

The Daily Bee.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Saturday Morning, Dec. 9

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
By Carrier, 10 cents per week.
By Mail, $10.00 per year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTIONS

—J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall.
—Toys and Rogers at Seaman's, 38-41.
—Rev. A. Rogers will preach at the Baptist church to-morrow evening.
—Dishes, glassware, lamps, etc., at 303 Broadway. Howe & Son.
—Old papers for sale at The Bee office at 25 cents per hundred.
—Subscriber for newspapers and periodicals at H. E. Seaman's book store.
—The outgoing train eastward this afternoon is over the Chicago & Northwestern.
—Furniture of all kinds repaired by Howe & Son, 303 Broadway.
—Sail, sequins, fur trimmings, very low, at Metcalf Bros.
—The mails from the east came in on time except the B. & M., which was a little tardy.
—Large quantity of stoves and furniture at 303 Broadway. Howe & Son.
—New lot nicely decorated, 16 pieces, of tea sets, only $5 at Maurer & Craig.
—If you want anything in silks, linens, embroideries, hand-made lace, handkerchiefs, go to Bliss.
—In the district court yesterday the case of Phillips vs. the City of Council Bluffs was on trial.
—Hand-painted china, art pottery, solid silverware, bronzes, etc., at Maurer & Craig.
—The jury in the superior court has been discharged for the December term, after trying one case.
—Permit to wed was yesterday given to S. F. Kelly, of Hardin township, and Miss Amanda Jane Day, of Garner township.
—Ed Burke is the official chimney sweep of the city, and all orders entrusted to his care will be promptly filled. Leave orders opposite the Coy house, on Broadway.
—Since the cold weather started in the fine for drunkenness has been raised by Judge Aylesworth, though not always raised by the prisoners. Instead of $3 and costs it is now $5 and costs.
—One of the best displays from which to select holiday gifts is at Fd Stockert & Co.'s upholstery establishment, 309 Broadway. There are many really elegant goods and many novelties in that line. Call and see.
—Some idea of the sudden change of the weather may be gained from the fact that Dennis Gilmore was plowing in his field about fifteen miles north of here. On the next day he was shoveling away snowdrifts about his front door.
—J. J. Bliss, whose card appears in another column, is well prepared for the holiday trade, the display of fancy articles of all sorts to please the ladies and to ornament the parlor and the boudoir being one of the best ever shown up at that popular fashion and millinery emporium.
—There has been some talk of starting a large sized cigar factory in this city next spring, to employ about sixty-five hands. There seems no reason why an extensive cigar factory would not pay well here, and as a distributing point no city can afford better facilities. It is to be hoped that the enterprise will not end with talk.
—The petit jury was impaneled in the district court yesterday, consisting of Samuel Craver, of Keg Creek, R. P. Sealey, of Council Bluffs, H. C. Brandis, of James township, David Jerman, city, J. A. Price, of Hardin, L. S. Russell, city, Chris. Hagedorne, of Pleasant, S. P. Hanson, city, N. W. Matson, of Norwalk, A. B. Crandal, city, Elvin Carter, Rockford, J. A. Bunnell, Knox, Thomas Dulin, Valley, W. H. Bair, of Valley. The others on the regular panel were excused.
—The only jury case tried in the superior court this term was that of Lewellian vs. The C. & M. & St. P. Railway company in which the jury returned a verdict for the defendant, Lewellian had two suits against the company, one for wages and one for damages, and the former claim was settled by the company on condition that the latter suit, started before Justice Abbott, should be withdrawn. The latter case was dismissed and the suit begun in the superior court. The jury seemed to believe that the damage was settled by the dismissal of the suit before Justice Abbott.
—John Beno & Co. have just received a large stock of Silk Fur Worsted and Beaver Dolmans at lower prices than ever known in this market before. Call and examine them. dec-9-3t

B. F. Lankton has not the largest store nor the grandest display in the city, but if you want to buy something that is a "little" better than you can get almost anywhere else just drop in to the Bijou grocery opposite the court house, Main street. d9-3t

PERSONAL.
A. H. Fitch, business manager of The Omaha Commercial Record, was in the city yesterday interviewing advertisers with fair success.
Dr. E. L. Woodbury and George Phelps, of the Ogden house, have gone to Arizona to look after mining interests.
W. H. Brill, of Binghampton, N. Y., is at the Ogden.
J. B. Ricketts, of Dubuque, arrived here yesterday.
Sam J. Wolf, of Racine, Wis., is in the city.

One of the James boys is now in Council Bluffs and he has been seen by many of our people, and is personally known to quite a number. He is not the blood thirsty wretch that those who do not know him might suppose him to be, but is a genial gentleman who is busy as a beaver, furnishing the best of everything in the grocery line at such rates that all may live well. Call and see him at the corner of Willow and Main streets.

MORE CHANCES FOR CHARITY

Fresh Cases of Destitution and Want Where Food, Clothing and Money Will do the Most Good.

Yesterday several new cases of destitution and want were discovered by Rev. Mr. Lumen, who is at present giving almost his entire time to distributing the contributions placed in his hands for the needy of the city. One of these was a widow lady with five children. She had no stove, and the bitter cold weather was causing herself and little ones, much suffering. A cheap stove was furnished her, it being purchased out of money contributed by generous-hearted citizens. Another case was that of a man at Streetville, who is sick, and hence unable to work. He was in need of care and comfort, and by being helped out of his present condition will be as before, a self-sustaining citizen. Mr. Lumen started out yesterday with an express wagon pretty well filled with food, bundles of clothing, and other articles for the needy ones. He says that the people have showed themselves most generous, and yet there can be much more good done. All of the clothing and other articles thus far contributed have been good and serviceable, and not old remnants and castaway garments. There is a special need now, he says, of bedding. Very few contribute in that line, as few families have more than what they want to use themselves. He says that he could dispose of fifty blankets and comfortable to great advantage to those who are really suffering for the want of them. The cash fund was yesterday reduced to about $3. One thing is rather remarkable—every cash contribution thus far has been without solicitation, with one or two exceptions. The money has been sent through the postoffice and handed in without the asking, and still there is a chance to use more.

The ladies are joining heartily in the good work, and at a gathering at the chapel of the Baptist church Thursday afternoon there was a goodly number present, armed with needles and provided with material, from which they proceeded to make garments for the needy. One family of children were brought in, measured and comfortable clothes made for all of them, then and there, so that they will be able to attend school. At the next meeting others will be clothed in like manner.

BADLY MASHED.
All the ladies, on the beautiful Holiday Gifts at Bliss'. Gentlemen, don't you forget it. 323 Broadway.

J. A. Churchill & Co., pump manufacturers of this city, have their showrooms at the junction of Main and Pearl. They have the best chain pump in the world—their own patent—and they are sending it to Chicago, Boston and all over the country.

Their standard stock pump is the best made of any we have examined. They also handle the Howe scale, for which they are general agents.

Death of President Porter.
L. Baldwin received a telegram last evening from John R. Schaeffer, of Fairfield, Iowa, stating the death of John W. Porter, Mr. Porter has been president of the Iowa State Agricultural society for several years. His home is in Iowa City, where his funeral will take place on Monday afternoon.

The nearest little store in town is A. Culver's, and his counters are thronged all day with customers. Of course this is the time for holiday purchases, but here there is a steady trade in staple goods, sold at low figures. A large list of specially fine materials for holiday goods are now offered. Opposite Kiel's Hotel, Main street.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.
Gives strength where there has been exhaustion and vigor in place of impaired vitality.

What We Want.
Give Homeopathic pills, Allopathic pills, for rheumatism, for aches, for pains and sprains, THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL is infinitely superior to either. It has benefited as many people as it has had purchasers. All druggists sell it.

At Phoenix Hall.
Wagner & Meyer have here the celebrated Annheuser Busch, St. Louis beer, on tap. dec-3t

Nervousness, peevishness and fretting, so often accompanied with overworked females' lives, is rapidly relieved by Brown's Iron Bitters.

A New Paper Editor.
O. M. Holcom, of Bloomville, Ohio, rises to explain: "Had that terrible disease catarrh, for twenty years; couldn't taste or smell and hearing was failing. Thomas' Electric Oil cured me. These are facts voluntarily given against a former prejudice of patent medicine."

PICKED BY THE POLICE.
Several Minor Cases which Demanded Attention Yesterday.

A colored boy, giving his name as Ed Henry, sneaked a box of cigars of Duquette, Guibert & Co.'s wholesale confectionery store yesterday, and was arrested by Officer Morse. The youth pleaded guilty to larceny and Judge Aylesworth sent him to jail for thirty days.

Two men named Sales and Blumer got into quarreling over a game of dominoes, one charging the other with cheating. Words led to mutual blows, and Blumer was arrested for assault. The evidence brought out the fact that both were to blame, and after Blumer had been fined $5 and sales an information was filed against Sales, and he was called upon to contribute a like amount, which caused him to regret that he hadn't kept still and let Blumer go.

John Miller was on an ugly drunk Thursday night, and was raising so much of a disturbance at the Linden house that Chief Field was called in. The chief collared the man, and had quite a desperate struggle with him, as the man was being on top, a policeman the other. Miller was yesterday arraigned on two charges—one of being drunk, and the other of assault, having smashed a man's finger the night before. He pleaded guilty, and was taken in at $15.

Burt Scott and Dennis Murray, for being drunk, were yesterday fined $5 each and costs.

The young man Davis, who was arrested for beating a countryman out of $40, by taking it right out of his hand, was taken before Justice Frailey and by him discharged. The victim testified to the fellow's identity, and claimed that he took the money out of his hand without his consent. The prisoner did not deny having taken the money, but swore that it was given to him to see if it was good, and that he in turn was robbed of it or else lost it.

The question on which this case seemed to turn was whether the money was handed over voluntarily or snatched out of the victim's hand, and there being no corroborative testimony on either side the justice let the fellow go.

Yesterday the man Owens, arrested in Minnesota for impersonating other persons and getting time checks cashed by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy company, was before Justice Frailey yesterday. He waited an examination and was bound over to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $500, which being unable to furnish, he was sent back to jail.

"What Can't be Cured Must be Endured."
This old adage does not signify that we must suffer the miseries of dyspepsia, when a medicine with the curative properties of Burdock Blood Bitters is available. It is one of the most substantial and reliable remedies sold to day.

GOLD ROPE.
The intrinsic merit and superior quality of our Gold Rope Tobacco has induced many manufacturers to put upon the market rods similar to our brand in name and style which are offered and sold for less money than the genuine Gold Rope. We caution the trade and consumer to see the mark. The only genuine and original Gold Rope Tobacco is manufactured by THE WILSON & McNALLY TOBACCO COMPANY.
