

The Daily Bee.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Saturday Morning, Dec. 23.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 10 cents per week. By Mail, $10.00 per year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTIONS.

-J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall. -Dishes, glassware, lamps, etc., at 303 Broadway. Howe & Son. -Old papers for sale at THE BEE office at 25 cents per hundred. -John McMahon was in police court yesterday for being drunk. -Imported and Key West cigars constantly on hand at Lotz & Lange's. -Subscribe for newspapers and periodicals at H. E. Seaman's book store. -Furniture of all kinds repaired by Howe & Son, 303 Broadway. -The outgoing eastern trains this afternoon are the C. & N. I. and the C. M. & St. P. -Sea' acquiesces for trimmings, very low, at Mitchell Bros. -Remember the first annual ball of the Bluff City Typographical Union at Bloom & Nixon's hall. It will be a merry one, sure. -Large quantity of stoves and furniture at 303 Broadway. Howe & Son. -New lot nicely decorated, 56 pieces, lot tea sets, only $5 at Maurer & Craig. -One of the novelties in business circles is the promise of a Christmas tree this evening at "Our Meat Market," on Broadway. Friends and patrons are invited to drop in and be made glad. -Hand-painted china, art pottery, solid silverware, bronzes, etc., at Maurer & Craig. -In the district court yesterday the trial of the case of Stuart & Lewis vs. the Council Bluffs insurance company was still in progress, occupying the court all day. -Largest stock of Toys and Holiday Goods in the city at Seaman's. Prices defy competition. -A new and very cool way of doing business is that of a shooting gallery proprietor who has opened out in a long port on Main street, opposite Shugart's. The man who runs it is a fancy shot and wants to shoot with Carver or Buffalo Bill. -A railway man named Frank Dunn was arrested yesterday on the charge of seduction. He gave bail in the sum of $300, to appear before the next grand jury. He claims that it is a put up job on him, and desires it to be dismissed. -Lotz & Lange's fine selection of amber, merchandise and smokers' goods of the best grades is supplying the holiday demand in this line. -Miss Sophia Rehe, a sister of Mrs. J. J. Bluff, has shown some work in art by a painting of "Rip Van Winkle," which represents him just after he awoke from his long slumber. It is a painting of much merit, and one which reflects credit on the young lady artist. -Lotz & Lange have now opened a retail store in connection with their wholesale establishment in Shugart's new block. -A plasterer named William Rue, while at work on the McMahon block, Thursday, fell by the giving away of a scaffold and broke an ankle. His physician thinks he will be laid up about six weeks. -The Council Bluffs insurance company, by its secretary, J. Q. Anderson, sends out a very handsome holiday greeting to its friends and patrons, stating that it has enjoyed a year of unprecedented success, as is evident from its assets having reached over $150,000, and wishing all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. -Prof. J. J. Slattery, who has charge of St. Joseph's academy, was yesterday given evidence of the high esteem felt for the boys, by being presented by them with a gold headed cane—a beautiful gift, and well merited by the recipient, who has done excellent work at the academy. -It is pretty evident that it is of little use to howl about confidence men hanging about town as long as the city licenses gambling houses to run at will. These places at least attract those fellows to hang about here, even if they do not directly encourage them and back them up, which is not very improbable in view of the past.

-The Omaha Republican yesterday got slightly mixed in its art notes. In describing a portrait of the late Judge Caleb Baldwin, it spoke of him as J. T. Baldwin, and headed its article "The Late John T. Baldwin," startling those few of his friends who chanced to see it. John T. was around yesterday as usual and denied being dead, and his word is certainly good for it. He certainly was alive at the last election, and the result hasn't weakened him any. -As most know, the postoffice regulations require letter carriers to wear uniforms when on duty. There is no uniform overcoat, and by a recent ruling in Washington the letter carriers of that city have been compelled to go the rounds in the bitter cold without any overcoats, as they hid the uniforms. The telegram giving this information stated that this ruling would affect the letter carriers in all cities, but inquiry of Postmaster Armour here, failed to reveal that the carriers of this city were being allowed to make themselves comfortable, even if a silver button should get hidden out of sight. -Officer Cusick on Thursday night arrested a fellow giving his name as John Newman, who was much the worse for drink. At the police station he was searched and only $4.75 found about him. He had a pair of old mittens, but these were carelessly thrown down in one corner. Yesterday morning, on being sobered up and brought into court, Newman was fined the usual amount and then called for his mittens. He fished out of the thumb, where he had carefully hidden his wealth, four fifty dollar bills and one ten dollar bill. It was a surprise party to court and officers. It seems that when he started on his spree he took what money he thought he might need and stored the rest away in this unique safe.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

An Old Man of Seventy Years Wanders Upon the Cold Prairie for Days.

His Remains Found Stark and Stiff

The details of an exceedingly sad affair reaches us through The Harlan Tribune of yesterday, the facts being about as follows: Isaac Cuppy, an old man of seventy years, left his home in Grove township, December 4, to visit his son-in-law, Frank Maroo, in Polk township. He remained there until Tuesday morning, December 7, when he started for home. He went to Irwin, which place he left about 4 o'clock p. m. in a buggy, with a Mr. Johnson, of DeFiance. He rode as far as A. P. Anderson's, about three miles northwest of Irwin, and, this being the nearest point on that road to his home, he got out and went into Anderson's house to warm. He soon left there, striking across the prairie for home. Last Tuesday, Dec. 14th, his family thinking he had probably made his visit out, went to Maroo's after him with a team, when they were told that he had started home Dec. 7th. This naturally alarmed the community and search was instituted following him as above described. From Anderson's he was tracked in the snow, his course wandering about the prairie until his remains were found stark and stiff one hundred yards south of Anderson's house. It will be remembered that December 7th was the coldest day of the winter thus far, and men in the vigor of youth kept close to the fire. But Isaac Cuppy is known the country over as a man of ordinary vitality and energy. Upon his person was found $7.50 in silver. No marks of violence were visible. Consequently it is reasonable to suppose that he became bewildered in the storm and wandered about until exhausted and chilled. The remains will be preserved five days to give time for all his children and other relatives to be present at the funeral. New plashes received at Harkness, Orcutt & Co.'s.

PERSONAL.

R. Porter, of Ottumwa, was in the city yesterday. Arthur F. Conway, of Silverton, Col., is at the Ogden. G. S. Green and wife, of Missouri Valley, are in the city. Miss Lizzie Brown, daughter of G. D. Brown, is at home for her holiday vacation. Miss LuLu Jones, daughter of J. J. Jones, is at home to spend a few days from her musical studies in Chicago. Miss Carrie Atkins, who has been away to school, is at home to spend her holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atkins. Miss Nellie Larimer, niece of Judge Larimer, arrived here yesterday over the C. & N. I. from Chicago, where she has been attending St. Park institute. She was accompanied by her friend and school mate, Miss Mamie Leonard. They will remain at the Ogden home during the holidays as the guests of Judge Larimer.

DE HAVENS'

Last call before Christmas. Don't forget to stop for Holiday Presents, at DE HAVENS'

Without a doubt the most lovely toilet sets are to be found at Grandy's corner drug store. Don't fail to see the fine display of new, beautiful and useful holiday articles exhibited at this popular corner store.

HOW SWEET.

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for the people of all Christendom to indulge in the luxury of holiday confectonery, a decent respect for the stomachs of our sons, daughters and wives, compels us to carefully choose the article we are about to purchase. Hence it is that the candies of Hughes & Towles, being fresh, pure and of good repute, are sought after and universally purchased. And we, therefore, hold this house, as we hold the houses of all other honorable dealers, as being worthy of the extensive patronage they are now receiving.

TOYS! TOYS!

We have a large assortment of toys on hand that we will sell off at cost, as we are discontinuing that branch of our business entirely. We invite all who buy toys for the children to give us a call. C. B. JACQUEMIN & Co.

Go to P. C. & W. D. Kirkland, Manufacturing Jewelers, Jewelry, Silver and Silver-plated ware. 329 Broadway, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

R. P. Snow is rushing out a large amount of goods nowadays, and no wonder. He is a gentleman of the old school who says a thing is good, bad or indifferent, just as it really is. Call at the Excelsior gallery, corner Main street and First avenue. Holiday pictures; best work. dec 12-10.

Mandel at 325 Broadway will sell stoves cheaper than the cheapest.

LADIES.

A fine stock of Holiday Slippers is what we have for you, select from. Z. T. LINDSEY & Co.

Go to Harkness, Orcutt & Co.'s for dolmans—fur trimmed dolmans, wool dolmans and fine silk dolmans. d13f

Solid silverware, only first-class goods, (sterling). No charges for engraving at C. E. JACQUEMIN & Co.'s.

Further Gifts. Among the additional gifts made by citizens for the benefit of the coming fair at St. Francis' academy are: Pickle cator, S. Bowley; small cabinet, S. J. Rhoda & Co.; elegant album, H. E. Seaman; solid gold ring, Michaels & Daniel; silver butter dish, Robinson Bros.; marble top table, Beebe & Co.; boys' hat, L. H. Mosler & Co.; dinner cator and silver, Mrs. J. Wickham; $20, Wm. Fitzgerald. Judge Jones has also donated a lady's gold neck chain which is a beautiful and costly present.

Silk handkerchiefs and mittens at Harkness, Orcutt & Co.'s.

All wishing to present themselves or their friends with a souvenir in gold, silver or art design, should not fail to call on C. B. Jacquemin & Co., and make their selections for the holidays early, at 27 Main street.

At the brand new store there is a brand new stock. L. B. Clark & Co., 106 east Broadway, have the noblest lot of druggists' sundries in the holiday goods line that can be found anywhere up-town, and we are not sure that Council Bluffs has a drug store that will beat it. The doctor is a genial gentleman. Call and get acquainted.

The above was in Monday's local, but the number was wrong, hence this "Amende honorable."

S. J. RODDA & CO. THE PEOPLE'S CLOTHIERS, COR. BROADWAY & BRYANT. IT IS THE PLACE.

Christmas Novelties, at Harkness, Orcutt & Co.'s.

COMMERCIAL.

The grain markets in Chicago and elsewhere were steady today, and with anticipated light receipts, which are sure to follow a severe decline in prices, we look for increased activity and much higher prices after the holidays. It appears that the climate in Chicago have undertaken to bear prices in order to load up with cheap grain, and it won't surprise us if some of the shorts don't get left.

The visible supply of corn December 23, 1881, was 18,517,51 bushels, and the price in Chicago on that day was 50 1/2 per bu. The visible supply December 23, 1882, was 6,467,600 bu. and the price in Chicago on that day was 50 1/2.

Taking the law of supply and demand for a basis, there is no reason why the price should not be as high as it was one year ago.

TESTIMONIALS.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA, Dec. 21, 1882. Dear Sir—Some two years and a half since you visited this city, and at that time I was troubled with my eyes, caused by excessive proof-reading and other office work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, typed or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitation in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, J. C. MORGAN, Editor and Publisher Globe.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA, Feb. 14, 18 0. Dear Sir—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in a very humble way express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes. You have tried other glasses and medicines, but all to no purpose, and I had concluded my eyes would never be restored to their normal state. I was nearly blind, now see, and am able to read as never could before. I regret that I do not meet frequently, but I trust that I might have been enjoying this blessing of seeing. Hoping that many others may have the benefit of your help, I am, gratefully yours, MISS ABBY WALTON, Nurse.

While on the Pacific coast, years ago I became partially blind, and my right eye has never recovered. I was able to see and read, but it was a great deal to help me, also other remedies, but it was of no use, as no one could help me. When Prof. Samuels was in the city a few years ago, I was advised by one of my friends who was benefited by him to call on him. I did so, and am glad to state that he helped me wonderfully. He fitted me at that time with a pair of his glasses, and they gave me instant relief, and after using them for a short time my eyes improved so that I had no need for the glasses at all. My sight is perfect, although I was advised not to put on glasses, for I would have to wear them all the time; but Prof. Samuels' glasses were different. They improved my eyes, and I would advise all persons who have trouble with their eyes to call on him. Respectfully, A. T. JOHNSON, City Printer, Omaha, Ia. December 15.

Some years since, while engaged in editorial labor at night, my eyesight became impaired, and I found it difficult to find glasses which would afford any relief. During the past two or three years my eyes grew weaker by constant use, and I began to be alarmed, but I thought a time be obliged to lay aside my books, which I so much delight in. Providence, I think, has allayed my fears, for I would have to wear them all the time; but Prof. Samuels' glasses were different. They improved my eyes, and I would advise all persons who have trouble with their eyes to call on him. Respectfully, E. H. E. JAMISON, Pastor First Baptist Church, City of Omaha, Ia. December 15.

OMAHA, September 18, 1879. Prof. H. Samuels: I have now used the glasses which you furnished me for one week and can truly say I have derived more comfort in that short space of time than in years previous. Almost from my earliest recollection I have suffered from an inability to see distinctly even when close by, sometimes I feel to know or recognize my most intimate friends, all of which was a constant source of more affliction to me. I tried remedies and glasses of different kinds with but very little benefit, and until I called upon you, and used your glasses. Thanks to your skill, I am able to see better than ever before. Try Prof. Samuels' treatment and be benefited as I have been. Very truly yours, MARY ROSSARD, 2329 Deodar Street.
