have a paying practice outside of his official duties. This will greatly please the doctor's many friends in Iowa. It is a good appointment, too, as Dr. Archibald is well qualified, by education and experience, to perform the duties of such a position. His services in the state institution in Iowa proved him to be a man of fine executive capacity and a physician of undoubted merit.—Des Moines Register.

What gives a healthy appetite, an increased digestion, strength to the muscles, and tone to the nerves? Brown's Iron Bitters.

LET OFF LIGHTLY. Two Young Men Who May Well be Thankful That They Escaped Both Buists and Jail.

Theodore and William Brown, two brothers, were brought before Judge Aylesworth on Saturday for disturbing the peace and, on pleading guilty, were fined $10 each. They may congratulate themselves at having gotten off so easily instead of being sent across the state.

It appears that while crazy drunk they visited the house of Mr. Estes, a neighbor, with whom they had had some trouble, and they sought satisfaction by smashing windows and committing other depredations. Officer Brooks, on learning of the trouble, went with an express wagon and assisted to capture the Browns. He had a hard chase after them and fired twice at them and it was only after running them about a mile that he captured them.

Mr. Estes did not press the prosecution and hence the Brown boys got out of the scrape with a light penalty. The lesson should prove a warning to them, as next time they may not escape so easily.

To Persons About to Marry. "To persons about to marry," Douglas Jerrold's saying was "don't," we supplement by advising, without laying in a supply of Springs Blossom, which cure albuminuria and other kidney and bladder complaints. Price 10 cents; trial bottles 10 cents.
