The Daily Bee. OMAHA. Tuesday Morning, Nov. 7. LOCAL BREVIETIES.

A very light train went west at noon yesterday. Max Meyer is surrounding his block with asphalt pavements. The city council will meet this evening. Harry Gray, for four years in the B. & M. telegraph office at Lincoln, has come to Omaha to take a place in the U. P. telegraph office. It should not be lost sight of that the time for opening the polls under the present law is 8 o'clock a. m., and for closing 6 o'clock p. m. Be sure and get your vote in early. Parke Godwin, the democratic nominee for district attorney, has been endorsed by the central committee of the workingmen's and farmers' movement, and will give Mr. Burnham a hard pull for a second term. Otto Gugler, while returning home Saturday night, slipped and fell over the new curbing at Sixteenth and Dodge streets, dislocating his shoulder. Dr. Layson set the fracture and the patient is doing nicely. Mr. W. J. Mout is a candidate for reelection as assessor of the Fourth ward, a position which he has filled for two terms with general satisfaction. No better man could be chosen for the office. All members of the P. H. & L. Co., No. 1, Mutual Relief association, are hereby respectfully requested to meet at P. H. L. hall this (Tuesday) evening, November 7, at 7:30 o'clock sharp. By order of the president, F. H. Koester, secretary. County Treasurer Rush yesterday made up his annual statement to November 1, to be sent to Lincoln, and it aggregated $21,438.58. This is only the balance after a remittance of about $25,000 made last May, so that Douglas county has paid into the state treasury during the year about $46,000. Mrs. Ellen F. Clark, a poor woman in destitute circumstances, arrived in this city a few days ago and is anxious to learn the whereabouts of her son, Henry Clark. She is at present being cared for in the family of Mr. Cassidy, No. 118 South Twelfth street, where any information may be communicated to her. The teachers of the Third ward school have complained of the conduct of the inmates of and visitors to the notorious old Bellevue house on Dodge street, and steps are being taken to abolish that nuisance, which ought to have been done four years ago at least. Mrs. O. P. Burris denies the charge which Mr. O. P. Burris recently made against her, and says that he has been keeping Low Banner (not Low Bernard) since the 15th of July, and had been providing for her since last May. She is from Shenandoah, Iowa, where Mr. Burris used to work. Albert W. Dodson, aged 19 years, died at 1 o'clock a. m. yesterday of typhoid fever at his residence on Ninth street, between Clark and Grace streets. The time of the funeral is 2 p. m. today, to take place at Prospect Hill. The deceased was well known in this city, having worked on several of the newspapers of the city during the past few years. The proposed meeting called by Ed. Walsh for Sunday afternoon, at Jefferson Square, did not come off. A few stragglers gathered about the corners and viewed the vacant park at a distance, seeing naught but a few cows peacefully browsing on the grass. Then it began to sprinkle and the knots dispersed. The fact was people saw through the fraud and refused to be gulled. Walsh and his counselors stood around the marble yard shingling pebbles at the birds and didn't go to the square at all. Sunday was a quiet day in police circles and the judge had but a light Monday morning docket. The three soldiers who were arrested for creating a disturbance at the Academy of Music, Saturday night, were arraigned and the sergeant claimed that he had gone to the house to arrest a deserter and called the other soldier to his aid, when the police took them all in. The three men were held in bonds to await an investigation of the case. One man arrested as a suspicious character and believed to be the head of the gang of confidence men who have so long infested the city was given till noon to leave town, with the injunction that if found here after that time he would be sent up for sixty days. Three plain drunks were arrested and two settled their fins while the other case was continued.

THE COMING FRAY.

Activity Displayed for the Three-Ply Contest.

Schemes to Decoy the Workmen to Ruin.

The Three Tickets Given in Fall.

The excitement over the approaching election is running very high, all interest in this city and county centering on the legislature. The respective parties have engaged their workers, and the streets are full of men whose services are for sale for the coming fray. The farmers and workmen's movement has badly demoralized the ring candidates of both parties, but a desperate effort will be made to elect three or four of the men who will be most useful for the corporations. Money is already beginning to flow quite freely through the usual avenue into the hands of the ward burners, and the saloons are driving a good business. There is a scheme on foot to vote a large number of repeaters and non-residents. Hundreds of names are retained on the registers which should have been struck off. A combination has been formed between the railroad democrats and republicans to elect Dewey and Canfield to the senate, and Gray and Sussanbach for the house. Mr. Balch, one of the active workers for Joe Millard said Sunday to a prominent citizen, "We propose to pull our men through with money Tuesday." Mr. Balch doubtless knows what he is talking about, but if this scheme of wholesale bribery is attempted there will be several people who will be vigilant. There will be a vigilant eye kept on those who do this sort of business, and the first man that is caught will be sent up. A confident of Frank Walters, who is also way down in the ring secrets, declared yesterday, "You'll hear something drop among the workmen tomorrow. We expect to gobble them in a way you have no idea of." Whether that can be done remains to be seen, however. There are no doubt several hundred vagrants and loafers who can be bought, but the intelligent mechanics and sober laboring men cannot be corralled by any set of decoys or ronegades. There is no doubt a design to get up some Roor-back about some of the candidates on the workmen's ticket but few people will be gulled by such humbug. The following are the respective tickets: Republican: For Elect Senator, R. DANIELL. For State Senators, C. H. DEWEY, W. J. CONNELL. For Representatives, FRED W. GRAY, HENRY BUESSENBACH, JOHN CHRISTOPHERSEN, L. M. BENNETT, FREDERICK BEHM, City. For Senator, W. J. BROATCH, JOSEPH H. TAYLOR, JOSEPH R. CLARKSON. For County Commissioner, P. J. QUALEY. Democratic: For County Commissioner, RICHARD O'KEEFE. For State Senators, CHAS. H. BROWN, GEORGE CANFIELD. For Representatives, H. G. CLARK, ALEX. MCGAVOCK, SAMUEL J. HOWELL, WM. CANNABY, PETER J. MURPHY, ROBT. C. JORDAN, WM. TURTLE, FRED. CRONEMEYER. For Elect Senator, JOHN A. McSHANE. For Senator, ANTI-MONOPOLY. For Elect Senator, JOHN A. McSHANE. Anti-Monopoly: For County Commissioner, RICHARD O'KEEFE. For Senator, J. S. McORMICK, CHARLES H. BROWN. For Representatives, ROBERT TWADDELL, of Union precinct. A. BUREN, of West Omaha. W. G. WHI-MORE, of Platte Valley. ALLAN ROOF, of McArdle. WILLIAM TURTLE, City. FREDERICK BEHM, City. E. R. OVERALL, City. JOHN HOEY, City.

TELEPHONE TOPICS.

The Fremont List—First Commercial Message Over the New Line. Messrs. Fearon and Cole receive the first telephone message from Fremont, Neb., at 4:40 p. m., Saturday, calling for two tons of the very best Celebrated "Queen Bee" Flour, which they shipped before 5 p. m. at the freight depot. The message came over the wires much clearer and more distinct than any they have ever had from Council Bluffs, every word being perfectly understood and the speaker though 47 miles distant did not appear to be 47 inches away judging from his voice. This probably was the first at least commercial, message received here on the new line. The following is a list of telephone subscribers subscribed at Fremont, which will be found valuable for reference: J. Dickson Avery, J. C. Blackman, Biles & Bridge, H. W. Bowen & Bro., W. C. Brady & Co., D. Crowell, E. M. Collins, C. Christensen, G. W. E. Dorsey, Merchants bank, William Field, Henry Fuhrman, H. Fuhrman, T. Frohm, Hopkins & Millard, Geo. Hammond & Son, O. D. Harner, Theo. Trade supplied at manufacturers prices by M. A. McKimura. Families supplied by A. H. Gladstone, Omaha, Neb. LOWER FARNHAM. The U. P. Headquarters to be Extended Early in June. There has been considerable talk of enlargement being made of the Union Pacific headquarters building and one time it went so far as to announce the plans for the same. It has at length been decided to go ahead with the work. The extension will be upon the east side fronting on Ninth street, and will be of the same height and architecture as the old building, which was first known as the Herndon house. The foundation will be dug and the stone cut this fall, and the building will be finished in the spring. The improvement is demanded by the increased force required to transact the business on the main line and the various branches which have been added during the past two years. It will be a great improvement for lower Farnham street. Three Husband of Mine. In three times the man he was before he began using "Wells' Health Renewer, $1. Druggists. The Elkhorn valley land extension from Omaha and Council Bluffs starts Thursday next, November 9th, not on the 7th as previously stated. T. G. Cowgill, of Pine Ridge, is at the Paxton.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

A Sparse Gathering at the Opera House Last Night.

The public meeting announced to be held last evening under the auspices of the democratic party in front of the Paxton hotel, was adjourned to Boyd's opera house on account of the cold weather. At the hour for opening the meeting there were between five and six hundred present, who were first regaled by some music from the Irish-American band. Mayor Boyd was chosen to preside over the meeting, and made a few remarks after the usual style of the bourbon orators. He was followed by Hon. George W. Doane, Judge Wakely, Judge J. F. McKinney, of Nebraska City, and by Mr. C. R. Redick, and while the orators all expressed great hope in regard to the coming election, it was evident that there was not so much confidence as there was eloquence. Hon. J. I. Redick, who was announced to speak, did not do so, on account of being at Falls City, and Judge Savage, also among the orators announced, was absent at Plattsmouth. It was not a very enthusiastic meeting.

CLEAR CONTEMPT.

The Sewer Contractors Tear Up the Street Railway on St. Mary's Avenue.

It will be remembered that a few days ago the district court judge issued an injunction against the contractors of the Seventeenth street sewer forbidding them to tear up the street railway track on St. Mary's avenue at the intersection with Seventeenth street. Yesterday morning the bridge constructed by the company was torn up and the line blocked for through travel. Superintendent Smith put in a temporary turntable and transferred passengers across the break. It is claimed that while the injunction was made good against the contractors, Messrs. McHugh & McGavock, it did not hold good against the street commissioner and that the order of the court was violated by that official under advice from the city attorney. It is a bad interruption to travel and some litigation is liable to be the result of this arbitrary move.
