

The Daily Bee. OMAHA.

Tuesday Morning, Jan. 16, 1911

Weather Report. (The following observations are taken at the exact moment of time at all the stations named.)

Table with columns: Station, Direction, Force of Wind, State of Sky, Temperature. Rows include Des Moines, Council Bluffs, etc.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

-The Social Art club meets at 8 p. m. today. -The Pleasant Hours club party on Friday evening. -The Knights Templar of Mt. Cavalry...

NIGHT HAWKS. A Bold Attack on the Gault House.

The Plucky Pursuit by a Courageous Lady.

Minor Attacks From Midnight Marauders.

Mrs. Louis McCoy, the wife of the proprietor of the Gault house, near the new government depot, was the heroine of a thrilling adventure on Monday morning between 2 and 3 o'clock.

On Monday morning at the time named Mrs. McCoy heard a noise in the bed room, which she thought was caused by the dog trying to jump upon the bed.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

-The Social Art club meets at 8 p. m. today. -The Pleasant Hours club party on Friday evening. -The Knights Templar of Mt. Cavalry...

TRACK TOPICS. The Burlington and Rio Grande Consolidation Indicated.

A Collision in the Snow on the Missouri Pacific.

A Remarkably Successful and Pleasing Entertainment.

The much mooted question of a consolidation of the C, B & Q and Burlington & Missouri with the Denver & Rio Grande is again brought before the public and this time in a shape more tangible than ever.

The selection from the Pirates of Penzance, arranged by Professor Hoffman, the director, was well rendered.

PERSONAL.

Mike B. Leavitt is at the Millard. R. Marsh, of Laramie, is in the city. F. E. White, of Plattsmouth, is at the Paxton.

CONCERN HOME. A Pen ioned Printer Takes Sudden Leave of Omaha.

Overcoming Serious Wounds and Giving the Boys a Shake.

The readers of THE BEE will remember that about the middle of last November a printer named James Alcott was attacked by a negro, at the gate of his boarding house and terribly beaten, his jaw being broken and his nose nearly severed from his face.

The readers of THE BEE will remember that about the middle of last November a printer named James Alcott was attacked by a negro, at the gate of his boarding house and terribly beaten, his jaw being broken and his nose nearly severed from his face.

Alcott was watched by several of his friends, who were anxious that he should not be allowed to squander the entire amount for drink, which was his well known failing.

PERSONAL.

Mike B. Leavitt is at the Millard. R. Marsh, of Laramie, is in the city. F. E. White, of Plattsmouth, is at the Paxton.

GRAND SACRED CONCERT. A Remarkably Successful and Pleasing Entertainment.

The sacred concert given at the Turner hall Sunday afternoon by the Omaha Musical Union orchestra, assisted by Rudolph Gower, cornet soloist, and Richard Kohl, solo bass clarinetist, was a fine entertainment in every respect.

The selection from the Pirates of Penzance, arranged by Professor Hoffman, the director, was well rendered.

The selection from the Pirates of Penzance, arranged by Professor Hoffman, the director, was well rendered.

PERSONAL.

Mike B. Leavitt is at the Millard. R. Marsh, of Laramie, is in the city. F. E. White, of Plattsmouth, is at the Paxton.

CHEAP GAS. The New Company Preparing to Carry Out Their Agreement.

And to Supply Consumers by Next December.

Negotiations for the Purchase of the Present Works.

Manager Gibbs and Mr. Jackson, agent of the United Gas Improvement Company of Philadelphia, arrived yesterday in Omaha and are guests at the Millard. The gas company to which the right to erect works in this city or to acquire them by purchase was given, is now in negotiation with the officers of the present gas company for the purchase of their works.

The selection from the Pirates of Penzance, arranged by Professor Hoffman, the director, was well rendered.

PERSONAL.

Mike B. Leavitt is at the Millard. R. Marsh, of Laramie, is in the city. F. E. White, of Plattsmouth, is at the Paxton.

WANTED - Every one to leave orders for help at 217 N. 16th street, up stairs.

WANTED - A few more prospective agents to call on the city. WANTED - A few more prospective agents to call on the city. WANTED - A few more prospective agents to call on the city.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.