OMAHA MARKETS.

Wholesale Prices.

OFFICE OF THE OMAHA BEE, }
Saturday Evening, January 27, }

The wholesale trade of the city continues dull in most lines, as is expected at this season of the year, though jobbers generally anticipate an early and satisfactory spring business, and are busily preparing for the same. Trade in coal continues good, although the weather is decidly milder than for the past two weeks and prices remain firm.

Groceries show some animation.—Sugars, coffee and tea ruling weak—fish firm and dried fruits advancing.

The movement in dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes and millinery continues light, and prices steady.

Dealers in paints and oils, building materials and hardware had but little to do, and are looking forward to a milder turn of the weather.

The produce market is a little more active than reported the fore part of the week, and the outlook is a little more favorable. Very little was done in green fruits and vegetables, the severity of the weather preventing.

The receipts of butter and eggs were fair, the former dull and weak while the latter are in request and firm at quotations.

Cut meats and lard were in fair demand, and prices steady.

Receipt of hogs during the week, 4 cars—packers paying $5.90 for good.

The local grain market has fluctuated considerably during the week. See review and quotations of to-day.

Money for the Unmarried

One of the most solid and substantial institutions in this country is the Marriage Fund Mutual Trust association of Cedar Rapids, Ia. During their first year, ending January 1st, 1883, they paid over $30,000.00 in benefits to their members, and the greatest satisfaction prevails among their certificate holders. They are organized under the laws of Iowa, and their officers and directors are among the leading and most prominent business men of Cedar Rapids. Every unmarried person should have a certificate in this association.

It is a splendid investment, as safe and sure as a government bond. You can just as well have a good sum of money to commence married life on as not.
