

The Daily Bee. OMAHA.

Wednesday Morning, Nov. 15.

Weather Report.

The following observations are taken at the same moment of time at all the stations...

WAR DEPARTMENT, U. S. SIGNAL SERVICE, OMAHA, NOV. 14, 1892, (1:45 p. m.)

Table with columns: STATIONS, Elevation, Direction, Force of Wind, State of Sky. Lists weather data for various locations like Denver, Cheyenne, etc.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The weather has cleared up in fine shape. The comet is dimly visible now about 2 a. m.

The state stenographers held their annual banquet on Saturday evening, the 25th, at the Millard.

The Omaha Turnverein will give a concert and ball at Turner Hall on Thanksgiving day, November 20th.

Rev. Joseph Cook's subject, "The Orient and Occident," will be given in this city on Thursday evening, the 17th.

The examination of Jim Clark and Joe Gorman on the charge of slugging and robbing of Feldon Brown, has been postponed until Brown recovers sufficiently to appear in police court and testify.

There was a fight down on 13th and Leavenworth streets Monday in which both participants were badly used up.

Prang's Christmas cards have created quite a rush to his drug store, and are going rapidly, hence in order to get the finest it will be necessary to select your cards as soon as Prang is already behind his orders.

Dr. Harry Parmelee, son of Mr. Dan Parmelee who lives out on the Elkhorst, died at 3 a. m. yesterday, of rheumatism of the heart, aged about 30 years.

The regular meeting of the Omaha Glee Club will be held tonight at their new headquarters in Max Meyer's hall.

Fred Watkins, alias Wm. Henry, who tried to leave and furnish the Cozens house on Lehigh and who afterward made a trip to Papillon with one of McShane's lively rick and another man's wife, was discharged, on motion of the prosecution, on the charge of horse stealing, could not be obtained.

General Manager Potter, of the Burlington, has issued a circular announcing the appointment of Mr. Robert Law as general superintendent of the St. Louis, Keokuk & Northwestern and Chicago, Burlington & Kansas City railroads.

The workingmen and farmers' central committee met Monday and heard the report of the treasurer, which was unanimously adopted.

Mrs. L. V. Mitchell, of Villisca, Ia., writes to know if her husband, W. H. Mitchell, has been here since November 6th.

There is hardly an adult person living but is sometimes troubled with kidney difficulty, which is the most prolific and dangerous cause of disease.

that Prof. Pelle will meet with the encouragement he deserves, and it will be a matter for congratulation for our people if he finds sufficient encouragement to remain with us.

J. N. Thorin, from Edgar, Clay county, was brought to Omaha yesterday, charged with selling manufactured tobacco and snuff without having paid special tax.

Mr. Thomas J. Fitzmorris, night foreman of THE BEE newspaper, celebrated his 29th birthday anniversary yesterday.

A SAD CASE.

A Mother Leaves Her Babe to be Buried by Strangers.

A Case That Has Many Repetitions in a Year's Time.

On Friday last a family of four arrived in this city from Nottingham, England, en route to Wyoming Territory.

These folks had emigrated to this country upon money sent them by Mrs. Martin's mother, who lives at Evanston.

The council at this point went into a committee of the whole, with Mr. Dellone in the chair.

On motion of Mr. Leeder, Mr. Barker proceeded to read the report of a majority of the board of public works (Messrs. Barker and Wilson) in regard to the Sioux Falls stone.

On same: Favoring new bridge across Eighteenth and Pierce streets.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California.

The ordinance changing the grade of Douglas and Nineteenth streets, at their intersection, was passed.

The ordinance re-establishing the curb line of Ninth to Sixteenth streets inclusive, between Farnam and Douglas, was passed.

An ordinance levying a tax for the grading of Sixteenth street, and appropriating money for the same, was passed.

Articles of corporation of the Northwestern Electric Light and Power company were filed in the office of Hon. John Baumer, county clerk, on Saturday.

The object for which the company is created has been already made fully known, as well as the fact that they will begin work and have several of our principal streets supplied within the coming month.

The capital stock of the company is $100,000 in $1,000 shares of $100 each.

CITY COUNCIL.

The Sioux Falls Stone Decided to be Granite.

The Contract Let to Pave Tenth Street With It.

Proceedings of the Meeting of Last Evening.

At the regular meeting of the city council last evening there were present Messrs. Baker, Behm, Corby, Dellone, Dunham, Herman, Leeder, McGuekin, O'Keefe, Thrane, and President pro tem Kaufmann.

The journal of the last meeting was read and approved.

From the mayor—Approving the appropriation ordinance. Filed.

From John D. Howe, city attorney—Advising that the contract for paving Tenth street should not be granted Mr. Mack to-night.

From John McVehille—Requesting that a partially burned house on the alley between Jones and Leavenworth streets be removed, to enable him to go ahead filling in the creek.

From M. B. Powell—A bill for damages from a flooded cellar on the night of the 10th inst. Referred.

From W. F. Bechal and others—Requesting permission to make certain improvements on Twenty-fifth street at their own expense. Granted.

From D. P. Beard; On behalf of Engine Co. No. 1, presenting their eagle to Hanscomb park. Accepted, with thanks.

From Hill & Winpary; Asking permission to erect scales on east side of 21st street, near Cumine, for public weighing. Referred, with power to act.

From J. P. Manning, inspector of weights and measures. Report for 1892. Referred.

From Augustus Kountze and wife; Quit claim deed to the public of land on Hickory street. Accepted.

The council at this point went into a committee of the whole, with Mr. Dellone in the chair.

On motion of Mr. Leeder, Mr. Barker proceeded to read the report of a majority of the board of public works (Messrs. Barker and Wilson) in regard to the Sioux Falls stone.

On same: Granting petition of Wm. Gannon and others for side and cross-walks on Sixteenth street. Adopted.

On same: Favoring new bridge across Eighteenth and Pierce streets. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

The ordinance changing the grade of Douglas and Nineteenth streets, at their intersection, was passed.

Shifting Stations.

The Seventh Infantry En Route West.

The Fifteenth Goes to Fort Snelling to Replace Them.

About six a. m. yesterday a special train came in on the Omaha & St. Paul road, consisting of one sleeper, five day coaches and ten baggage cars.

The train left St. Paul at midnight Sunday with five companies of the Seventh Infantry from Ft. Snelling.

These companies were D, F, I and K, which are transferred to Ft. Laramie and Co. G to Ft. Steele.

Five more companies of the same regiment will be here on Saturday en route to Forts Russell, Steele and Bridger.

A special train arrived at 5:30 a. m. over the Denver short line of the Union Pacific, with company B, of the Fifteenth regiment, thirty-seven strong, from Fort Garland, and a lot more from the same place will arrive to-day.

Company B was at the Union Pacific depot all day, and left in the afternoon for Fort Snelling.

A French Canadian about 55 years of age, who was en route from Oregon to Quebec, was among the passengers on the incoming U. P. train yesterday, and when the train was near Plum Creek, performed a feat that few would like to take chances on.

The man was insane but showed no signs of it until after leaving North Platte, when he suddenly became possessed of the idea that some one was going to kill him and asked for protection.

On same: Favoring new bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

Shifting Stations.

The Seventh Infantry En Route West.

The Fifteenth Goes to Fort Snelling to Replace Them.

About six a. m. yesterday a special train came in on the Omaha & St. Paul road, consisting of one sleeper, five day coaches and ten baggage cars.

The train left St. Paul at midnight Sunday with five companies of the Seventh Infantry from Ft. Snelling.

These companies were D, F, I and K, which are transferred to Ft. Laramie and Co. G to Ft. Steele.

Five more companies of the same regiment will be here on Saturday en route to Forts Russell, Steele and Bridger.

A special train arrived at 5:30 a. m. over the Denver short line of the Union Pacific, with company B, of the Fifteenth regiment, thirty-seven strong, from Fort Garland, and a lot more from the same place will arrive to-day.

Company B was at the Union Pacific depot all day, and left in the afternoon for Fort Snelling.

A French Canadian about 55 years of age, who was en route from Oregon to Quebec, was among the passengers on the incoming U. P. train yesterday, and when the train was near Plum Creek, performed a feat that few would like to take chances on.

The man was insane but showed no signs of it until after leaving North Platte, when he suddenly became possessed of the idea that some one was going to kill him and asked for protection.

On same: Favoring new bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

Shifting Stations.

The Seventh Infantry En Route West.

The Fifteenth Goes to Fort Snelling to Replace Them.

About six a. m. yesterday a special train came in on the Omaha & St. Paul road, consisting of one sleeper, five day coaches and ten baggage cars.

The train left St. Paul at midnight Sunday with five companies of the Seventh Infantry from Ft. Snelling.

These companies were D, F, I and K, which are transferred to Ft. Laramie and Co. G to Ft. Steele.

Five more companies of the same regiment will be here on Saturday en route to Forts Russell, Steele and Bridger.

A special train arrived at 5:30 a. m. over the Denver short line of the Union Pacific, with company B, of the Fifteenth regiment, thirty-seven strong, from Fort Garland, and a lot more from the same place will arrive to-day.

Company B was at the Union Pacific depot all day, and left in the afternoon for Fort Snelling.

A French Canadian about 55 years of age, who was en route from Oregon to Quebec, was among the passengers on the incoming U. P. train yesterday, and when the train was near Plum Creek, performed a feat that few would like to take chances on.

The man was insane but showed no signs of it until after leaving North Platte, when he suddenly became possessed of the idea that some one was going to kill him and asked for protection.

On same: Favoring new bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

Shifting Stations.

The Seventh Infantry En Route West.

The Fifteenth Goes to Fort Snelling to Replace Them.

About six a. m. yesterday a special train came in on the Omaha & St. Paul road, consisting of one sleeper, five day coaches and ten baggage cars.

The train left St. Paul at midnight Sunday with five companies of the Seventh Infantry from Ft. Snelling.

These companies were D, F, I and K, which are transferred to Ft. Laramie and Co. G to Ft. Steele.

Five more companies of the same regiment will be here on Saturday en route to Forts Russell, Steele and Bridger.

A special train arrived at 5:30 a. m. over the Denver short line of the Union Pacific, with company B, of the Fifteenth regiment, thirty-seven strong, from Fort Garland, and a lot more from the same place will arrive to-day.

Company B was at the Union Pacific depot all day, and left in the afternoon for Fort Snelling.

A French Canadian about 55 years of age, who was en route from Oregon to Quebec, was among the passengers on the incoming U. P. train yesterday, and when the train was near Plum Creek, performed a feat that few would like to take chances on.

The man was insane but showed no signs of it until after leaving North Platte, when he suddenly became possessed of the idea that some one was going to kill him and asked for protection.

On same: Favoring new bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.

On same: Favoring construction of foot bridge across North Omaha creek on California. Adopted.