

The Daily Bee. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Friday Morning Nov. 17. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 30 cents per week. By Mail, $10.00 per Year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. M. G. GRIFFIN, Manager. H. W. TILTON, City Editor.

MINOR MENTIONS.

-J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall. -Sik mits only $1.50 at Bliss'. -The Catholic fair at the opera house should be remembered.

-The new market of Shull & Malen, 799 South Main street, guarantee best of meats and prompt attention.

-The boys' band are to have another quadrille party at St. Joseph's academy on the 24th inst. The invitations are as neat as any which have been seen.

-The Catholic fair is still in progress. "The Rescue of Little Red Riding Hood" is to be repeated in connection therewith Friday afternoon at Dehany's. It should draw a crowd.

-A fine assortment of Boots and Shoes, sufficient to supply the demands of all, at George Blaxin's south Main street.

-Thomas Fay, who has been lying in jail here awaiting trial for murder in Carroll county, is not to be tried at this term of court, a continuance having been granted.

-Cheap Railroad tickets to all points, Bushnell, five doors north of postoffice, sells them. Entrance, Main or Pearl streets.

-Six room house, a store room well located and a forty acre improved, two miles from this city, for rent by W. H. Vaughan.

THE CONFIDENCE MEN.

They Are Being Reviewed in Police Court, and Some Sensational Statements Made.

Gillis Still Insists That the Police Were Erribeid. Conjectures as to the End.

Yesterday the police court was a point of interest for many, on account of the examination in progress there concerning the alleged confidence men assaulting a crippled song seller named Gillis, whose story was told in yesterday's Bee.

The five men accused gave their names as James T. Conorton, Henry Seymour, J. H. White, George Maxwell and John Howard. They appeared in the morning, without any attorney, and were informed that a new indictment had been lodged against them, it being a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

John N. Baldwin appeared for the prosecution, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway company, on whose train the affair occurred, apparently being interested in having the matter thoroughly sifted and justice gained.

He wanted the case continued until Saturday, in order to get witnesses who were on the train, but the defendants said they would admit that these witnesses would swear to just what the prosecution claimed that they would testify to. The case was adjourned till 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the prisoners giving bail in the sum of $500 cash and a $2,000 certificate of deposit, making $2,500 in all.

In the afternoon the case was opened. Col. Dailey appeared as attorney for the defendants. Gillis was put on the stand and went into details as to the attack made upon him, as narrated in yesterday's Bee. He claimed that he had been instructed by the head officials of several of the roads to notify conductors and policemen, and to warn passengers, when confidence men were around, and that he had done so, thereby getting the ill will of the confidence men, who had threatened him with violence on account of it. He claimed that this was the reason they pitched into him.

He narrated in detail the affair in the car, and the arrest of the men, and how afterwards they were turned loose, and reaffirmed his statement made to THE BEE that he saw money slipped into the hands of Officers Cusick and Sterling, and that he was also given $5 in gold.

Col. Dailey cross-examined him closely and at great length. Gillis denied that he had ever received any part of the proceeds of tricks turned by confidence men, except the $5 gold piece referred to. He narrated a number of confidence tricks that had been played here lately, and if his statements are to be believed, there has been even more of the business going on than the public generally has thought, and there has surely been enough made public to make it plain that many of our citizens have been at work here lately.

At the close of Gillis' testimony an adjournment was taken until this morning. The trial excites much interest, not so much on account of the attack on Gillis, but because of the alleged unearthing of the ring of confidence sharks who have been plying their trade here so vigorously the past few months.

THE CONFIDENCE MEN.

They Are Being Reviewed in Police Court, and Some Sensational Statements Made.

Gillis Still Insists That the Police Were Erribeid. Conjectures as to the End.

Yesterday the police court was a point of interest for many, on account of the examination in progress there concerning the alleged confidence men assaulting a crippled song seller named Gillis, whose story was told in yesterday's Bee.

The five men accused gave their names as James T. Conorton, Henry Seymour, J. H. White, George Maxwell and John Howard. They appeared in the morning, without any attorney, and were informed that a new indictment had been lodged against them, it being a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

John N. Baldwin appeared for the prosecution, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway company, on whose train the affair occurred, apparently being interested in having the matter thoroughly sifted and justice gained.

He wanted the case continued until Saturday, in order to get witnesses who were on the train, but the defendants said they would admit that these witnesses would swear to just what the prosecution claimed that they would testify to. The case was adjourned till 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the prisoners giving bail in the sum of $500 cash and a $2,000 certificate of deposit, making $2,500 in all.

In the afternoon the case was opened. Col. Dailey appeared as attorney for the defendants. Gillis was put on the stand and went into details as to the attack made upon him, as narrated in yesterday's Bee. He claimed that he had been instructed by the head officials of several of the roads to notify conductors and policemen, and to warn passengers, when confidence men were around, and that he had done so, thereby getting the ill will of the confidence men, who had threatened him with violence on account of it. He claimed that this was the reason they pitched into him.

He narrated in detail the affair in the car, and the arrest of the men, and how afterwards they were turned loose, and reaffirmed his statement made to THE BEE that he saw money slipped into the hands of Officers Cusick and Sterling, and that he was also given $5 in gold.

Col. Dailey cross-examined him closely and at great length. Gillis denied that he had ever received any part of the proceeds of tricks turned by confidence men, except the $5 gold piece referred to. He narrated a number of confidence tricks that had been played here lately, and if his statements are to be believed, there has been even more of the business going on than the public generally has thought, and there has surely been enough made public to make it plain that many of our citizens have been at work here lately.

At the close of Gillis' testimony an adjournment was taken until this morning. The trial excites much interest, not so much on account of the attack on Gillis, but because of the alleged unearthing of the ring of confidence sharks who have been plying their trade here so vigorously the past few months.

THE CONFIDENCE MEN.

They Are Being Reviewed in Police Court, and Some Sensational Statements Made.

Gillis Still Insists That the Police Were Erribeid. Conjectures as to the End.

Yesterday the police court was a point of interest for many, on account of the examination in progress there concerning the alleged confidence men assaulting a crippled song seller named Gillis, whose story was told in yesterday's Bee.

The five men accused gave their names as James T. Conorton, Henry Seymour, J. H. White, George Maxwell and John Howard. They appeared in the morning, without any attorney, and were informed that a new indictment had been lodged against them, it being a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

John N. Baldwin appeared for the prosecution, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway company, on whose train the affair occurred, apparently being interested in having the matter thoroughly sifted and justice gained.

He wanted the case continued until Saturday, in order to get witnesses who were on the train, but the defendants said they would admit that these witnesses would swear to just what the prosecution claimed that they would testify to. The case was adjourned till 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the prisoners giving bail in the sum of $500 cash and a $2,000 certificate of deposit, making $2,500 in all.

In the afternoon the case was opened. Col. Dailey appeared as attorney for the defendants. Gillis was put on the stand and went into details as to the attack made upon him, as narrated in yesterday's Bee. He claimed that he had been instructed by the head officials of several of the roads to notify conductors and policemen, and to warn passengers, when confidence men were around, and that he had done so, thereby getting the ill will of the confidence men, who had threatened him with violence on account of it. He claimed that this was the reason they pitched into him.

He narrated in detail the affair in the car, and the arrest of the men, and how afterwards they were turned loose, and reaffirmed his statement made to THE BEE that he saw money slipped into the hands of Officers Cusick and Sterling, and that he was also given $5 in gold.

Col. Dailey cross-examined him closely and at great length. Gillis denied that he had ever received any part of the proceeds of tricks turned by confidence men, except the $5 gold piece referred to. He narrated a number of confidence tricks that had been played here lately, and if his statements are to be believed, there has been even more of the business going on than the public generally has thought, and there has surely been enough made public to make it plain that many of our citizens have been at work here lately.

At the close of Gillis' testimony an adjournment was taken until this morning. The trial excites much interest, not so much on account of the attack on Gillis, but because of the alleged unearthing of the ring of confidence sharks who have been plying their trade here so vigorously the past few months.

COUNCIL BLUFFS SPECIAL NOTICES.

NOTICE--Special advertisements, such as Lost, Found, For Sale, To Rent, Wants, Boarding, etc., will be inserted in this column at the rate of TEN CENTS PER LINE for the first insertion and FIVE CENTS PER LINE for each subsequent insertion.

WANTED--Broom-maker; a No. 1 broom tier wanted immediately. Apply or call on Capron Bros. Co., Malvern, Mo.

WANTED--A position to do general writing or a young man well recommended, and good penman. Inquire at the office of John Lutz, attorney at law, office on Broadway.

WANTED--At the Western House, a cook; one who understands the business; none other need apply.

WANTED--50 buildings to move. We make a specialty of moving houses and safes. Address W. P. Aylsworth, box 879, Council Bluffs, Ia.

WANTED--Everybody in Council Bluffs to take THE BEE, 50 cents per week, delivered by carriers. Office, No. 7 Pearl Street near Broadway.

For Sale and Rent. FOR RENT--Small house--five rooms, good cellar, well, &c. Apply at Merchant's Restaurant, corner Broadway and Fourth streets.

FOR SALE--The Western House, No. 208 Upper Broadway; or will trade for improved city or farm property; or will sell furniture and rent building; reason of health. Address J. S. McCallister, 208 Upper Broadway, Council Bluffs, Ia.

FOR RENT--My new two-story brick store building, on South Main street. PETER WEIS.

FOR RENT--My twelve-acre fruit farm, on South First street. PETER WEIS.

HARKNESS, ORCUTT & CO., DRY GOODS AND CARPET HOUSE.

Broadway, and Fourth Street, Council Bluffs, Iowa

J. MUELLER'S

Headquarters For the Celebrated Weber Pianos, Toys and Fancy Goods Wholesale and Retail.

Address, J. MUELLER, COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA

F. F. FORD

Guarantees the Best $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00 SHIRTS. MADE IN THE WEST. Bluff and Willow Streets, Council Bluffs.

B. HAGG & CO. DEALERS IN GEISE' BOTTLED BEER.

MADE FROM THE ARTESIAN WELL WATER. ALSO AGENTS FOR THE CELEBRATED BUDWEISER BEER. Orders filled in any part of the city. Orders by telephone promptly attended to.

E. R. STEINHILBER, MANUFACTURERS OF ALL KINDS OF TABLES CUPBOARDS AND SAFES.

We make the following a specialty: WALNUT EXTENSION TABLES, POPLAR OPEN WASHSTANDS, WALNUT BREAKFAST TABLES, POPLAR WARDROBES, POPLAR BREAKFAST TABLES, POPLAR CUPBOARDS, WALNUT WARDROBES, WALNUT OPEN WASHSTANDS.

MORGAN, KELLER & CO., UNDERTAKERS.

The finest quality and largest stock west of Chicago of wooden and metallic cases. Calls attended to at all hours. We defy competition in quality of goods or prices.

CONRAD GEISE'S BREWERY & MALT HOUSE, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Beer and malt in any quantity to suit purchasers. Beer $8.00 per barrel. Private families supplied with small kegs at $1.00 each, delivered free of charge to any part of the city.

PETERSON & LARSON, Wholesale Dealer in and SOLE AGENT FOR Joseph Schlitz Brewing Company's Celebrated MILWAUKEE BEER.

No. 711 Broadway, Council Bluffs, Iowa. Orders from the country solicited. City orders to families and dealers delivered free.

C. A. BEEBE & CO., Wholesale and Retail Dealers in FURNITURE AND CROCKERY

Nos. 207 & 209 Broadway, Council Bluffs. JAMES FRANEY, Merchant Tailor. 372 BROADWAY, COUNCIL BLUFFS, IA. Always keeps on hand the finest assortment of material for gentlemen's wear. Satisfaction guaranteed.

MRS. J. E. METCALF, Millinery, Dressmaking, Etc.--Cutting and Fitting a Specialty. No. 548 Broadway, Opposite Revora House. Laces, Embroideries, and Ladies Underwear. Handkerchiefs, hose of all kinds, thread, pins, needles, etc. We hope the ladies will call and see our stock of goods.

Sullivan & Fitzgerald, DEALERS IN GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, CROCKERY, GLASSWARE, BOOTS, SHOES, ETC.

Also agents for the following lines of Steamship Companies: Cunard, Anchor, Gulon, American, and State Steamship Companies.

Sullivan & Fitzgerald, AGENTS, 343 Broadway, Council Bluffs

MAIN STREET LIVERY, FEED AND SALE STABLE.

All Shippers and Travelers will in good accommodation and reasonable charges. SOUTH STREET. OPPOSITE CRYSTAL MILL, Council Bluffs, Iowa. HOLLAND & MILLER, Proprietors.

DENTISTS. (4 Pearl Street, Council Bluffs.

Extracting and filling a specialty. First-class work guaranteed. MAURER & CRAIG, ARTIST POTTERY, Rich Ont Glass, Fine French Silver Ware &c. 240 Broadway COUNCIL BLUFFS

CITIZENS BANK OF Council Bluffs. Organized under the laws of the State of Iowa. Paid up capital $75,000. Authorized capital $100,000. Interest paid on time deposits. Drafts issued on the principal cities of the United States and Europe. Special attention given to collections and correspondence with prompt returns.

IOWA ITEMS.

Kate Shelley, the Boone county heroine, is attending college at Indiana. Oie E. Sondo, aged 65, an Emmet county pioneer, was thrown from his wagon a few days ago and killed.

There are 219 Presbyterian church societies in the state, employing 243 ministers. The communicants number 29,981 and the Sunday-school membership foots up 25,756.

On the night of the 8th, the home of Mr. Anderson, of Shenandoah, was blown up by unknown parties, the inmates, Mrs. Anderson and son, being severely injured. The Fort Dodge gas works have been completed.

True to her Trust. Too much cannot be said of the ever faithful wife and mother, constantly watching and caring for her dear ones, never neglecting a single duty in their behalf. When they are assailed by disease, and the system should have a thorough cleansing, the stomach and bowels regulated, blood purified, and malarial poison exterminated, she must know that the Electric Bitters are the only sure remedy. They are the best and purest medicine in the world and only cost fifty cents. Sold by C. F. Goodman.

Lieut. Gov. Manning was at the Oden yesterday. Mrs. MacConnell is quite ill with malarial fever. W. B. Hamblin and wife have returned from a trip to Chicago.

C. F. Hall, agent of the Edwin Clifford Dramatic Company, was in the city yesterday. Sheriff Sam Jones and City Marshal Bradley, of Des Moines, were in the city yesterday. J. H. Tilton, of Montezuma, is spending a few days in the city, and yesterday favored Mr. Tilton of THE BEE with a call.

Mr. Morgan, of The Globe, is an old room mate and school mate of his, and he has other friends in the city, who are glad to see him here. W. M. Rankin, representing Brown's Voice of Masonry, and Lilly & Co., of Ohio, is in the city, interviewing the members of the secret orders, and other societies in regard to regalia, etc. He has already many acquaintances in this city, and was in attendance at the late session of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, held here.

PERSONAL.

Who drew the first blood? I said Tom-er-at. With my little gun. Of six and seven. I killed Mac-Janderson.

Who drew the first blood? I said Tom-er-at. With my little gun. Of six and seven. I killed Mac-Janderson.

Who drew the first blood? I said Tom-er-at. With my little gun. Of six and seven. I killed Mac-Janderson.

Who drew the first blood? I said Tom-er-at. With my little gun. Of six and seven. I killed Mac-Janderson.

Who drew the first blood? I said Tom-er-at. With my little gun. Of six and seven. I killed Mac-Janderson.

PERSONAL.

Who drew the first blood? I said Tom-er-at. With my little gun. Of six and seven. I killed Mac-Janderson.

Who drew the first blood? I said Tom-er-at. With my little gun. Of six and seven. I killed Mac-Janderson.

Who drew the first blood? I said Tom-er-at. With my little gun. Of six and seven. I killed Mac-Janderson.

Who drew the first blood? I said Tom-er-at. With my little gun. Of six and seven. I killed Mac-Janderson.

Who drew the first blood? I said Tom-er-at. With my little gun. Of six and seven. I killed Mac-Janderson.