ESCORTS TO HIRE
 How Lonesome Women Can Get Protection for a Few Dollars a Day.
 Philadelphia Times.
 Lonesome Philadelphia women—if they are fortunate enough to possess money—need no longer remain without protectors, a scheme having been set on foot by an enterprising person to establish in this city a "Professional Escort Bureau." The design of the bureau will be to furnish unprotected women with escorts to balls, parties, musicales and all places of amusement, at prices ranging from $2 to $5 a day. The gentlemen who will be attached to the bureau will be selected with great care. They will be required to give unexceptional references; they must be sober, good looking, well educated, and of captivating address. They will, of course, know how to sing, play and recite, so as to be entertaining as well as good manners.
 All languages will flow easily from their glib tongues, while in the matter of dress they will follow the latest Parisian styles and no doubt set the fashions in the city. No badge nor "decorations" will expose to the cruel world their true position—none will know this but their employers.

The advantages that this new department will offer are many. Elderly matron ladies whose gentleman friends ceased calling on them a decade ago, but who still feel a yearning for the giddy dissipations of the world of society, can secure the devoted attentions of a handsome and gallant young man for the sum of five dollars a day.
 The reason why this class will have to pay the highest price is obvious.
A CHANCE FOR NEGLECTED WIVES.
 The young wife, who is constantly deserted by "that brute of a husband," who dines at the club and remains in the night air so late that his head is afeared and he comes home dizzy, can dispel the ennui to which she has so long been accustomed by hiring an escort and "laking in" the minstreals or the drama occasionally.
 If she is good looking the price will be three dollars, but if she is ugly it will be four. This sum is for the services of the escort in addition to what she will have to pay for the theater tickets, carriage and the usual "little tips" after the play.
 This advertisement appeared in one of the morning papers the other day.

WANTED, partner, lady or gent, for a fine society, so join advertiser in establishing a Professional Escort and Amusement Bureau.
 A reporter answered the card, and Benjamin LaBree, who had inserted it in the paper, appointed a meeting at which he detailed the scheme and the profits that are sure to accrue from the business.

PAINTING A SPECULATIVE PICTURE.
 "We shall first hire a nice, cozy office on Chestnut street," said he,
 "where we can receive applicants.
 Then by judicious advertising we can secure all the escorts we need. Of course we should investigate the character of each applicant and take none but the best. There are a good many young men of the best families who would be only too glad to act as escorts when they had all their expenses paid and were sure the world would be none the wiser for it. There is an escort bureau doing a flourishing business in Washington, and there is one on Fourteenth street in New York city, while in Paris, where the idea originated, there are scores of them doing prosperously. All are eminently respectable and have only the best classes for patrons."
 "Do you think Philadelphiaans are too conservative for such a venture to be a success here?"
 "By no means," he replied. "The first circle here would patronize the bureau from the start if they knew the French and English aristocracy did so. This apparent conservatism is only a thin crust of ice to Philadelphia society, but underneath the thin crust the current of novelty runs as strongly as in any other city. I am convinced it would pay, and as soon as I get an energetic partner I shall start it." The reporter concluded that he would not invest the necessary $300.

"Grunt It Out"
 The above is an old saw as savage as it is senseless. You can't "grunt out" dyspepsia, nor liver complaint, nor nervousness if they once get a good hold. They don't remove themselves in that way.
 The taking a few doses of BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS is better than "grunting it out."
 What we can cure let's not endure.

Bill Nye's Engagement Broken.
 "I have just received a letter from my friend Bill Nye, of the Laramie City Boomerang, wherein he informs me that he is engaged to the beautiful and accomplished Lydia E. Pinkham, of "Vegetable Compound" fame, and that the wedding will take place on next Christmas. To be sure I am expected at the wedding, and I'll be hand if I can secure a clean shirt by that time, and the roads ain't too bad.
 But I am somewhat at a loss what to get as a suitable present, as Bill informs me in a postscript to his letter, that gifts of bibles, albums, nickel-plated pickle dishes, chromos with frames, and the like, will not be in order, as it is utterly impossible to pass articles of this kind in Laramie City."—The Bohemian.

We are sorry that the above letter, which we dashed off in a careless moment, has been placed before the public, as later developments have entirely changed the aspect of the matter, the engagement between ourself and Lydia having been rudely broken by the young lady herself. She has returned the solitaire filled ring, and henceforth we can be nothing more to each other than friends. The promise which bade fair to yield so much joy in the future, has been ruthlessly yanked asunder, and two young hearts must bleed through the coming years.
 Far be it from us to say aught that would reflect upon the credit of Miss Pinkham. It would only imperil her chances in the future, and deny her the sweet satisfaction of gathering in another guileless sucker like us. The truth, however, cannot be evaded that Lydia is no longer young. She is now in the sear and yellow leaf. The gurgle of girlishhood and the romping, careless grace of her childhood are matters of ancient history alone.

We might go on and tell how one thing brought on another till the quarrel occurred, and hot words and an-assault and battery led to this entanglement, but we will not do it. It would be wrong for a great, strong man to take advantage of his strength and the public press to speak disparagingly of a young thing like Lyd.

 No matter how unreasonably she may have treated us, we see dumb and silent on this point. Journalists who have been invited and have purchased costly wedding presents may ship the presents by express prepaid, and we will accept them, and struggle along with our first great heart trouble, while Lydia goes on in her mad carreer.—Laramie Boomerang.

GOUING GAUGAR.
Tit for Tat in Lafayette, Ind.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., November 30.— Mrs. Helen M. Gougar, editress of Our Herald, and well known as a temperance and woman suffrage speaker, has filed a suit for slander against Chief of Police Harry Mandler. The complaint is based on charges made by Mandler that on Sunday night, November 19, he saw and recognized Mrs. Gougar and Captain DeWitt Wallace, late candidate for senator, came down the street about 8 o'clock and got up into said Wallace's office, where they remained until about half past 12 o'clock, and that he, in company with Charley Pook, saw these parties go up-stairs, and that after they came down, he, Mandler, followed and overtook them and spoke to Captain Wallace. The complainant says that by reason of this malicious and slanderous charge, she has been caused great distress of mind, and demands damages in the sum of $10,000. The defendant has been cited to answer on December 9, in the criminal court. The community is greatly excited over these charges of Mandler, and a lively time is expected when the trial comes off.

 IN DEBILITY.
 Dr. W. H. Colcombe, New Orleans, La., says: "I found it an admirable remedy for debilitated state of the system, produced by the wear and tear of the nervous energies."

Mexican Trade
 Special Dispatch to THE BEE.
 WASHINGTON, December 1.—It will be remembered that some months ago Grant and Treacott were appointed commissioners to make a convention for a reciprocal treaty with Mexico, it being expected that a similar commission would be appointed on behalf of the other government. It is understood now that it is very doubtful whether anything will be accomplished in this matter, although the Mexican administration was in full accord with our own at the time Grant and Treacott were named. The matter has been taken up and discussed very generally by the Mexican press and the proposition for a reciprocal treaty with the United States met with unanimous denunciation. Manufacturers have created such a feeling of hostility on the ground of the necessity of protection in order to save themselves, that it is said the administration dare not proceed to make a treaty which would relieve American goods from the almost prohibitory tariff now in force. The feeling of hostility being so intense and creamtances being unfavorable, it is said Mexico will neglect to appoint an arbitrator to meet those named by President Arthur, and will neither send any one to Washington nor receive with cordiality a commission dispatched to their capital. The result has anticipated, and that the whole thing will quietly fall through and nothing will be said about it.

"Don't Hurry, Gentlemen."
 Said a man on his way to be hanged, "there'll be no fun till I get there." We say to the dyspeptic, nervous, and debilitated, don't hurry thoughtlessly for some remedy of doubtful merit, uncertain of relief, when you can get at the druggist for a one dollar Burdock Blood Bitters almost sure to cure and certain to benefit.

HAPPY HEARTS.
Marriage of Mr. P. A. McKenna and Miss Maggie McClure, at the Cathedral of St. Philomena.

Mr. P. A. McKenna and Miss Maggie McClure were united in marriage by Rev. Father English, on Wednesday, at 2 o'clock, Mr. Fink and Miss Annie McKee acting as witnesses. All parties were handsomely and elegantly dressed, the bride looking as beautiful as a rose saluting the rising aurora.

After the ceremony the parties drove out to a snug little cottage the groom had built and furnished, on South Fifteenth street, where a reception was held in the evening. A large party of friends greeted the young couple here, who exerted themselves in having all spend a happy evening. An abundant table was spread and the viands done ample justice to. Several beautiful presents were given the bride, among which may be mentioned: A valuable set of silver table ware by the groom; table linen by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dougherty; silver casket by Mr. and Mrs. A.
 Murphy; set of colored china dishes by Mr. and Mrs. John F. Daley; silver breakfast casket by Mr. and Mrs.
 McEure; handsome set of vases by Mr. and Mrs. Tracy; beautiful mor-rocco-bound, gold and ivory mounted album by young ladies of the Union Catholic Library association; silver butter dish by Miss Annie McKee; set of silver napkin rings, gold lined, by Mrs. Fink; silver pickle casket by Miss Susie Lynch; set of cut glassware by Mr. and Mrs. Fink.
 At a seasonable hour the company departed, hoping that the sun of prosperity might shine as brightly during their lives as did the glorious orb of heaven on their wedding day.

 chanics.
 Thousands of dollars can be saved by using proper judgment in taking care of the health of yourself and family. If you are bilious, have shallow complexion, poor appetite, low and depressed spirits, and generally debilitated, do not delay a moment but go at once and procure a bottle of those wonderful Electric Bitters, which never fail to cure, and that for the trifling sum of fifty cents.—Tribune.

Proposals for District Paving Bonds.
 CITY TREASURER'S OFFICE,
 OMAHA, NEB.
 Seal'd proposals will be received at this office until December 15th, 1881, at 12 noon, for the purchase of $30,000 of District Paving Bonds of District No. 11 of the City of Omaha. Said bonds are dated January 1st, 1882, and will be due in one, two, three and four years from date, an equal amount becoming due each year. are in sums of one thousand dollars each, and bear interest from date at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable annually. The principal and interest are both payable at the office of County Rec. in New York.
 Said bonds are issued under the charter power of said city, and will be delivered to purchasers on payment therefor at the City Treasury in Omaha on January 1st, 1882.
 Bids will be addressed to the undersigned and marked "Proposals for District Paving Bonds," and must state the full name and address of bidder, the amount of said bonds desired (an equal amount due in one, two, three and four years) and the price proposed to be paid.
 The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.
 THOMAS HUCK,
 City Treasurer.

WET FEET.
 "There is a tide in the affairs of men, if taken at the flood leads on to fortune," and it seems to have been reached, when for the paltry sum of 25 cents you may secure that which will enable you to retain health, secure comfort and be preserved to a ripe and useful old age.
 C. C. Sablin has found the bonanza which humanity has so long needed in his water-proof putsh and leather preserving compound. No more wet feet, no more cold, cold, consumption, "Hot Springs" or Colorado—you get them all in the water-proof sound. Don't put off, but go at once to "S" dealer, and secure this life and health preserver "our water-proof and putsh."—Advertisement.

SCROFULA.
 The seat of all diseases of this nature is in the blood, as any one manifestly knows; therefore, if you purify the blood, the disease, in any form or stage, disappears. Read what those say who have tested the merits of the great vegetable blood purifier, S. S. S. It cleanses the blood of all scrofulous taint so thoroughly that the disease never returns.
 I had scrofula for seven months, the ulcer covering the entire surface of both legs. After having tried the usual remedies with no relief, I resorted to S. S. S., and an glad to say that six bottles has effectually cured me.
 A. S. LEVY,
 Atlanta, Ga.
 I suffered from scrofula 17 years.
 My shin bones were covered with ulcers and one mass of rotten flesh, and the odor was almost unbearable. All remedies and treatments failed until I began taking S. S. S. Previous to taking it I at times could scarcely walk. Now I can walk all day, and I have to thank S. S. S. and it only for my cure.
 THOS. McFARLAND,
 Atlanta, Ga.
 Some thirty years ago there lived in Montgomery, Ala., a young man who was terribly afflicted with Scrofula. After being treated for a long time by the medical profession of this town with no benefit, he commenced taking S. S. S. After persistently taking it two months he was cured.
 Being acquainted with him for 20 years thereafter, I can testify that the disease never returned.
