Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. M. G. GRIFFIN, Manager. H. W. TILTON, City Editor.

MINOR MENTIONS.

Let republicans to-day put purity above party. J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall. Visitors always welcome at Maurer & Craig.

Edward Ross was booked yesterday for fast driving. Vote to-day without fear of bossism, and place purity above party.

Somebody's darling will be buried politically to-day. New lot nicely decorated, 50 pieces, for 25c, only $5 at Maurer & Craig.

H. E. Seaman is arranging for a big opening of his establishment on November 6th and 7th. A. H. Mayne & Co. are embarking in the coal and feed business in connection with their coal business.

The city has been making some improvements on Bancroft and on lower Main streets, but there is need of still more. Hand-painted china, art pottery, solid silverware, bronzes, etc., at Maurer & Craig.

The new meat market of Shull & Mullen, 799 South Main street, guarantee best of meats and prompt attention. What has Anderson done as railway commissioner to protect the people or their interests?

Those who really love the republican party will to-day, by their votes, help in putting that party on record, as against "boss" rule, and as against unit candidates. A fine assortment of Boots and Shoes, sufficient to supply the demands of all, at George Blaxin's south Main street.

Cheap Railroad tickets to all points, Bushnell, five doors north of postoffice, sells them. Entrance, Main or Pearl streets. Marshal Jackson says that he is now to pay special attention to the enforcing of the ordinance restraining cattle from running at large at night.

The wire-pullers will have little to do after to-day, at least for awhile. They ought to be set at work pulling out those wires in the park which tear so many dresses and cause so many stumbles to the feet of the unwary.

Miss Blanche Brown, the young lady who came so near ending her life by an overdose of chloroform, as narrated in yesterday's Bee, has now recovered, and bids fair to have many years of life yet. Joseph Reller makes the finest Suits in the latest styles, at the lowest possible prices.

ships as far west as San Francisco, and as far east as New York. He ships to St. Louis, Philadelphia and other cities. Conrad Geise does not apparently apprehend much change on account of the prohibitory amendment. He has just finished a big cooler, with a capacity for cooling 125 to 150 barrels of beer daily.

They who were present at the rehearsal of the operetta of Little Red Riding Hood's Rescue, by the children who are to play it at the coming fair at Do-hany's, speak of it in the highest praise. The Elkhorn valley land excursion from Omaha and Council Bluffs starts Thursday next, November 9th, not on the 7th as previously stated.

The Bavarian band hired by the Chapman-Anderson outfit held a meeting here last evening and concluded to serenade the next congressman on their own hook. After playing for the small crowd at Bee Hive hall, they played several fine selections at the residence of W. H. M. Pusey.

Theodore Hessel was in the police court yesterday charged with assaulting two Scott boys. Hessel keeps a fruit stand and confectionery place on Broadway, and has been much bothered by boys stealing fruit, calling him names, etc. There was a crowd Friday night last hanging about in front of the place, and Hessel chasing them away struck one or two of them with his cane. He was fined a nominal sum, one dollar and costs, and threatens an appeal.

TO-DAY'S DUTY.

Every voter has to-day a duty to perform. There are many who see their way clear to that duty. There are others, especially among the republicans, to whom it seems not so easy. Some of those have voted the republican ticket for years, and who have been and still are earnest supporters of the principles of the party.

Upon them has been forced a nominee, whose methods and whose character cannot be endorsed by them, and yet the bosses who forced his nomination declare that if these republicans do not support Anderson they will be ostracized, the door of the party will be slammed in their faces and they can hereafter expect no political favors.

The bosses threaten to "spot" every republican who votes against Anderson, and kill him politically. They yell "holters" and "kickers" most forcibly, but none but the cowardly ones will be influenced by any such bossism. A man who thinks so little of his own manhood as to be thus cowed, is indeed to be pitied.

The "bosses" may threaten all they please. Anderson and John Chapman may foam at the mouth and crack the whip, but they can't bite. It is interesting to note how men are working who are interested in the sale of property to Uncle Sam for his new building.

Some of them have apparently secured promissas at least from Anderson. Have they made him give a $1,000 bond, too? J. Fred Myers, the editor of The Nonpareil, when running a paper of his own declared the charges against Anderson to be true, and with others refused to support him, even going so far as to withdraw from the convention. Now he urges Anderson's election because he is "a republican."

Why have prominent railway officials come into this district to work for Anderson and spend money for him? Is it because he is an anti-railway candidate, and in favor of controlling corporations? Hardly. To-day all sorts of influences will be brought to bear to force republicans to vote for Anderson. Beware of anybody that will attempt to get you to violate your own sense of manhood.

Let republicans show to the world to-day that they are not the party to elect a man to congress, who, from the time of his drawing his pay twice as a soldier, until now when he is fighting in the courts to keep Mrs. Miller's property from going to her children instead of to him, who is no relative, through all the years, has a record worked by dark shadows of his own casting. Through the kindness of Judge Faig Tax is favored with one of Ewen Bros' cotton charts, showing by diagrams the production and consumption of cotton in this country, and the consumption in all other countries, also the fluctuations in the markets for years. It is a most complete and convenient showing of the cotton market.

Let those who love their party vote against having it used by tricksters and bosses. BOGUS TICKETS. Democrats, Look Closely to Your Tickets. The Anderson men have printed an immense number of bogus democratic tickets with Anderson's name substituted for that of Pusey. Look out for them.
