THE TRUE INWARDNESS. Manager Thomas L. Kimball has been before the special railroad investigating committee at Lincoln, and has given what he claims to be the 'true inwardness' of his interest in the stock of the Omaha Republican.

Pattison of Pennsylvania has set at defiance every principle of the civil service reform which he trumpeted so loudly while a candidate for office. The hypothesis of the democracy lies in the continuance of republican factionalism and in the political cowardice of republican leaders.

to the stockholders of the East Pennsylvania company. The New York, Susquehanna and Western railroad have paid over $250,000 in cash and $500,000 in preferred bonds for the construction of the branch line to their new depot at Patterson.

early towns of California, driving his milk-wagon into the place, and serving his customers with milk. Keene, however, does not hold the position he did here a few years ago. It is said he has had great losses, and has even had to mortgage his Newport residence.

THE BEE PUBLISHING CO., PROP. E. ROSEWATER Editor. JUDGE MASON is an attorney as well as a republican for revenue only. VENDOR'S open winter is remarkable for its absence. Even the January thaw is frozen up.

THE DEMOCRATIC HOPE. It is too early yet to calculate the chances of the next presidential campaign but the democrats are not at all backward about claiming the victory in advance of the election.

A SERIES of articles are appearing in the New York Tribune written by Robert P. Porter, late special attorney for Pig Iron Kelly in the tariff commission. Mr. Porter is at present in Scotland, and is busily engaged in figuring down the wages of the shipbuilders on the Clyde to the lowest point and depicting the aquarial of their lives as most miserable.

'TALL OAKS.' The insignificant beaminess of some tremendous fortunes. New York Special to Cincinnati Enquirer. One of my friends who has a large experience in New York, and who was born on this island nearly fifty years ago, said to me:

FOUR FAMOUS WOMEN. Mrs. J. H. Haverly was recently speaking to one of our reporters, and in the course of conversation, said: 'I think that the greatest medicine of the age, and the most meritorious in the market.'—N. Y. Graphic.

THE HOUSE has voted to reduce the postage but the senate post office committee seems to be badly demoralized. The chairman, Mr. Ferry, is busy trying to secure his re-election from Michigan. Farley is away looking after his private affairs and Miller is provoked because the president's New York appointments do not suit him.
