Special Dispatch to THE BEE.

NEW YORK, January 16.

Money—3@6 percent, closing offered at 2 per cent.

Prime Mercantile Paper—5½@6½ per cent.

Sterling Exchange—Bankers' bills steady at $4.82; demand, $4 86

Produce exports for the week, $7,007,000.

Governments—Weak.

The stock market developed more strength than yesterday. There was a gradual upward movement of prices without even any fractional reaction, and although the advance was not large, and the volume of business comparatively small, there was apparently a more confident feeling. The stock market was strong during the last hour of business, and for that matter throughout the day. There was scarcely a fractional reaction throughout the entire day. In the last hour prices advanced ⅛@¼ per cent for some stocks, but for most of them were quiet and firm at the highest prices of the day. The net result of the day's business was an important increase in the volume of business and an advance in prices of from ¼ to 2¾ per cent.
