

The Daily Bee. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Friday Morning, Dec. 29.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 30 cents per week. By Mail, $10.00 per Year.

Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTIONS.

-J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall. -A set of buggy runners for sale at H. E. Seaman's. -Dishes, glassware, lamps, etc., at 303 Broadway. Howe & Son. -Bertha Welch is to appear on New Year's day at Dohany's, in "One Woman's Life."

-Large assortment of New Year gifts at H. E. Seaman's. -Old papers for sale at Tax Bx office at 25 cent per hundred.

-Charles Dewey and Emma M. Converse, of Hancock, were yesterday granted permit to wed.

-Imported and Key Tux cigars constantly on hand at Lutz & Lange's. -The man Berry, who was found on the streets so badly frozen, has been taken to the county house for treatment.

-Prof. Samuels will close his office on Sunday, December 31. -The ladies of the city met again yesterday afternoon at the Baptist chapel to sew for those who needed clothing. So the good work goes on.

-The Rescue boys are making great preparations for their masquerade to be given on the 10th of next month, and expectancy is on tip top. -Subscribes for newspapers and periodicals at H. E. Seaman's book store.

-Furniture of all kinds repaired by Howe & Son, 303 Broadway. -At the Methodist parsonage yesterday Mr. H. G. Millard and Miss Fanny D. Page, both of Council Bluffs, were married by Rev. P. F. Brees.

-New lot nicely decorated, 156 pieces, of tea sets, only $5.00 at Maurer & Craig. -Hand-painted china, art pottery, solid silverware, bronzes, etc., at Maurer & Craig.

-The funeral services of J. S. McCallister were held at the Western home yesterday afternoon, and called together a large number of sympathizing friends. -Lutz & Lange's fine selection of amber, meerschaum and smokers' goods of the best grades is supplying the holiday demand in this line.

-Mrs. T. B. Hayes, who is enjoying a visit from her father, mother and sister, has been giving a series of parties this week, thus affording her friends a chance to meet them, as well as to enjoy the well known hospitality of the home.

-Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Patterson entertained a happy gathering of their friends at their home on Bancroft street Wednesday evening. The evening hours were filled with mirth, music and good cheer, and all enjoyed themselves heartily.

-Lutz & Lange have now opened a retail store in connection with their wholesale establishment in Shugart's new block. -J. P. Bushnell, of Des Moines, who published Council Bluffs' last directory, is now engaged on a state gazetteer and business directory, together with a full showing of Iowa, its resources and industries. The prospectus indicates that the work will be a valuable one for reference.

-Mrs. Martin was brought before Justice Frayne yesterday on a charge of assaulting a neighbor, Mrs. Blass. She pleaded guilty, and was fined $5 and costs. Steps were then taken to inquire into Mrs. Blass' sanity, she being so evidently eccentric as to cause a strong doubt about it.

-Justice Abbott had three weddings yesterday, one being John Reines and Theoda Seikmann, both of Weston; another, Lewis Brandt and Francis Hoeman, both of Norwalk; the third being Martin Ramussen and Mary Heinrichsen, both of this city. The justice has cake enough now to last him several days.

-Some one who had not the fear of God or the Tax Bx before his eyes, has broken off the well-secured top of the coal-bin attached to the office, and even stolen the lock. The Tax Bx still lives, but gives due notice that it will be decidedly interesting for the next fellow who visits its fire pile, and interesting for the public also, as the results will surely have an item of special spice.

-The following have been installed officers of Harmony Chapter No. 25, Order of Eastern Star: Mrs. A. C. Graham, W.M.; G. H. Jackson, W. F.; Mrs. G. H. Jackson, A. M.; Mrs. D. McWorkman, conductress; Mrs. Wing, A. C.; Mrs. T. B. Hayes, treasurer; Mrs. Maynard, secretary; Miss Carrie Huntington, Ad. H.; Mrs. G. W. Jacobs, Ruth; Mrs. Storey, Esther; Mrs. Horton, Martha; Mrs. S. S. Nash, Electa.

-The old soldiers of the Grand Army of the Republic here should bear in mind the following promise of a good time when the spring time comes, gentle Annie, it being from The Crawford County Bulletin. "The G. A. R. outfit has arrived and the ante-room of their hall looks like an arsenal. They have thirty-two stand of muskets, three sets side arms and an elegant banner. Arrangements are to be made for a great camp-fire to be held on the fair grounds in the spring, in which other poets will participate, and a sham battle fought. An exhibition of this kind will prove of great interest."

-There is no better time for action upon the bridge question than the present. Let us move at once. The matter is of vital importance. The future of this city largely depends upon it. We want the western wholesale trade. The bridge will furnish a competing outlet. We want the western roads, and if we have a bridge open to all at reasonable charges, who doubts but that all western roads will go a mile or two in order to reach a city with tens of thousands of people. Let the eastern roads cross to Omaha. How much will it hurt us? Will it not be better than to have them cross at Blair/Plattsmouth, thus injuring us and Omaha, too. The wagon bridge will give us the residences of hundreds of U. P. shop and smelting works employes. The combined wagon and railroad bridge will bring the business that requires ample room, such as freight

WHITELEY'S WEALTH.

Some of It Has Disappeared With the Treasurer of His "Hidden Hand" Company—His Other Company Making Good the Loss Here.

Whiteley's Dramatic company, with Miss Ida Lewis as the drawing card, is drawing good houses here this week and giving great satisfaction, the repertoire being large enough to allow of a change every evening. Miss Lewis being a brilliant actress of great versatility, the support being strong and the prices popular. Mr. Whiteley is himself one of the most popular managers and has met with great success, but like all successful men, he has to take a share of reverses as well. He has another company on the road this season, playing in The "Hidden Hand," and as stated in The Bee dispatches the other day, he has met with quite a loss by the young man to whom he had given the position of treasurer of that company. This young man's name is Cummins, and he has made Muscatine, Iowa, his home for some time, though his parents live in the east, his father being a clergyman. Young Cummins has been chief clerk in the Muscatine postoffice, and has been held in high esteem not only by the citizens of that place but also by the postoffice officials, for whom he had taken a handsome offer of a position with $1,500 salary. Whiteley had implicit confidence in Cummins until lately. The company was in Texas and Mr. Whiteley did not hear from Cummins for seventeen days, and during that time did not receive any remittances. After writing and telegraphing in vain Mr. Whiteley went to where the company was and there met Mr. Cummins, who acknowledged that he was a little short in his account, having had to overdraw some two or three hundred dollars. On learning this state of affairs Mr. Whiteley concluded to dispense with Cummins' services, and so informed him, telling him, moreover, that he would pay his fare back to Muscatine. While checking over the books, Cummins suddenly disappeared, and a full investigation showed that the young man instead of being $200 ahead, had taken about $1,500. The cause of Cummins' default is a mystery, as up to this time he had the reputation of being both honest and of correct personal habits. The difficulty prevented Mr. Whiteley from being here with this company, as he expected, and during his absence Mr. R. G. Guphill, who has been with him for years, takes the management. The company is doing nicely here, and the officers are being filed up, if crowded houses are any indication.

PERSONAL.

W. H. Edwards and wife, of Webster City, were here yesterday. P. M. Guthrie and wife, of Cornell, dined at the Ogden yesterday.

Rev. John Broughan, of Vermillion, Dakota, visited this city yesterday. George T. Phelps, of the Ogden brass, has returned from his trip to Arizona.

Mrs. Annie Orsney, of Avoca, is visiting in this and our neighboring cities for the rest of the week.

Miss Annie Wright, one of Avoca's high school teachers, is in the city on a visit to her friends, who will also visit in Omaha before her return.

E. J. Sayre and mother, of Jasper county, Mo., are in the city on a visit to friends and relatives.

O. C. Foote, Esq., one of Stewart's citizens, is in the city to-day a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Norris. He goes from here to Avoca to make a visit to relatives.

Charles S. Hubbard, of Iowa, formerly a well known resident of this city, and an ex-warden of the First Ward, is in town visiting his brother, Benjamin P. Hubbard, who resides on Scott street. Charles looks well, and expects to remain until February. (New Brunswick (N. J.) Freeman.)

Ladies' and children's wool hoods at Harkness, Orcutt & Co's.

*The woman who seeks relief from pain by the free use of alcoholic stimulants and narcotic drugs, finds what she seeks only so far as sensibility is destroyed or temporarily suspended. No cure ever wrought by such means and the longer they are employed the more hopeless the case becomes.

Leave chloral, morphine and belladonna alone and use Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

When you feel out of sorts, have the blues, melancholy, etc., it must be indigestion that ails you. Brown's Iron Bitters cures it.

Table linens, napkins, doilies, towels and cravats cheap at Harkness, Orcutt & Co's.

Council Bluffs is a wholesale and manufacturing city, or she is nothing. We have better facilities for manufacturing than any competing point, and for wholesaling we only need a wagon bridge to be independent of all adverse discrimination.

Now what paper will be able to help Council Bluffs gain the western trade? Why, The Bee. It circulates thousands of copies across the river. Will it do this? With pleasure. The advantages and inducements of Council Bluffs houses are now being heralded through its columns, while heretofore an advertisement of a Council Bluffs house was never seen in Nebraska.

Children's heavy school hose at Harkness, Orcutt & Co's.

THE COURSE OF LOVE.

It Causes a Girl to Leave Her Father and Fatherland and Cross the Water Alone.

A short time ago a young man left his home across the sea and came to this country under peculiar circumstances. He was the son of a well-to-do farmer in the old country, and had wooed the daughter of a neighboring farmer, also in comfortable financial circumstances. The girl readily reciprocated the affection shown by the young man, but the course of true love, etc., and this time it was the parents, and more than all the parents of both who objected. The intimacy of both continued on the sly, however, and finding that there was no way to overcome the objections of "the stern parents," the young man left for America and settled in Council Bluffs. After he had left the girl pined and moaned, and finally confessed to her parents that marry her lover she must, not merely to satisfy the claims of affection, but for other reasons more pressing. Realizing the situation, the girl's parents at last submitted to her desires, and gave her the means to come here and join him. She gladly took the journey, though alone, arrived here safely, and a few days ago was duly joined in wedlock to the man whom she had given her best affections, and to whom she had trusted her honor and very life. There was never a couple who seemed happier on stepping up to the altar than did they, and they have the promise of a happy home in this land of their adoption.

Harkness, Orcutt & Co. have still a fine silk dollman. Call and see them.

COMMERCIAL.

COUNCIL BLUFFS MARKET. Corrected daily by J. Y. Fuller, merchant broker, buyer and shipper of grain and provisions, office board of trade room, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

WHEAT—No. 2 spring, 75c; No. 3, 63c; rejected 50c; good demand.

COAL—Delivered, hard, 10 00 per ton; soft 5 00 per ton.

EGGS—Scarcely in demand; 30c per dozen.

POULTRY—Fairbank's, wholesaling at 13c. FOWLTRY—Firm; dealers paying 13c per pound for turkeys and 10c for chickens.

VEGETABLES—Potatoes, 45c; onions, 25c; cabbages, 30c per dozen; apples, 2 50 per bushel.

FEEDS—Best Kansas wheat flour, 2 50; Minnesota wheat, 2 50; bran, 70c per 100 pounds.

2-Big Thieves-2. Dyspepsia and debility are two big thieves; they creep in insensibly on health and before we know it, let us put a stop to their inroads with a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, to be had at any drug store.

COUNCIL BLUFFS SPECIAL NOTICES.

NOTICE—Special advertisements, such as Lost, Found, To Loan, For Sale, To Rent, Wants, Boarding, etc., will be inserted in the column at the rate of TEN CENTS PER LINE for the first insertion and FIVE CENTS PER LINE for each subsequent insertion. Leave ad insertions at our office, No. 7 Pearl Street, near Broadway.

Wanted. A competent girl for general housework and child employment at 420 South 2nd St. Apply at once, Mrs. T. E. Cavin. dec-29

Wanted—500 buildings to move. We make a specialty of moving houses and saloons. Address W. P. Aylsworth, box 878, Council Bluffs, Iowa. dec-29

Wanted—Everybody in Council Bluffs to take The Bee, 20 cents per week, delivered by carrier. Office, No. 7 Pearl Street near Broadway.

For Sale and Rent. TO RENT—Furnished rooms to rent, with board, at 78 Myrator street. Day board, $2.50 per week. THE best restaurant stand on Main street. Block for sale, with furniture, etc. Cheap for cash. Write to me or call. J. W. BASS, 17 1/2 Corner Willow Ave.

OLD BEES—in packages of a hundred at Pearl street. REAL ESTATE—Beautiful residence lots, 800 ft each; nothing down, and $3 per month up. BY APPL-11 EX-MAYOR VAUGHAN.

Miscellaneous. FOUND—A college society pin. Come to the P. B. office, pay for this ad, prove property and get the pin. d27 if SEND ORDERS for Cobs to Upper Broadway Elevator, or to N. J. Bond, by mail. d22 1/2

EVERYTHING renewed at the Excelsior gallery, 100 Main street, for holiday work. Go where you can get civility and fair treatment.

DR. W. L. PATTON—Physician and Oculist. Can cure any case of sore eyes. It is only a matter of time, and can cure generally in from three to five weeks—no matter in how long how long disease will stretch cross eyes, operate and remove Pterygia, etc., and insert artificial eyes. Special attention to removing cataracts. ap-11

THE BAD CARPENTERING.

The Alleged Bigamist brought to the Front for Trial—Other District Court Doings.

Yesterday was nearly all taken up with the trial of the case of young Hendershot, charged with robbing a countryman named Newton of about $50. The case was sharply fought. The evidence for the prosecution showed that Hendershot and a man named Dougherty were in company with Newton all of the afternoon of the day the latter was robbed, and late in the evening, drinking and carousing about. Gardner, who claims to be a detective, swore he saw the three together in a saloon, and that Hendershot slipped a $5 bill out of Newton's pocket, and remarked that he would have the rest before morning. The defense tried to break down the credibility of the state's witnesses, and the case was argued at length, and given to the jury at 5 o'clock.

The case of Harry Carpenter, the alleged bigamist, was then called up. A motion had been submitted in the morning by the defendant's attorney, asking for a continuance, but this was overruled, and the case had to proceed. It was so late in the day that nothing could be done beyond empanelling a jury, and the witnesses will probably be examined to-day.

Carpenter himself appeared in court and was the observed of all observers. He made a very dapper young fellow. He seemed rather nervous, and seemed to realize that the crowd of lookers-on found in him an object of special interest, and that he was the target of many eyes.

The Ratican case was given a continuance yesterday until the May term.

Be Careful of the Babies. If your children are threatened with croup or any throat difficulty, apply a few drops of Thomas' Electric Oil. It is the nicest medicine for the little ones we know of.

Transferring Titles. The following transfers of real estate are reported for The Bee as taken from the county records by J. W. Squire & Co., abstractors of titles, real estate and loan agents, Council Bluffs:

D. Palmer to Z. C. Strong, a e of n w 1/4 of 8, 75, 39, and a w 1/4 of n e 1/4 of 8, 75, 39, $1,120.

H. E. Strong to Z. C. Strong, part of a e 1/4 of 12, 75, 40, $150.

H. M. Gooder to F. Phillips, lot 9, in block 16, Howard's add., $550.

R. E. Bigelow to J. P. Bigelow, lot 13 and 14, in block 8, Walnut, $190.

WHITELEY'S WEALTH.

Some of It Has Disappeared With the Treasurer of His "Hidden Hand" Company—His Other Company Making Good the Loss Here.

Whiteley's Dramatic company, with Miss Ida Lewis as the drawing card, is drawing good houses here this week and giving great satisfaction, the repertoire being large enough to allow of a change every evening. Miss Lewis being a brilliant actress of great versatility, the support being strong and the prices popular. Mr. Whiteley is himself one of the most popular managers and has met with great success, but like all successful men, he has to take a share of reverses as well. He has another company on the road this season, playing in The "Hidden Hand," and as stated in The Bee dispatches the other day, he has met with quite a loss by the young man to whom he had given the position of treasurer of that company. This young man's name is Cummins, and he has made Muscatine, Iowa, his home for some time, though his parents live in the east, his father being a clergyman. Young Cummins has been chief clerk in the Muscatine postoffice, and has been held in high esteem not only by the citizens of that place but also by the postoffice officials, for whom he had taken a handsome offer of a position with $1,500 salary. Whiteley had implicit confidence in Cummins until lately. The company was in Texas and Mr. Whiteley did not hear from Cummins for seventeen days, and during that time did not receive any remittances. After writing and telegraphing in vain Mr. Whiteley went to where the company was and there met Mr. Cummins, who acknowledged that he was a little short in his account, having had to overdraw some two or three hundred dollars. On learning this state of affairs Mr. Whiteley concluded to dispense with Cummins' services, and so informed him, telling him, moreover, that he would pay his fare back to Muscatine. While checking over the books, Cummins suddenly disappeared, and a full investigation showed that the young man instead of being $200 ahead, had taken about $1,500. The cause of Cummins' default is a mystery, as up to this time he had the reputation of being both honest and of correct personal habits. The difficulty prevented Mr. Whiteley from being here with this company, as he expected, and during his absence Mr. R. G. Guphill, who has been with him for years, takes the management. The company is doing nicely here, and the officers are being filed up, if crowded houses are any indication.

PERSONAL.

W. H. Edwards and wife, of Webster City, were here yesterday. P. M. Guthrie and wife, of Cornell, dined at the Ogden yesterday.

Rev. John Broughan, of Vermillion, Dakota, visited this city yesterday. George T. Phelps, of the Ogden brass, has returned from his trip to Arizona.

Mrs. Annie Orsney, of Avoca, is visiting in this and our neighboring cities for the rest of the week.

Miss Annie Wright, one of Avoca's high school teachers, is in the city on a visit to her friends, who will also visit in Omaha before her return.

E. J. Sayre and mother, of Jasper county, Mo., are in the city on a visit to friends and relatives.

O. C. Foote, Esq., one of Stewart's citizens, is in the city to-day a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Norris. He goes from here to Avoca to make a visit to relatives.

Charles S. Hubbard, of Iowa, formerly a well known resident of this city, and an ex-warden of the First Ward, is in town visiting his brother, Benjamin P. Hubbard, who resides on Scott street. Charles looks well, and expects to remain until February. (New Brunswick (N. J.) Freeman.)

Ladies' and children's wool hoods at Harkness, Orcutt & Co's.

*The woman who seeks relief from pain by the free use of alcoholic stimulants and narcotic drugs, finds what she seeks only so far as sensibility is destroyed or temporarily suspended. No cure ever wrought by such means and the longer they are employed the more hopeless the case becomes.

Leave chloral, morphine and belladonna alone and use Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

When you feel out of sorts, have the blues, melancholy, etc., it must be indigestion that ails you. Brown's Iron Bitters cures it.

Table linens, napkins, doilies, towels and cravats cheap at Harkness, Orcutt & Co's.

Council Bluffs is a wholesale and manufacturing city, or she is nothing. We have better facilities for manufacturing than any competing point, and for wholesaling we only need a wagon bridge to be independent of all adverse discrimination.

Now what paper will be able to help Council Bluffs gain the western trade? Why, The Bee. It circulates thousands of copies across the river. Will it do this? With pleasure. The advantages and inducements of Council Bluffs houses are now being heralded through its columns, while heretofore an advertisement of a Council Bluffs house was never seen in Nebraska.

Children's heavy school hose at Harkness, Orcutt & Co's.

THE COURSE OF LOVE.

It Causes a Girl to Leave Her Father and Fatherland and Cross the Water Alone.

A short time ago a young man left his home across the sea and came to this country under peculiar circumstances. He was the son of a well-to-do farmer in the old country, and had wooed the daughter of a neighboring farmer, also in comfortable financial circumstances. The girl readily reciprocated the affection shown by the young man, but the course of true love, etc., and this time it was the parents, and more than all the parents of both who objected. The intimacy of both continued on the sly, however, and finding that there was no way to overcome the objections of "the stern parents," the young man left for America and settled in Council Bluffs. After he had left the girl pined and moaned, and finally confessed to her parents that marry her lover she must, not merely to satisfy the claims of affection, but for other reasons more pressing. Realizing the situation, the girl's parents at last submitted to her desires, and gave her the means to come here and join him. She gladly took the journey, though alone, arrived here safely, and a few days ago was duly joined in wedlock to the man whom she had given her best affections, and to whom she had trusted her honor and very life. There was never a couple who seemed happier on stepping up to the altar than did they, and they have the promise of a happy home in this land of their adoption.

Harkness, Orcutt & Co. have still a fine silk dollman. Call and see them.

PROF. SAMUELS,

OPTICIAN

OF QUINCY, ILLINOIS,

Has returned to Council Bluffs (for a short time only), where he can be consulted at parlor 5.

OGDEN HOUSE

Prof. Samuels offers to all those that are suffering from Weakness and Defective sight his

IMPROVED CRYSTAL SPECTACLES

Superior to any other in use, as the following home evidence of well-known people of this city and vicinity will testify.

TESTIMONIALS.

Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1880. Prof. Samuels: Dear Sir:—I feel that I would be ungrateful indeed if I did not in some manner express my gratitude to you for the wonderful benefit derived from the use of your glasses adjusted to my eyes by you. I have tried other glasses and other eye work to such an extent that I could at times hardly read, study or decipher plain print without frequently resting them. You adjusted a pair of glasses for me that are next to indispensable, and I have no hesitancy in recommending persons to you who may be troubled with weak eyes. Yours truly, C. MORGAN, Editor of the Publisher Globe.

Corrected, Council Bluffs, February 14, 1