THE DAILY BEE -COUNCIL BLUFFS JOWA WEDN SDAY JANUARY 31

mence work under it soon.

enjoyment.

Broadway.

01401.

pected to take effect February 1. G. A. appointed a month or more ago, as successor to Mark Upton. Mr. Smith is an experienced railway man, and a'though a comparatively new comer here, will rapidly gain and hold the public esteem and position, and is to be succeeded by Arthur Rickman, who has long resided in this city, is well and favorably known, and many friends here will rejoice that he has been selected, and the company will have no occasion to regret the trust imposed, his experience in office work, and the high esteem in which he is held by business men, rendering him a valuable man.

When you want to get Iowa coal that is almost if not equal to Wyo-ming, call for the Frederick, at A. H. Mayne & Co.'s.

N. B. Chapman, of Atlantic, is in the city.

on a flying trip.

William H. DeCon, of Woodbine, Iowa, is at the Ogden.

L. Tinkel, of Ida, Iowa, visited the Bluffs yesterday.

Alice Oates and companystopped at the Ogden over night.

an Ogden house guest.

Avoca attorney, is in the city.

City, arrived here yesterday on a brief stay.

P. H. Barrett, John Philpot, Thomas Goodwin and J. M. Carter, all of Weeping Water, Neb., are at the Pacific.

Frank G Stevens, of Janesville, Wis. one of the best known cigar box manufacturers in the west, was in the city yesterday looking after the trad

Wm. G. Howe, son of H. Y. Howe, furniture dealer, died yesterday at 7 p. m. He was a young man of 19, a great favorite with all who knew him, leaves four brothers and four sisters,