

PLAIN TRUTHS

The blood is the foundation of life, it circulates through every part of the body, and unless it is pure and rich, good health is impossible.

Saved his Child.

17 N. East St., Baltimore, Md. Feb. 17, 1882. Gentl--Upon the recommendation of a friend I tried Brown's Iron Bitters as a tonic and restorative for my daughter.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS effectually cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Weakness, and renders the greatest relief and benefit to persons suffering from such wasting diseases as Consumption, Kidney Complaints, etc.

BALL'S Elastic Section Coiled Corsets. Every Corset is warranted satisfactory to the wearer in every way, or the money will be refunded by the person from whom it was bought.

It will be remembered that at the last session of the grand jury indictments were found against about a dozen persons for selling liquor without license, at the road houses and elsewhere within the two mile limit about the city.

A PURE AND Delicious Bever.

age. "THE CUP THAT CHEERS," "BUT NOT INEBRIATES."

OUR DINNER PARTY has finished the last bottle of "HUB PUNCH." "That, my dear, don't forget to remind me to order a fresh supply to-morrow."

Trade supplied at Manufacturer's prices by M. A. McNamara; families supplied by A. H. Gladstone, Omaha Neb

GRATEFUL-COMFORTING. EPPS'S COCOA.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operation of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills."

CONTEMPT OF THE LAW.

Mayor Boyd Called on to Explain the Action of Commissioner Ford.

The Sewer Contractors Discharged by Judge Neville.

The "Riot" Cases and Liquor Indictments Quashed.

Capture of Two Men for the Brown Highway Robbery.

A Conjugal Compromise Between the Ryans.

Saturday was rather an important and busy date in the district court, which did not adjourn until late in the afternoon.

The first case taken up was that of McHugh and McGavock, the sewer contractors, who came before the court on an order to appear and show cause why they should not be attached for contempt.

Gen. O'Brien appeared for the respondents and Hon. Geo. E. Pritchett for the other side. Several witnesses were called, including Mayor Boyd, President Creighton of the board of public works, City Attorney Howe, and Street Commissioner Ford.

On motion of District Attorney Burnham the indictments against the seven persons who participated in the labor riots in March last were stricken from the docket.

It will be remembered that at the last session of the grand jury indictments were found against about a dozen persons for selling liquor without license, at the road houses and elsewhere within the two mile limit about the city.

The first engine to be turned on the new roundhouse turn-table at Trucke, near Newry, was No. 156, Sam Reynolds, engineer, and No. 65, P. C. Young, engineer.

The store of Fall, Smith & Co., at Wilcox, was entered and robbed last Wednesday night, and the following night the store was discovered in flames, which were not extinguished until about $300 worth of damage had been done.

A water company, with a capital stock of $500,000, has been incorporated at Boise City.

Tons of flour are being stowed away daily at Wood River to await another panic and consequent rise.

A 1,400-pound grizzly bear was killed in the Wood River country recently. It is the largest on record in Idaho Territory.

Iron is being shipped from the east for the railroad bridge to the construction across Snake river at a point three miles below Old's ferry.

Gilmer & Salisbury have let the contract for furnishing the lumber for a timber for the erection of a thirty-stamp mill on the Ramshorn mine, at Bayshore.

The ex-convicted prospector, who recently visited Idaho City for supplies, declared it to be their belief that the celebrated Banner mine, in the district north, makes a better showing than any other mine in Idaho, for the purposes of development.

An Idaho party are arranging to march on and capture the gold mine of the Cassia prairie. The mine has been described and equally as often seen skimming along the lava crags that border the prairie. It has a depth of an inch, and when pursued it sets off the ground with great agility and speed and means as if in misery.

Miles City boasts of a female fero-dealer. The Utah & Northern train is now laid to a point about three miles north of Deer Lodge.

About six thousand lads will be added to the town of Bonanza by the McAdow Railroad Addition.

Eighty Oregon cowboys visited Miles

City one day last week and made things very lively for the citizens.

Quenchqua mill at Milford, F. S. Johnson & Co., proprietors, were destroyed by fire, together with the large elevator, containing 5,000 bushels of wheat.

A man named Andrew Derek, living near Ogan postoffice, was committed to jail on Tuesday from Young's Chicago court, through the complaint of Augusta Whing, who charged him with an attempt to commit rape upon her.

The new Northern Pacific hotel at Miles has cost ten thousand dollars to build, and two or three thousand dollars will be spent in furnishing it.

Buffalo are reported plenty along the Missouri in the vicinity of Claggett, and in consequence the traders expect to reap quite a harvest this winter.

Parties who have been in the lower Yellowstone country looking after stock ranches, say that the desirable cattle are as pretty well taken for a distance of 100 miles east. The population of that region has increased very materially during the past summer.

Advices from the 3d Infantry detachment recently in camp on Birch creek near the Blackfoot agency, state that Indians who have returned to the agency from the Blackfoot and Bloods at Fort Macleod, it is also reported that the Indians are still leaving Birch and Badger creeks for the buffalo country--about the Sweet Grass Hills. The reports as to the great abundance of buffalo and other game in that region are so favorable that many of the Blackfeet declare their intention of remaining all winter.

OCCIDENTAL JOTTINGS.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY. An agricultural society has been formed in Pendleton with several of the most prominent citizens as members.

The fight for the control of passes on Bur river still continues, and men and material are being pushed forward daily.

Freight is carried from Pendleton to Ulay by team for two cents per pound, and teams are hard to find even at that price.

Rails and ties are being collected at Pendleton, and it is expected the road will be completed to Encampment by the first of January.

Three cars per day are being built in the shops at Tacoma. The demand from east of the mountains has caused this increase in construction.

When the steamer "Katie Hallatt" first ran on the Clarke's Fork of the Columbia, 800 per ton was charged for carrying freight 33 miles. Freight is now charged by her a distance of 15 miles for $10 per ton.

The largest piece of work on the Blue mountains, with exception of the tunnel, now building, is a cut near the mouth of Meacham's creek. It is 250 feet long, and in places 65 feet deep, through solid basaltic rock. A force of forty-five men have been working on it for the past three weeks, and it will take the same force three weeks longer to finish it--Seattle.

A new schooner will be launched at Gardiner soon.

A 600 pound bear was recently killed at Scholl's ferry, Washington county.

One hundred and thirty thousand bushels of wheat are stored at Eugene City.

It is said that the grade across the Flathead reservation will be finished in two weeks.

The cannery at Gardiner is unable to care for and put up what fish are caught here at the present time, all of which are of the best quality.

Many of the logs on South Coos river, to come down this season, are six feet and over in diameter, and sixteen to twenty-four feet in length.

The Oregon Short Line company have men at work on the Payette river, cutting timber, which will be rafted down to Snake river.

By the premature explosion of a blast in a tunnel on the Baker City branch of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company's railroad a few days since five men were seriously injured.

The rain during the past week raised Rogue river to some extent, which has injured fishing, as the salmon on entering the river, take advantage of the rise, and pass right along up and don't loaf around Ellensburg long enough to get taken in.

Ducks infest Coos bay by millions, and are being constantly harassed, killed and captured in every corner of the bay, men, women and children. One man has a home made Gatling gun on the bow of a skiff. He moves them down in swarms.

CALIFORNIA. There are 1,000 bales of hops in the hands of growers and dealers in the Sacramento valley.

The wheat crop of D. M. Reavis sold at the wharf in Ohio last Thursday for $75,000, an average of $30 a ton.

A California lion has taken up quarters in the outskirts of the city of Santa Barbara and is the terror of the ladies and school children.

A petrified horse weighing about fifty pounds was found near Berryessa. Santa Clara county, Cal. It is about eighteen inches in diameter and is considerably marked to leave no room for doubt that it is the joint of a mastodon or some other monstrous animal.

The first engine to be turned on the new roundhouse turn-table at Trucke, near Newry, was No. 156, Sam Reynolds, engineer, and No. 65, P. C. Young, engineer.

This is considered an event among the engineers, and there has been considerable discussion as to which of them should have the honor.

No less than forty men, mostly railroad laborers, have perished of thirst on the Colorado desert, near Truckee, on the river. The Tucson Citizen says: Six dead bodies were found near Pah-Ute hill recently. The unfortunate men started from the river, not knowing the point they would have to encounter. Some of them might have had water in canteens, which, of course, was soon used. The desert, like the sea, is not kind to man, and many a poor man has perished with hunger and thirst on the California Sahara.

ARIZONA. The store of Fall, Smith & Co., at Wilcox, was entered and robbed last Wednesday night, and the following night the store was discovered in flames, which were not extinguished until about $300 worth of damage had been done.

IDAHO. A water company, with a capital stock of $500,000, has been incorporated at Boise City.

Tons of flour are being stowed away daily at Wood River to await another panic and consequent rise.
