-The trial of criminal cases still seems in the distance, civil cases still occupying the attention of the district court. District Attorney Connor started for home yesterday, but will return when needed.

-Lutz & Lange have now opened a retall store in connection with their wholesale establishment in Shugart's new block. -The masquerade to be given on the

-The ladies of the city met again yesterday afternoon to do some sawing for the poor. There were several sewing machines and many pairs of nimble, willing hands kept busy for several hours in the good work.

-The church folks are as busy as bees making preparations for their Christmas entertainments. Among the unique features promised is a Christmas ship at the Baptist church and Mother Goose and her churches are yet to be heard from.

-It will do the prisoners at the jail little good now to make any rush for escape when the jailer opens the door into the corridor. An arch in the outer hallway has been filled with iron bars, and another big door is to be hung there to-day, so that if they should rush out of the first door they would be stopped by the second,

-Brown & Young have had several bogs stolen from their slaughter house. As long as the thieves stole live ones they did not care much, but night before last they took one already dressed. This was too much. and the losers proceeded to put in some time in tracing up the thief of the pork, and at last accounts were still on the hunt.

-The Council Bluffs Mannerchor is to give a grand Christmas ball at Turner Hall next Monday evening. The party is to be strictly an invitation one, and as the Mannerchor is composed of our best and leading German citizens, there is no doubt but that this promised event will be a heartily enjoyable one.

-The case of Kate McGibney vs Hen ry Beceroft came to an end in the district ecurt yesterday, the jury bringing in a verdict in favor of defendant. The claim made by the plaintiff was that she was entitled to damages for personal injuries received by being thrown from a buggy, which she bired of Beecroft and which broke down. The jury evidently thought differently.

THE CANCER AND TUMOR BREAD UPON THE WATERS

Man may in many ways benefit his kind, and make the world happier The Work of Belping the Worthy and better for his residence therein. The typical statesman saves the nation from war or financial disaster, and receives the plaudits of the people. The true preacher devotes his energies to making men nobler. Yesterday the chief of police of purer and more just, and is rewarded Lincoln, Neb., arrived here to get by the love and veneration of all who Burnell, the man arrosted here for know him. The physician is, howincest. It seems that he is wanted at ever, hampered in his field, which Lincoln on a charge of rape, it being is grand in its possibilities for doing one, the donation not being dealt out alleged that he committed the crime good. The usages of his profession as mere charity, giving the recipients upon the same little daughter, who are much the same to-day as they claimed here to be the victim of his were a hundred years ago. To invent, to discover, was then, and is to day, a cause for less fortunate or less industrious practitioners to hurl epithats and to strive to make it appear that no one had progressed any further than themselves. But in spite of all this, a spirit of reform is abroad, weak as yet, but growing stronger every year. Specialists are now found in every school of medicine, a thing which of late was branded as quackery. Physicians of the broadest soon as he got a divorce from his wife, resorted to instruments. His treatwent to Lincoln on the same train, ment is simple but effective. He re-and thus this city is rid of the whole stores the diseased parts to healthy action, the abnormal conditions cease It is claimed that the fellow's conviction in Lincoln will be quite sure, as there is one girl besides the victim herself, who was an eyewitness to the affair, and who will testify to the affair, and who will testify to the affair, and who will manage to promise the fact that special skill and vemarkable success have been the chief characteristics in the professional career of Dr. Rice, which dates back over thirty years. Of course not every invalid has been, or can be, cured, but if only one case of pronounced cancer had been cured by Dr. Rice he would be entitled to the honor of saving life and achieving what few others have successfully accomplished. But the facts are notorious in this city that Dr. Rice cures things almost every month, and tu-mors are bottled up at the rate of one a week sometimes. Now the pain, the lives, the widows' and orphans' tears that have been saved should certainly but can do any sort of entitle such a man to a full share of the honors and emoluments usually bestowed on deserving men, and why should not we of the west put in our claims when we have a right to de-mand a consideration for them? Besides these specially noted points of success, Dr. Rice has handled with rare skill a great many cases of lung difficulties and chronic diseases generally. His office is next door to THE BEE, and we like to show our friends the wonders of the doctor's cabinet. And, by the way, that office is characteristic of the man; it is neat and cheerful, and is enlivened by a thouwho is an expert in wax, and then the engravings and diplomas lend a professional air to the otherwise parlor-like surroundings.

The liberality of the citizens and the judictous distribution by Rev. Mr. Leven are serving to not only relieve the wants of some worthy realdents, but some of these are being fast put in the city resterday. . in etadition to be again welf support-

The principle upon which this charitable help is being bestowed is a good a sense of pauporism and confirming ician pronounces it malarial fever, habits of helpicesness, but they are being so bestowed as to help them in the truest sense.

The carpet rag plan is working ad-feeling any inconvenience beyond the Utah, to spend the winter with som These friends trovble of gathering them up. These carpet rags are given to families who are in need and they sew and prepare them for weaving. Among the women who are needing help is one who weaves carpets, and she is thus given work. The carpets are given where needed to destitute families and the balance sold as additional revenue for the relief of others. More maby a little thoughtfulness on the part of good housewives there should be no lack of supplies for keeping up this feature of the work. Those who have more material than they can conveniently peliver at the Baptist church should inform Mr. Lemen, personally or by postal and an express wagon will be sent for them. There is still a chance to use to advantage articles of clothing and of bedding, as well as food and

One instance may serve to show how the help is being distributed. Among those needing help is a mute, who has been struggling along as best he could, and has managed to pay $40 on a little house on which he still owes $35. He has of late been suffering from malarial fever, and the little house is in such condition that it does not afford needed protection to the family from storms and bitter blasts. Some lumber has been procured and a carpenter set at work to make the place more habitable. Now, this carpenter is a man who, having met with sickness and other reverses, has got so reduced that he, too, needs temporary help. Some tools have been purchased for him and he has been set at work fixing up the mute's house and his wages credited on the amount paid for the tools, so that, in fact, he has bought the tools on credit and is paying for them in work. He plain carpentering, and anyone having such work will do well to bear the same in mind, and furnish him with tools and restored to health, will now become self supporting and able in

There is now on hand in the cash fund about $60. rt is desired as soon as possible to swell this fund so as to be able to buy a lot for the widow's house of which mention has been made, and which will require about e100. This cash fund shall not be allowed to dwindle down, however, and beautiful flowers, the work of some friend who is an expert to war. provided with shelter, and such demands must be met. Cash therefore Pearl Street, near Broadway. shall continue to flow in.

In conversation with Mr. Lemen yesterday he informed us that he has ound in his visitations practical evidences that several ladies of the city sick, going on their missions modestly and without sound of trumpet, and yet gladening the hearts of many. How many of these quiet woman workers there are it is impossible to tell, but among those whose work he has chanced to come upon in several homes are Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Merkel, Mrs. Houghton, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Terwilliver, and there are others, doubtless. who are likewise joined in such good work. One kind-hearted person has already ordered forty dressed turkeys to be distributed among some of the families unable to buy turkeys for Christ-

Another worthy plan is on foot for providing a dinner for some of the poor boys of the city during the holidays. Thus the good work goes on. Silk handkerchiefs and mufflers at Harkness, Orcutt & Co.'s.

* *"Example is better than preept. It is well known that dyspep sia, billous attacks, headache and many other ills can only be cured by removing their cause. Kidney-Wort has been proved to be the most effectual remedy for these, and for habitual costiveness, which so afflicts millions of the American people.

WINSTON, FORSYTH Co., N. C. GENTS-I desire to express to you my thanks for your wonderfur Hop Bitters.
