MONEY.

Money - 7@10 per cent, closed offered at 10 per cent

Prime Mercantile Paper—6@7½ per cent.

Sterling Exchange—Weak; Bankers' bills, $4.80; demand, $4.83.

Produce reported for the week, $8,000,000.

Governments were strong and generally ⅛@¼ per cent lower

Speculation on the stock exchange today was irregular, but in the main weak, and values were consequently lower than at yesterday's close. The market opened weak and ½@1½ per cent lower than yesterday's closing quotation the latter in St. Paul preferred. Immediately after opening there was a fractional recovery, succeeded by a reaction of ½@1 per cent, Oregon & Transcontinental and Delaware, Lackawana & Western leading therein. The market then became strong, and about 11 recorded an advance of ½@1 per cent, in which Reading, St. Paul & Manitoba, Delaware, Lackawana & Western, Rock Island and New Jersey Central were most conspicuous. After this the market (still very active) was irregular, but in the main weak. Between 1 and 2 prices fell off ½@3 per cent, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba, Wabash preferred, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, Missouri Pacific, Reading and Western Union being prominent in the downward turn. At about 2 there was a general rally of ½@1⅜ per cent, the latter in Wabash preferred, but the market again became very weak, and in late trade a decline ranging from 1@6 per cent took place, the latter in St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba, to 138; and Indianapolis, Bloomington & Western, which fell off 5 per cent; Denver & Rio Grande, 4½ per cent; Kansas, 2⅜ per cent; Colorado Coal, 2½ per cent; Lake Shore, 2½ per cent; Texas Pacific, 2½ per cent, were also prominent in the downward movement. Subsequently St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba recovered 2 per cent, Colorado Coal 1⅜ per cent and the general list ½@1 per cent, but at the close the market was feverish and irregular. Closing prices show a decline on the day's transaction of ½@7 per cent—Richmond & Danville, Indianapolis, Bloomington & Western, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba, Denver & Rio Grande and Colorado Coal being the most conspicuous therein. Shortly before the close round amounts of leading shares were pressed for sale, both for long and short account. The depression in the last hour is attributed in part also to the following notice, which explains itself:

To the President of the New York Stock Exchange:

DEAR SIR:—The usual thirty days' notice is hereby given of the issue of 38,400 shares of the Denver & Rio Grande railway company of $100 each, amounting to $3,840,000, to provide means for the completing and finishing of as much of the company's lines as, including the division to Utah, together with the mileage heretofore completed, will make 1,300 miles of finished road, and to discharge certain obligations incurred on account thereof, and for other lawful purposes.

Respectfully,

(Signed) WM. WARNER,
Secretary Denver & Rio Grande Railway Company.

It has been ascertained that 25,000 shares of Northern Pacific preferred were registered yesterday in the name of Drexel, Morgan & Co.
