OMAHA MARKETS.

Wholesale Prices.

OFFICE OF THE OMAHA BEE, Saturday Evening, December 18.

The wholesale trade of the city for the past week was reported as fair for the season and changes of values unimportant.

Dry goods, particularly woolens, were in good demand. Orders coming in freely on mail order account and prices selling steady. There was also a fair movement in clothing, rubber goods and millinery.

Groceries were more active with no new features further than a slight decline in sugars and syrups.

Dried fruits were in demand, and prices generally steady, though peaches are firm at quotations and a slight advance may be looked for.

Drugs generally all quiet with very few changes in values.

The produce market was fairly active at steady prices. The receipts of most goods in this line about equal to the demand. The receipts of choice butter and fresh eggs is only moderate, and consignments meet with ready sale on arrival, while inferior grades and limed eggs are plenty and have to be shaded to effect business.

Provisions are moving fairly, though prices weakening. See revised quotations.

Poultry and game is in moderate supply though not equal to the demand, prices remain unchanged.

The flour market did not show any increased movement, prices remain steady. Other millstuffs sold fairly at quotations

Green fruits and vegetables were in adequate supply for the demand, and sold at firmer quotations.

The receipts of hogs during the week was 135 cars. Packers paying $5 60 for good.

The local grain market has fluctuated more or less since our last review, though remain about the same. Corn and oats being the most marked, corn having declined 6c and oats advanced 5c. The weather now is all that could be desired, and retailers anticipate an active holiday trade which already shows considerable animation

The only changes reported in the market to-day are as follows:

Wheat, No. 2, declined 2c.
Wheat, No. 3, declined ½c.
Corn declined 2c.
Cured hides declined 1c.
Mink skins declined 15@20c.
