MINOR MENTIONS.

J. Mueller's Palace Music Hall. Subscribers for newspapers and periodicals at H. E. Seaman's book store. The city council is to meet again Friday night. The Round Table met last evening at the home of Mrs. Harkness. There were twenty cars of grain loaded at the Union elevator yesterday and shipped over the Chicago & Northwestern. Last evening the Catholic fair was continued by a quadrille party at Doherty hall, which proved an enjoyable occasion. It was now reported that a son of Dr. Ballard's has been arrested for the recent robbery by which the doctor lost several hundred dollars. Permits to wed were issued yesterday to Sees Locke and Nettie Miller, both of Honey Creek; Fremont Morris and Sarah Chambers, of Avoca, and William R. Tibbets and Eva M. Carter, of Valley township. The Twinkler, with full two hundred names on her carriers' routes, publishes a two column advertisement and claims "the largest circulation in this city." Oh, give us a rest. A picture of Garfield, surrounded by a wreath of hair flowers, is a unique and very beautiful gem now ornamenting the show case of Mr. Burhorn, the jeweler. It is the work of Mrs. E. Burhorn, and exhibits perfection in a very rare art. Steven Julian, who has been employed in The Nonpareil office here, died a few days ago of consumption at his home in Chariton. He has a brother, J. G. Julian, who is in the employ of S. T. Walker & Co., on Pearl street. The trains are all leaving Council Bluffs on time, but the arrivals are not so fortunate. The Northwestern was an hour and forty minutes late yesterday, the C, B. & Q. an hour and thirty minutes, the Rock Island two hours and forty minutes. A runaway team caromed on the corner by the city building yesterday forenoon, and being captured by the police was taken to Weatherby's barn. The owner turned up some time later, and proved to be Mr. Swigart, who lives near this city. The docket for the February term of the circuit court is now printed in the usual form, but not in the usual size, it having a thin, lank, consumptive look, which indicates that the term will be an unusually light one. One gentleman with a cash capital of $25,000 is corresponding with parties here in reference to locating in this city, and opening a pork packing establishment here, provided he can make satisfactory arrangements in regard to the securing of about four acres of ground. J. W. Strohm, representing L. Everingham & Co., of Chicago, has located in this city and opened a branch office here in Perego & Moore's retail cigar store on Broadway. He has arranged to have complete market reports received here daily by telegraph, and has prepared one of the largest and neatest black and white bulletins in the country, on which to place the latest figures as they flash over the wires, and is prepared to give all information and transact all business needful to a banker's office. Mr. Strohm is an experienced, active business man, and representing, as he does, a well-known and substantial house, it seems that he should secure readily a large amount of business here. Supervisors Clayton and Underwood have returned from a trip to Mt. Pleasant and Davenport, looking after the insane patients sent from this county to the asylum at the former place and to Mercy hospital at Davenport. They report that they found the patients being well taken care of, and everything in good shape. They stumbled on one bit of information which will be of interest, that one citizen in this state has a contract with Mercy hospital for caring for patients at the rate of $12 a month, whereas this county without a contract is paying $10. This fact will probably lead the board to make a regular contract with the hospital. The county now has 32 patients in both places, and in every case the county pays for the treatment, although some of the patients have property, or have friends abundantly able to pay. As an instance of how timid the authorities are about tackling any of the houses of prostitution, it is stated that in examining into a case before the last jury witness testified that a certain house was one of ill fame, and while the proof was right there at hand, the grand jury failed to take any steps toward indicting. It has been a long time since any such indictment has been found, and the grand jury did not seem disposed to change the custom of looking at such matters with one eye shut and the other eye squinting. The grand jury cannot be secured too hard, however, in view of the fact that this city practically licenses such places at a uniform price for good, bad or indifferent. The great clearing out sale at Harkness, Orcutt & Co.'s, offers a rare opportunity to get good goods cheap. Crystal Roller Mills Patent Granulated Flour, Superlative A, the highest grade of flour manufactured. Snowy white, pure, light and sweet. Ask your grocer for it and you will have none other. Children's heavy school shoes at Harkness, Orcutt & Co.'s. WOOL LINED. Men's grain wool lined boots, only $2 at Phillips, Jan 23. Holiday goods at Harkness, Orcutt & Co.'s. Weak muscles and nerves, sluggishness of thought and inactivity, cured by Brown's Iron Bitters.

POLICE POINTERS.

Sneak Thieves are Paying Special Attention to Show Cases. With the advent of the unusually cold weather and the consequent frosting of front windows, so that snoopers cannot peer out upon the streets, the outside show cases prove strong temptations for sneak thieves. In some of these valuable goods are left exposed. At Burhorn's jewelry store on Main street, the show case standing outside the door was burglarized, and a gold watch and chain taken valued at $125, with no satisfactory trace left behind the thief. Joseph Reiter, the tailor, had a pair of pantaloons made by him on a special order for a customer, and placed then in a show case outside, but some sneak thief got away with them before the customer got around for them. A telegram was received from across the river yesterday to look out for a pony stolen in Omaha early yesterday morning. William Bush, a plain drunk, was yesterday fined $9.00. Dr. Gohl appeared in police court yesterday morning and complained of his room mate, Louis Thompson, for assaulting him. The doctor claimed that Thompson insisted on coming to bed drunk and sleeping with his boots on, and when he objected Thompson thumped him. Judge Aylesworth dismissed the assault case, but divorced the masculine couple. Thompson promises not to insist on sleeping with the doctor any more. In the case of William Engle charged by Attorney Tipton with larceny, having thrown in the fire a $35 note in Tipton's favor, in which $20 was still due, a compromise was reached yesterday, and the affair settled without any evidence being taken. The chief of police received on Monday evening a telegram from the sheriff of Clay county, Miss., requesting him to arrest and hold two men, Gary Storms and Joseph Skelley, and giving full descriptions of them. Yesterday the chief and Officer Tyson found the two men at the transfer, about to take the train for San Francisco, and they were taken in custody, and returned some time, but as no information could be gained by telegraphing, as to what the men were wanted for, or how long to fire on, the chief would come after them, the chief released them again, and let them go on their way. One of the men explained that the only thing he could imagine to have caused such trouble was the fact that his companion had been a partner with another man in business there, and had sold out his tools and some other property and then came away with the money, leaving the rest of the property for the partner. There seemed to be nothing in this to hold the men on. George Rumsby was arrested yesterday, being suspected of knowing more than he would tell, about a watch stolen at Missouri Valley. Goods going cheap at the great sale at Harkness, Orcutt & Co.'s. A Temperance Convention. In view of the recent decision by the supreme court declaring the amendment unconstitutional, we, in accordance with the recommendation of the state central committee, hereby call a mass convention of the temperance workers of Council Bluffs and Pottawattamie county to meet at the Broadway M. E. church in this city, at 2 p. m. Saturday, the 31 day of February, 1883, to appoint delegates to the state convention which meets at Des Moines, February 17th, and take what other action the wisdom of the convention shall direct. Let there be a full attendance. J. G. LEMEN, Ch'm'n County Com. L. W. TULLY, Sec'y. Ladies' and children's wool hoods at Harkness, Orcutt & Co.'s. PERSONAL. Charles W. Case, of Des Moines, is in the city. L. M. Holmes, of St. Louis, arrived here yesterday. Paul Meyer, of Chicago, was in the city yesterday. C. M. Witt, of Neola, was in the city yesterday. D. Friedman, of Montgomery, Alabama, is at the Ogden. Walter N. Vail, of New York, arrived here yesterday. George Deacon, a Philadelphia deacon, is at the Ogden. C. D. Dillon, of Neola, Ia., was in the city yesterday. E. M. Wilcox, of Whitewater, is an Ogden house guest. Samuel Taylor, of St. Louis, dined at the Ogden yesterday. M. M. Marshall, of Omaha, spent yesterday at the Bluff. W. A. Kuntze, of Freeport, arrived at the Ogden yesterday. George A. Ross, of Osceola, Iowa, visited the Bluff yesterday. R. A. Morris, of Sheldon, Ind., was at the Pacific house yesterday. A. Williams, of Zietlow, N. Y., is making headquarters at the Pacific. George Graham and John Corkist, of Ogden, Utah, are at the Pacific. Charles D. Gaylord, of Cleveland, O., arrived at the Ogden yesterday. Wm. H. Sutton, of Chicago, was registered at the Ogden yesterday. E. B. Pierce, of Louisville, Ky., was among yesterday's arrivals at the Pacific. W. A. Frye, who travels for the interests of a Omaha house, was in the city yesterday. H. A. Shearer, who was formerly superintendent of the shot tower here, and who has lately been putting in some mining machinery in the far west, is in the city again, and after remaining a day with old friends here will proceed to Canada, where his family now are. A new policeman was added to the force yesterday, his name being Barbite, jr. He is extremely young, but has good weight and size for one of his age, and the

They are organized under the laws of Iowa, and their officers and directors are among the leading and most prominent business men of Cedar Rapids. Every unmarried person should have a certificate in this association. It is a splendid investment, as safe as gold, and sure as a government bond. Diversions on shipboard—Bear-Hunting at Point Barrow. The whaling bark Abraham Barker, after leaving San Francisco last December, went down on the coast of Mexico after humpback whales, as a kind of preparatory drill before attacking the larger and more valuable bowheads of the north. From Mexico the bark cruised south, going a short distance beyond the equator, thence to Honolulu, picking up a few sperm whales as she went along. Early in May, says one of the voyagers, writing to the San Francisco Bulletin, we reached the ice in the Behring sea. The ice was broken into cakes, formed into strips by the action of winds and currents. These strips of ice were some of considerable breadth and length. There was clear water between, through which the ships sailed, but when a body of ice was in the way the ships did not hesitate to run through it, taking care not to strike the vessel too hard. The ice prevented any sea whatever from rising. In the latter part of May we reached the Saint Domde island, between East Cape, Asia, and Cape Prince of Wales, America. The straits were comparatively free from ice. Cannon's fall of autumn came on the ship from western Denmark and East Cape to sell skin clothing for tobacco, ammunition, and rum; the latter articles they did not get. We had just taken a bowhead whale, and permission being given, the natives completely stripped the whale of its black skin, which is about an inch thick all over the body. They devoured the
