-Anyone having any work for men or women, would do well to interview Rev. Mr. Lemen, as there are a few whom he knows, to whom a chance to earn something would be the truest help, they need ing help of some sort.

-There were no new revelations yesterday in the case of Burnell, arrested for Coy house is quite ill with neuralgia. incest. It is expected that to-day some tidings will be received from Lincoln, and it is probable that his wife will come from there to testify in the matter. He has not been brought into court yet, but is kept closely quartered in jail,

-Much of the time in the district court yesterday was taken up in the trial of the case of Kate McGibney vs. Henry Bee craft, it being a claim for damages for personal injuries received by being thrownfrom a buggy hired at the defendant's stable, and and which buggy the plaintiff claims was the city on legal business yesterday, James defective. Myuster & Adams appeared M. Kelley, of the same place accompanied for plaintiff, and D. B. Dailey for defend. him.

-Some contractors were here yesterday looking after a chance to pave Main street and Broadway with a macadam of Sioux Falls granite. They propose to put on six inches of limestone macadamized and on top of this six inches of the granite, and say the cost will be about $2.25 a yard. City Engineer Tosteyin seems to favor to Baltimore this morning, carrying with some such paving in preference to cedar blocks, claiming that the latter is but little cheaper, and in the long run much dearer. The specimens which the Sioux Falls men brought with them are pronounced by him as showing up well and well adapted for paving purposes.

-There is a vein of humor which occasionally trickles through the alim form of Rev. Clark, of The Nonparell. An Omaha newspaper man came over to this side the other day with a big roll of money. His name is suppressed, as it is so unusual for a newspaper man to be thus situated, that it would be cruel to ret all of his creditors on to bim at once. The Omaha man, however, showed up his roll to Clark and asked him if he was a confidence man. Clark jososely grabbed the roll, and looking over his shoulder, remarked, "Yes, but look out, there's a policeman on the corner, and if he sees me I'll have to whack

While in Hawley's barber shop in the afternoon, waiting for a shave, Clark casually examined the Police News, suddenly starting and involuntarily exclaiming: "Well, I've got the Gd_______!" The remark was caused by a portrait of a woman named Jennie

Regney, alias Sophia Clark, a servant girl thief charged with having stolen $20,000 worth of goods in the east. Clark stated by way of explanation that he was a detective and had the woman under surveillance at the Jagger house.
