LOCAL BRIEFINGS.

No. 2 hose cart was out yesterday evening. The next firemen's social takes place Thursday night at Firemen's Hall.

One poor old man drunk was at the scene of the fire at Judge Benke's court yesterday.

Judge Benke is on the sick list again from rheumatism. He is able to get through his work however.

Do not fail to see Uncle Tom's Cabin, in its superb revival by Anthony & Ellis' Famous Ideal Double Company at Boyd's opera house Saturday afternoon and evening.

Mr. Henry Stier left yesterday for Millard to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Anna Threlson, wife of Henry Threlson, who died Thursday at the age of 79 years, 4 months and 22 days.

Nettie Terhune, living in the vicinity of Dodge and Twelfth streets, complains against Charles Brown, a street car driver, charging him with breaking up her furniture and threatening her life.

The raffish of a fine breech loading shotgun will take place this evening at 7 p. m. at northeast corner of 14th and Burt, club headquarters. McDonald, sen.

The clerk of the police court is busy preparing transcripts in the cases which go to the district court for trial in February. He had a cart load of them yesterday.

T. V. Powderly Assembly 1948 K. of L. meets Saturday evening at 7:30 at their hall. All members are requested to be present as business of importance will be transacted. By order of M. W.

There was some talk of renewing the Omaha-Council Bluffs sleighing tournament by making a grand turn out of all the rigs in the city and an invasion of our sister city Saturday afternoon. Inquiry today, however, developed the fact that the excursion would probably be given up for want of some one to manage the affair.

The B. & M. train Thursday brought in a distinguished party of officials serving under the administration of Squatter Governor Pearson, including Hon. Pat O. Hayes, the Chief Justice and Mr. H. T. Leavitt, Postmaster of the Third House.

The jurors for the February term of the Douglas county district court will probably be drawn Monday by the county commissioners, the clerk of the court and the sheriff.

The police seem determined to break up the practice of running saloons after midnight. Byron Clark and Thos. Callan were the first complained against and gave the necessary bonds for an appearance, February 5th.

Information is wanted concerning Anson F. Morgan, a boy sixteen years old, tall and slender and wore a brown broadcloth coat and black hat. When last seen he was at Columbus, November 6th. Any information of his whereabouts will be gladly received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Morgan, Cottonwood, Butler county, Nebraska.

Only 25, 35 and 50 cents to go to Uncle Tom's Cabin. Improve the opportunity.

Fred Spencer, who was captured Thursday after robbing a lady of her pocket-book on Farnam street, was sent up for thirty days on bread and water and must leave the city at the expiration of his time.

At a late hour last night it was learned that the condition of Hon. Joseph W. Cannon was less critical. He was resting more comfortably and seemed to be gradually improving. It is to be hoped that he will rally rapidly.

THE SPECKLED SOURGE.

It May Be Looked for in Omaha Next.

Dr. Sexton, of Fontenelle, was in the city today. The doctor says there is no question that there are several cases of small-pox in Washington county, and that hundreds of people have been exposed. Other reports say that there were one or two cases among clerks in a Blair store, and that hundreds of people were exposed several days before knowing what the disease was. Extra precaution will have to be taken or we will have the epidemic in our own community.

It is necessary of slow progress in the country districts, but people cannot be too careful to prevent it getting a foothold in a community, and anything that can be done in the way of precaution ought to be promptly taken in hand.—Fremont Herald.

Baby's Petition.

Life is restless, days are fleeting, Children bloom, but die in tooth-aching, Warm in fall, all infants and mothers, Watch the precious child and brothers; Read the home life of Victoria, Children sleep, all had Catarrhs; No sleep, no nights by baby's wailing, Like larks they rise in early morning.

SOCIAL SALT.

The Fair for the German School.

The Emmet Monument Ball and Other Society Events.

The German fair to be held in the Masonic hall from January 22d to February 7th, will prove a great success. A new feature has been introduced in the management whereby each holder of a season ticket is entitled to and receives a valuable present. There will be from twenty to twenty-five stands presided over by ladies dressed in costumes representing the different nations. This feature will be very entertaining and also instructive. There will be a picture gallery and an exhibition of curiosities. A fortune teller for a small fee will give each applicant to her a detailed and accurate account of their past, present, and even foretell future events. The Musical Union, with an orchestra of thirty-six pieces, will furnish the music for the fair. There will be dancing every evening, and the fair will conclude with a grand ball. A silver goblet will be donated to the most popular society in this city, to be decided by a vote. All of the German ladies are interested in the success of the entertainment, and they have spared no pains to make it a pleasant and agreeable place to visit during its continuance.

THE EMMETT'S BALL.

The fourteenth annual ball of the Emmet Monument association, at Masonic hall Thursday evening, was undoubtedly the largest ball of the season. There must have been two hundred couples present. The hall was so crowded that there was hardly room to dance with any kind of ease until the crowd began to thin out about two o'clock. The hall was handsomely decorated with the banners of the society, and everybody seemed to be in excellent humor. It certainly reflected credit on the leading Irish society of Omaha.

SOUTH OMAHA.

The ladies of the South Omaha M. E. church are arranging for a grand opera supper to be given on Tuesday evening next in the opera house restaurant hall. A cordial invitation is extended to all and a royal treat offered to lovers of the luscious bivalve.

SACRED CONCERT.

The grand sacred concert to be given by the Musical Union orchestra at Turner hall, at 3 p. m. Sunday, will be a musical treat of the highest order. Twenty-five musicians will participate, assisted by the eminent solo cornetist, Rud Gewart, and solo bass clarinetist, Richard Kohl. The programme is as follows:

- PART I. Overture—Fra Diavolo.....Auber Musical Union Orchestra. Cornet Solo—Young America.....Levy Musical Union Orchestra. Selection—Pirates of Penzance, S. Hoffman Musical Union Orchestra. Solo Clarinetto Solo.....Donizetti Richard Kohl. PART II. Waltz—La Bercenue.....Waldteufel Musical Union Orchestra. Duett for Cornet and Bass Clarinet.....Bender Messrs. Gewart and Kohl. THE FARGO ABYSS.

The artist who was the center of attraction in the splendid New York Concert Quartette, is Mr. R. Kohl, the only soloist on the bass clarinet in this world. It was the first time we heard this instrument, which produces so many strange and charming effects. Now swelling into jubilant strains like the triumph song of a conquering host, now softening into melodies sweeter and sadder than the wind harp that uttered for the lightest summer breeze, ringing like a bird, sobbing like a child, graying like a lost soul and exulting like a ransomed one. It was wonderful. One feels nobler after hearing this instrument. Mr. Kohl's first performance was a fantasia of 'Sambamba. The delightful melody was given with splendid effect, the more plaintive parts of the air being exquisitely soft and sweet. As the last note died away a storm of applause recalled the artist, who played another selection in equally brilliant style.

The Potato Crop. The articles published in THE BEE recently as to the beneficial results which would result from each school pupil taking a potato to school to be given to the poor have already 'borne fruit,' i. e. Irish apples, to the extent of a barrel and two baskets sent to the Tenth Street Mission Thursday by the Third ward school, of which Miss Foss is principal—and such potatoes you never saw, the children must have all taken the biggest they could find," remarked Mrs. Jardine, of the Tenth street mission, to a Box presentation today. The two baskets of potatoes were sent to the Child's hospital, at the request of the teachers of the Third ward school, and the barrel will be distributed by Mrs. Jardine to the most needy of her patrons. Last week a considerable donation of potatoes and other articles of food were contributed by the pupils of Miss Andrews's room, Central school, and it is to be hoped the example thus set may be generally followed by all the schools public and private, for there is no lack of worthy people to whom those donations will be very acceptable.

THE DESTITUTE FAMILY.

A New and Somewhat Novel Calamity Befalls Them.

The destitute Zaloudek family living near the Chicago Lumber company's yard has been referred to by THE BEE several times. Thursday the wife felt that she was about to become a mother and in the wretched hovel in which she lives no one was present to minister to her wants or go for the needed medical attendance. Although entirely unable to do so, the poor woman arose and went out into the cold night alone in search of some one who would perform the delicate assistance. She wandered around for a time and finally rapped at the door of a small house at Fourteenth and Pacific streets, occupied by a family named Stachs. She was admitted and had started to tell her story and have someone go for a doctor, when the pain incidental to maternity came upon her, and in a stranger's house she became the mother of twins. She was cared for the best that the family with their limited means could do. This case is certainly worthy of the attention of philanthropically inclined people in the city. Only one of the infants lived.

Last evening Commissioner O'Keefe and Corlies sent a physician to see Mrs. Zaloudek and ascertain if she could bear a removal to her home. The doctor stated that she could, and accordingly a close carriage was sent to the residence of the Stachs and Mrs. Zaloudek was conveyed home, provision being made for the comfort of herself and husband, the latter being in a really terrible condition from rheumatic sores in the groin. There is no danger now that the family will suffer from want as their case has interested the public generally and they will be looked after by the county authorities as well as by other kind hearted persons.

DEATHS DOINGS.

The Ravages of the Destroyer in Our Midst.

The heavy inroads made by death upon adults in this city for some days back has been a source of wonder and amazement, even to those who are prepared for such unexpected events. The fact that children have been, in a great degree, exempt from the visitation of the destroying angel was a source of gratulation to many loving and devoted parents. All the little ones, however, have not been spared, and one of them, little Johnnie Danahay, son of Daniel Danahay, residing on Seventeenth between Bart and Cuming streets, Thursday, at 12:30 o'clock, passed from life. Johnnie Danahay was a bright and promising little boy, in whom were centered, in a great degree, the fondest hopes of his bereaved parents. He had been ill but a few days, and, indeed, it was reported that his illness had in a measure built the skill, or, at least, was a novelty to the physician in attendance. The child was eight years and six months old. Mr. Danahay, the father, has for many years been employed as brickmason at the smelting works and has a host of acquaintances throughout the city, who will warmly sympathize with him and his wife in this moment of affliction. The funeral will take place today at 9 o'clock from the Church of the Holy Family, Seventeenth and Iard streets, where mass will be celebrated.

A NEBRASKA BLIZZARD.

A Predicted Storm Which was Not a Success.

About 4 o'clock last evening a telephone message was sent to the Union Pacific headquarters from the United States signal service station, notifying the officials that a blizzard was approaching the city from the northwest at a rapid rate, and would strike the city before dark.

In less than half an hour the sky, which up to that time had been clear, was overcast with heavy clouds, which appeared to be laden with snow. A dark line covered the horizon to the north, and the rapidly descending mercury soon recorded an atmosphere many degrees lower than that which during the day had carried off a large portion of the snow and covered the sidewalks and crossings with mud. THE BEE reporter like the officials of the ship on which St. Pauli was wrecked, cast extra anchors out and awaited a blast that would furnish a full page item. The storm, however, did not pan out, and although it grew much colder during the evening and blew a gale, it did no damage whatever.

In this connection it is appropriate to say that the old reliable rule that first three days of December rule the winter months is a proven true thus far, and if the months of January and February follow up the prediction that little warm weather is to be experienced, but on the contrary a severe cold spell.

SECRETARY HOWSER.

A Good Man Gone From Omaha Work.

The union prayer meeting Thursday at the Y. M. C. A. was well attended and in it there was manifested much earnestness. It was apparent that the previous evenings of the week had aroused many to more than usual activity; and, as some ministers of the city had stated, that the minds of the people of the city were more than usually susceptible to gospel truths, we are not surprised to see much interest among those who profess Christianity.

A prominent feature of the meeting Thursday was the farewell to Mr. G. T. Howser, who will soon be engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in Chicago. His farewell address to the audience was inclusive, and yet not including too much, and while he was to leave he would simply say, "Farewell!"

While the friends were bidding the general secretary good bye, the ministers who were present adopted resolutions as follows:

- We, the undersigned, pastors of Omaha, very cheerfully bear testimony to the efficiency and acceptability of Brother Howser's work in our city. He found the Y. M. C. A. in a poor condition, and leaves it, largely through his own efforts, prosperous and useful. We wish him all success in his new field of labor, and we invoke upon him the constant blessing and power of the Holy Spirit. (Signed) Wm. M. McCandless, F. S. Elaysey, Chas. W. Savidge, J. W. Shank, Frank H. Hays, A. F. Sherrill, W. G. Stelling, W. J. Harsha. RESOLUTIONS. At a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. board of directors, held January 8, 1892, the undersigned were appointed a committee to prepare a set of resolutions expressive of our feelings as an association upon the resignation of Brother G. T. Howser as general secretary. WHEREAS, George T. Howser, our efficient general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. has handed in his resignation to take effect on the 16th inst., and

WHEREAS, He has already accepted a call to another and larger field of labor that requires his immediate presence, therefore be it

Resolved, That we accept his resignation with reluctance, and greatly regret he and his family leaving, feeling assured that their place can be filled with great difficulty.

Resolved, That we cheerfully bear testimony to the successful work Brother Howser did as a general secretary, and to his uniform consistent Christian walk during his stay among us.

Resolved, That we earnestly pray God's richest blessing upon Brother Howser's work in Chicago, and that he may be abundantly rewarded both in this life and the life that is to come.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be handed to Brother Howser, entered upon our records and published in our daily papers.

P. S. LEISENRING, M. G. MCCOON, WM. FLEMING, Committee.

A PLEASANT TIME.

The Emmet Ball Thursday Night.

The ball of the Emmet Monument association Thursday night at the Masonic hall was a decided success in every particular. The hall was elaborately and finely decorated with bunting and the flags of Ireland and America. The brilliant illumination of the large room added to the lustre of the appointments. One hundred and fifty couples were in attendance, made up from the best class of our Irish and American citizens and the enjoyment was uniform throughout the entire evening. Good feeling was universal and the ball passed off without a single disagreeable feature to mar it. Irvine's orchestra furnished the music and elegant refreshments were served in the building. The gatherings of the association are very popular and they are always looked forward to with much interest. The committee of arrangements had everything in fine shape and added to the credit of the organization.

DIED.

DANAHAY—In this city January 11, at 12:30 o'clock p. m., son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Danahay, aged 8 years. Funeral will take place from the residence, North Seventeenth street, between Bart and Cuming streets, on Saturday morning, January 13. Friends are invited.

BUNCE-HARDY.

A Wedding in The Bee's Family.

A few days ago THE BEE reporter was surprised at the receipt of an envelope containing on beautiful cream tinted card-board an invitation to attend a wedding over at Winterset, La., on the evening of January 11th, at 8 o'clock.

Our acquaintances in the Hawkeye state being somewhat limited a second glance was necessary to show one of the high contracting parties was an old and valued employee of THE BEE, being at the head of its mailing department, and one of the most steadfast and most reliable young men around in these parts. Charlie had kept his matrimonial intention so quiet that the announcement was a surprise to everybody, although he had already furnished a cosy little house at No. 516 North Nineteenth street for the reception of his bride. The lady who thus becomes Mrs. Chas. T. Bunce was Miss Clara Hardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hardy, of Winterset, Iowa, and in an amiable and accomplished young lady, who will no doubt make her husband's home a very happy one.

Mr. and Mrs. Bunce will be 'at home' after January 23d, at their own residence on Nineteenth street, where we join with many friends in wishing them prosperity in life's journey together.

A special train with the body started for Nice at 9 o'clock. Several personal friends of the deceased accompanied the remains, which will reach Nice early tomorrow.
