IOWA ITEMS.

Another creamery is to be built near Mason City.

The largest barrel factory in the state is to be built at Atlantic.

Des Moines has decided to experiment with the electric light.

A bogus policeman has been engaged in the blackmailing business in Des Moines.

West Union and Dubuque are having festival time which is truly delightful.

The Oberholzer Methodist church, which cost $2,700, was dedicated on Sunday, the 7th.

Four hogs were recently sold in Farley,

Dubuque county, which weighed 2,900 pounds.

Arrangements are being made for the erection of a cannon factory at Webster

City.

The Storm Lake Tribune complains that the telephones make business dull on the streets.

The Summer rioters, to the number of six, have been arrested and held to $50.00 each.

The people of Britt, Hancock county, are moving to get the county seat away from Concord.

A lodge of the Knights of Pythias has been initiated in Tipton with twenty-seven charter members.

Dubuque has been investigating its hotels, and finds that none of them have fire escapes.

The Linn County Detective society for the recovery of stolen horses and mules is keeping up a vigorous existence.

The City bank of Boone has started out with $10,000 additional capital this year, and now advertises $100,000 capital.

A plan of organization has been adopted for connecting Davenport, Rock Island and Moline with continuous line of street cars.

The Des Moines Masons appeal to their brethren throughout the state for help.

They lost over $6,000 worth of property in the recent fire.

The postmaster at Emerson, Mills county, has been removed and a young man, who is a stranger in the place, has been appointed in his place. The citizens are reported as indignant.

A gang of six thieves and burglars is heading from Chicago for Des Moines over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road. The small towns are being worked by them until, as Capt. Oliver said to a Call reporter yesterday, it got to be a sort of pastime with him. Said the captain: "I was so well armed that I knew the pirates could stand no time against me.

I was always

on the lookout for a junk.

I never left my

home.

I never left my

home.
