

The Daily Bee. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Tuesday Morning, Jan. 23. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 30 cents per week. By Mail, $10.00 per Year.

MINOR MENTIONS.

-J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall. -Subscribe for newspapers and periodicals at H. E. Seaman's book store. -The Catalog & Northwestern did not arrive until about 7 o'clock last evening.

-The Turnverein is planning to give a grand concert on the evening of February 4, for the benefit of the flood sufferers in Germany. -Officer Cusick yesterday arrested a deserter from the regular army named Drew, and he has been taken back to Fort Omaha.

-The boys in the county jail are about the only ones who don't grumble about the cold. They say it is made hot enough for them. -The intense cold has in several instances caused the gold leaf letters on the glass of the outside doors and windows of business offices to curl up and come off.

-The Catholic fair opened last night with great success, a charming cantata being given by about thirty little folks, entitled "Queen of the Birds." -Omaha furnished music for the streets here yesterday, an eight horse team, with a big wagon, and a brass band, advertising for the Mace-Stade punching exhibition last night.

-Rev. Mr. Armstrong, pastor of the Methodist church, has been delivering a series of excellent sermons Sunday evenings, on the human mind. The discourses have proved so instructive and interesting as to call out steadily increasing audiences. -The owner of the starved team, mentioned in yesterday's Bee, appeared yesterday at the police station for possession of the horses again. The chief gave him an earnest lecture on cruelty to animals, and suggested that he ought to prosecute him severely, but finally let him have the horses on the promise of feeding them in the future.

-It is feared that the electric light project here is to fall to the ground. Alderman Nowell, who was instrumental in getting the enterprise started, and whose enthusiasm was successfully imparted to some others, is about to depart for Fargo, and his departure seems to demoralize the plans being laid. It is to be hoped that the forces will rally again, but it seems doubtful at present.

-The thermometer yesterday ranged far below zero. At 6 o'clock in the morning one thermometer near the high school indicated 19 degrees below. At other points it was reported as low as 22, and even 25 was recorded. At the institution for the deaf and dumb, the thermometer stood at 32 degrees below at 7 o'clock yesterday evening, and at 30 degrees below at 9 o'clock Sunday night.

-Crystal Roller Mills Patent Granulated Flour, Superfine A, the highest grade of flour manufactured. Snowy white, pure, light and sweet. Ask your grocer for it and you will have none other.

THE GOLDSTEIN TROUBLE.

Brown Acquitted of the Charge of Perjury. In Justice Vaughan's court yesterday there were ten or twelve more witnesses examined in the case of the state vs. Joe Brown, charged with perjury, as preferred by his brother-in-law, S. Goldstein. It was claimed that Brown, in justifying a replevin bond for Mrs. Goldstein, his sister, swore that he was worth more than the facts warranted. The witnesses who testified to the value of the property which he showed up placed it at a sufficiently high amount so that it appeared that Brown did not overreach the truth, and he was therefore discharged. In connection with the affair the following card of Mrs. Goldstein is given space:

There appeared a notice in THE BEE charging Joe Brown with being the cause of separating S. H. Goldstein and his wife. Therefore, I, Mrs. Goldstein, wish to correct it through THE BEE, that it was not on account of S. Goldstein's. The reason of the quarrel I don't care to mention in this morning's paper, but if Mr. A. Goldstein wishes to know through THE BEE, I will publish it with great pleasure. Respectfully, MOLLIE GOLDSTEIN.

Ladies' and children's wool hoods at Harkness, Orcutt & Co.'s. When you feel out of sorts, have the blues, melancholy, etc. it must be indignation that ails you. Brown's Iron Bitters cures it.

A SWEDISH SKIPPER.

He Loves Not Wisely, But Too Well, And Now Leaves His Girls Behind Him.

There is in the city a young Swede girl who came last year from the old country, and who has even now not become so familiar with the use of English as to be able to tell the story of her shame, save through an interpreter. She gives her name as Christina Anderson, and her tale of trouble is to the effect that a young man of her nationality had wooed her and so influenced her as to lead her to give up that honor which to a true woman should be dearer than life. Her condition is now such that her loss of virtue cannot long be concealed, and the young man who, under the promise of marriage, betrayed the simple girl's trust, has fled for parts unknown.

There is said to be a double reason for his thus having fled, instead of marrying the girl, and by proving a true husband seek to remedy the evil he had wrought. The young man came to this country late last summer or in early fall, under peculiar circumstances. He had, in his native land, wooed and won a fair maiden whom he loved dearly, or at least claimed to, but her parents objected to her marrying anyone for several years to come; his folks, on the other hand, objected to his marrying the girl, not because he was too young, but because of an old-time feud between his father and the girl's father, who were neighbors and who had some quarrels and lawsuits concerning the title to some land. Thus perplexed in his love matters the young man emigrated and came to this country. After arriving here he learned that the girl, who now makes complaint against him here, and her brother were living near Council Bluffs, and as they came from near his old home, and he was acquainted with them there, he naturally sought them out, and thus came here. The acquaintance ripened into love, and more. He intended to marry the girl, but a short time ago he received word from the old country that the girl he had left behind him there was in a condition also to require a husband and that her parents relenting of their refusal to give her hand in wedlock were now so willing that they had allowed her to emigrate for America, her intention being to meet and wed her old lover. She is now on the way, and thus with two waltzers, one here, and one on the barge deep, each expecting him to marry, and each deceived by his ill-fated passion, he has flown. A warrant will doubtless be sent after him, and if possible he will be brought back, and made to answer for the deeds done in the bygone.

Harkness, Orcutt & Co. have still a few fine silk dollmans. Call and see them.

Wheeler, of the Ogden house, has just returned from a week's stay in St. Jo and Kansas City, lecturing to the benighted denizens of those places on the beauties of winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Meigs, who have been spending a few weeks here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stone, leave today for their home in California, taking the southern route. Dr. John Craig has bought seven acres of ground adjoining the town site on the southwest of K. H. Woodmaney, at $60 per acre, and will erect thereon a nice dwelling, and otherwise improve the property as soon as spring opens. The contract for building has been let to Russell & Kennedy. We shall be glad to welcome the doctor and his family, who are now residents of Council Bluffs.—Macedonia Tribune.

BLOOD ON A BRIDAL DRESS.

The Wedding Gown of a Granddame Who at 80 Site by the Hickory Log. New York Evening Post.

Chatting a few evenings since with a charming old lady of 80 years, and seating close beside in a chimney corner, whose capacious fire place was aglow with a hickory blaze, such as few of this generation witness and enjoy the current of social gossip and reminiscence flowed into the domain of fashion. With a minuteness of detail which exhibited remarkable powers of memory, we were favored with a clearly defined description of the manners, customs and prevalent modes of dress of the days "when she was young and to the manner born," three score years ago. Excusing herself a moment, she returned bearing upon her arm a silk dress, once white, but now limp and yellowed by the touch of time. The dress deserves description: It was narrowly gored on the front and side breadths, and quite short. In the front and back there was a large cluster of deep gathers. The waist line was relegated almost to the arm pits, and the very short bodice was laced up the back with a flat silk cord. The sleeves were long and

IOWA ITEMS.

Fort Dodge has three National banks. Bedford is talking up the question of waterworks. The state board of agriculture has $2,086.25 on hand. Fort Dodge claims a population of 5,000. It was 4,717 in 1880. The republican state central committee will meet at Des Moines on the 24th inst. Davenport packers have put away 15,000 hogs thus far, and the Democrat says the figures will reach 22,000. All the stock for the Decorah Electric Light company has been taken. The plant will start with thirty lights. The Iowa Insurance company has organized at Des Moines, with $2,000,000 capital. It insures against everything. The real thickness of the last vein of coal passed through at the Moreton boring near LeMars, was less than a foot. A Burlington hotel keeper got onto a roof last week and fired two shots through a saloon window, but luckily hit no one. Two brutal saloon-keepers from Commerce attacked and badly mutilated an unemployed German at Des Moines, on Tuesday night, the 16th. The records of Monona county are said to show some crooked transactions by persons living outside of the county in relation to obtaining heavy loans on comparatively worthless lands. The heathen Chinese in Burlington is protected, Thomas Davis has been sent to the Fort Madison penitentiary for one year for breaking into a Mongolian laundry. There are about fifteen cases of scarlet fever in and about Iowa, and several of the victims of the disease have died. Strict precautionary measures are being taken. The Decatur County agricultural association has increased its dues to $7,000. The indebtedness is $3,000. C. W. Hoffman was elected president and C. M. Murray secretary. A suit has commenced in the Dubuque district court against Holocher Brothers saloon keepers at Haverhill, for $15,000 by a woman who claims her husband was killed by drinking the whiskey sold by the saloon keepers. An irate man named S. W. Jacobs recently attacked J. J. Steadman, president of the Blue Valley bank at Creston, with a cowhide. The latter had drawn his revolver and was about to fire at his assailant when outside interference stopped the man. The insane asylum at Leon is overcrowded with patients. Fully 500 are being taken care of and some of them have been obliged to lie on the floor at night because of the lack of beds. Dr. Gilman, the new superintendent, has made out a discharge list of forty-five, including the most tractable ones, and has sent them back to the counties from which they came.

Thomas Kasmussen, a Dane, living on section eight, Antelope precinct, came to a horrible death on Friday night, the 12th inst., by being frozen to death. It appears that he has been somewhat insane for the past two or three days, but was not considered dangerous. But the demon took possession of him about midnight of the 12th. He retired to bed as usual with his wife, after which he got up and left the house, his wife following him trying to persuade him to return to the house. When they got several rods from the house he turned upon her and struck her upon the forehead, knocking her down, and then catching her by the throat tried to choke her, when their dog attacked him, causing him to release his hold and turning with all vengeance upon the dog, which his wife took advantage of, and ran to the nearest neighbor, Mr. Larames, who gave the alarm and started Homer Barnes to arouse the neighbors. They did not find him until about 8 o'clock, some eighty rods southwest of his house, frozen stiff. He was almost destitute of clothing, having torn them off in his wanderings; there was one boot and part of a pants leg on the right foot, and a sock on the left one. His clothing was found in different places, some of them more than a mile from where he was found. A justice took possession of the body and sent for the coroner, who did not think there was sufficient cause for his presence, when the justice delivered the body to relatives. He was 31 years of age, and only been married six months. He leaves a wife in poor circumstances. He left a note on Saturday that he was afraid of the devil, and that he would not get his sins forgiven.

CITY COUNCIL.

Various Important Matters Considered. An adjourned meeting of the city council was held last evening, the mayor and all aldermen present except Goulden. A petition for widening the sidewalks on Sixth street from Broadway to Indian creek to fifteen feet was presented and referred. The claim of Mrs. E. A. Archer for $500 damages on account of stepping through a hole in a sidewalk was presented and referred. Alderman Nowell presented a resolution granting the Council Bluffs Waterworks company an extension of time until July 31st in which to complete its works. Alderman Shugart said he had always objected to that part of the contract which exempted the company from taxation. As the company would not consent to have that part of the contract stricken out, he should have to vote against the resolution. The resolution was adopted, Shugart alone voting no. An ordinance was presented for the license and registration of saloons, the amount of the same being left blank. Referred to the police committee, or order printed and to be reported on at the first regular meeting in February. Several members of the board of trade appeared in the council chamber, that body having met and adjourned to consider with the aldermen the question of paving. Mr. Squire of Omaha, presented a specimen of asphalt pavement being laid out there and an informal discussion was had of the relative kinds of pavement.

An Engle Winsed.

William Engle, one of this city's oldest citizens, who keeps a small store here, was arrested last evening on complaint of Attorney Tipton on the charge of Larceny. The trouble seems to have arisen from a note of $35 which Engle gave to Tipton as attorney's fees, and on which he had paid part, and in settling up the balance Engle destroyed the note. Tipton says he grabbed it and threw it in the stove. Engle claims differently and will have a hearing to-day.

One of the most solid and substantial institutions in this country is the Marriage Fund Mutual Trust association of Cedar Rapids, Ia. During their first year, ending January 1st, 1883, they paid over $20,000 in benefits to their members, and the greatest satisfaction prevails among their certificate holders. They are organized under the laws of Iowa, and their officers and directors are among the leading and most prominent business men of Cedar Rapids. Every unmarried person should have a certificate in this association. It is a splendid investment, as safe as a government bond.
